

NO MONEY NOW FOR JURORS' FEES

Robert Smith Reports Funds Will Not Be Available Until About September First.

SMITH'S FEES NOT TURNED IN

Jurors of the district court after the expiration of the present panel and during the remaining fifteen weeks of the court's session will no longer receive cash in payment for their services but will get warrants on county funds which will be available about September 1, District Clerk Robert Smith announces.

Bets He Would Be Released, but Loses

Billy Highpockets, vagrant and dwarf, at one time star tumbler with Ringling Bros. Circus, was arraigned in police court Friday morning and sentenced to ten days.

Arrested for Posing as Federal Officer

Lemuel Goldberg, address Victoria hotel, was arrested by local police officers on complaint of several individuals who assert that Goldberg, representing himself to be a United States government official, had employed them to work for him as subordinates.

FONTELLE IMPROVERS BEHIND HACKETT'S BOOM

The Fontelle Improvement club yesterday evening, at a meeting held at forty-fifth and Bedford avenue, decided to call a mass meeting for Wednesday evening, March 25, to be held in the auditorium of the School for the Deaf.

FIVE DOGS DAILY TOLL OF ACCIDENTS IN OMAHA

Humane Officer Hans Nielsen reports that an average of five dead dogs are picked up throughout the city each day of the year. Last year the total was over 1,500.

POLICE SWEEP DOWN ON TWO BUSY POKER GAMES

Roy Black, colored, 3111 Clark street, arrested by Detectives Murphy and Rooney for conducting a poker game, was fined $10 and costs in police court and four inmates drew $5 and costs each.

FORMER RESIDENT OF OMAHA DIES IN LINCOLN

Mrs. J. A. Peterson, a resident of Omaha for some twenty-five years, died in Lincoln Thursday night at the home of her son, Frank Peterson.

CAUGHT TRYING TO BREAK INTO DOWN TOWN SALOON

Philip Mitchell, 1463 South Twenty-sixth street, and D. DeDezia of St. Paul, were arrested Thursday night by Detectives Dunn and Kennelly, who testified in police court that they found the two men trying to break into the Big Four saloon. The offenders were sentenced to thirty days in the county jail.

Why So Many Feel Tired. "Spring fever" usually is the result of sluggish bowels and torpid liver. After months indoors, you are not likely to feel vigorous and sprightly. Foley's Cathartic Tablets are worth their weight in gold for that over-full feeling, biliousness, gas on the stomach, bad breath, indigestion or constipation. Their action is quick, comfortable and complete without nausea or griping. Stout people say they are a blessing. Sold everywhere.—Advertisement.

From Our Near Neighbors

Bennington. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Anderson went to Omaha Tuesday. The Kennington club met at the home of Mrs. C. W. Glend, on Wednesday afternoon. Henry Dornacker and family have moved back to their farm home, northwest of town. The teachers of the town school went to Omaha last Saturday to attend the meeting of the Douglas County Teachers' association. Henry Witt and family moved last week to the Mt. Timperley homestead, four miles northeast of town. A stirring drama, "The Honor of a Cowboy," will be presented by the high school boys and their friends, at the Woodman hall, on Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Muckelmann sent greetings to friends here from Columbia, where they are spending their honeymoon, enjoying the exposition. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rinsaker returned on the late train Tuesday evening from Hastings, where they were recently married. Their friends gave them a reception on Wednesday evening. Miss Carrie Knapp, who died at her home in Omaha last week, taught in District No. 34, north of town in St. Joseph, Mo., and is remembered as a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Ahrens, when they lived here.

Weeping Water. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cozman went to Elmwood last Wednesday. H. P. Christensen reports that six of his children are sick with the measles. Mrs. C. N. Foster is visiting his sister, Mrs. S. Glasgow and other relatives. Dr. and Mrs. Fred Andrus were in Lincoln last Tuesday. Mrs. T. C. Amick, who died at her home in Omaha last week, taught in District No. 34, north of town in St. Joseph, Mo., and is remembered as a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Ahrens, when they lived here.

Bellevue. The W. E. Webb family are moving from their home on the boulevard into the Cleveland building. The Presbyterian Ladies Aid society had an all-day "sewing" at the home of Dr. C. A. Mitchell, Wednesday. Monday evening the village young people enjoyed a sleigh ride, followed by an oyster supper at the Presbyterian parsonage. The town caucus will meet Wednesday evening to select nominees to fill the four vacant places on the town board at the April election. The majority of the town people and a great many from the surrounding country attended the academy play Tuesday night at McDermott's auditorium. Charles Patrick, who for six years has had charge of the Omaha & Southern trolley car line, is to be one of his places before the end of the month. The new Bellevue barber and shoe repair shop, owned by Adore & Negro, was damaged by fire Tuesday morning at about 2 o'clock. The barber fixtures and chair were destroyed. The insurance of $500 more than covers the damage, which is estimated at about $100. A strong smell of gasoline about the place leads to the opinion that the fire was of incendiary origin.

Nehawka. Mrs. George Insworn is very low with cancer. Mrs. Maeha Goehry of Lincoln was in town Tuesday. G. T. Switzer was in Nebraska City Thursday. E. M. Pollard was in Lincoln on business Tuesday. Charley Snyder was in Union on business Thursday. D. D. Braun of Manly was on our streets Tuesday. J. M. Stoner was a Lincoln business visitor Thursday. Samuel Humphrey has just returned from Savannah, Mo., where he has been taking treatment for cancer, which he thinks is cured.

Springfield. Ber's Salina, who has been visiting his parents here a few weeks, departed last Saturday for Tracy, Cal. G. A. Bates and W. H. Kieck attended the lobbyists' convention at Omaha this week. Laura Stacy, Alice Hogarth and Emerald Keyes were the successful candidates in the contest for the position of high school Wednesday night. They will represent Springfield in the contest at the annual meeting of the county superintendent. The traffic over the Louisville bridge has been resumed. The ice damaged a part of the bridge, but it has been repaired. Miss Ola Booth and Harvey Adleman were married at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Kirkpatrick last Sunday. Messrs. W. W. Wykert and Fred Ball looked in on the lawmakers at Lincoln recently. Rev. Mr. Carman of Minden will commence revival services at the Methodist church next Tuesday. A basket and box social given by the high school Wednesday evening netted $40. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Blunt left last Wednesday for Wyoming, where they have taken a homestead. Mrs. Edgar Parks, who was known in this neighborhood as Miss Harriet Preston, died at her late home at White Clay, Neb., on February 27. The school board elected the following teachers for next year: E. C. Simmons, superintendent; Mabel Straley, Miss Dix, Wanda Besack, Eula Bates and Hazel Holliday.

Elkhorn. Mrs. John Fodde is seriously ill. A baby was born this week to Mr. and Mrs. Emil Sachs. Miss Anna Hansen of Omaha visited Sunday at the J. A. Gibbons home. Mr. and Mrs. Joachim Bull have recovered from their attack of grippe. H. A. Nolte came in from Bridgeport, Neb., Saturday for a short stay here. Mrs. Ethel Byars is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Morrison. Mrs. C. Heese and daughter, Miss Norma, were Omaha visitors Wednesday. Mrs. J. H. Gibbons spent several days this week at Benson, where her grandmother is quite ill. Henry Schmidt returned to Saskatchewan, Canada, Friday after a three months' stay here. T. A. Hollister and wife of Omaha attended the wedding of the former's brother, Eugene, on Wednesday. Mrs. Amy Calvert went to Columbus, Neb., Saturday to visit her son, James, and family. She returned Thursday. Miss Angelina and Miss Anastasia McArdle went to Omaha Sunday to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McArdle. Mrs. E. O'Brien of Canyon City, Colo., and sister-in-law, Mrs. Young of Osceola, were visiting at the William Morrison home Thursday. Eugene Hollister and Miss Gonne Decker were married Wednesday at Waterloo. They will make their home on the Hollister farm west of Elkhorn. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Decker.

Valley. All of the Valley teachers attended the teachers' meeting in Omaha on Saturday. Miss Wauneta Cook spent Saturday night and Sunday at her home in Lincoln. The regular meeting of the Mothers' club was held Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Frank Kennedy. Rev. E. E. Zimmerman and baby, Ethel, of Belden, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Heimbach. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hubbard, Ruth, Mrs. Whitmore, Francis and Edith Edithers, spent Saturday in Omaha. The Women's Christian Temperance union women of Valley will go to Papillion on Friday to assist in organizing Woman's Christian Temperance union at that place. Mrs. Isaac Noyes and Priscilla arrived Wednesday from Dundas, for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. Gardner. Mrs. Davis went to Benson last week to get acquainted with her new grandsons, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Davis. At the regular meeting of the Board of Education Monday night, the following teachers were re-elected: Superintendent Frank E. Adams; Irene Brown; Wauneta Cook and Hilda Parson, high school teachers; Helen McKee, Opria Gaitner, grade teachers; Pearl Hanna, kindergarten. The regular monthly meeting of the "Busy Bees," was held in the Boherty hall on Wednesday afternoon. This being the annual meeting, the following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. Margery Kopp, president; Mrs. May Treaba, vice president; Mrs. Wallstrom, secretary, and Mrs. May Corrie, treasurer. Friday was Patron's day at the Valley schools. In each room were exhibits of the regular work of the pupils. Superintendent W. A. Yoder, Mrs. Stone Johnson and Rev. S. G. Carlson, gave addresses in the assembly room. Miss Janus Brown and the pupils of the fifth and sixth grades, furnished the musical part of the program. A dainty lunch served by the domestic science class, closed the most successful patron's day ever given by the Valley schools.

Avoca. J. R. Peckham of Chappell was here this week. Miss Marie Bothmann of Chicago, is visiting Avoca friends. L. J. Marquardt and wife spent several days this week at Omaha. Simon Rehnier and wife have returned from a visit at Clarion, Ia. Mrs. Otto Brooks and son were over Sunday visitors at Lincoln. Mrs. J. H. Schmidt was an Omaha visitor the first of the week. W. I. Smoots and wife were Omaha visitors Monday and Tuesday. Nicholas Kohl left this week for Campbell, Mo., for a few days' visit. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Johnson are spending the week at Lexington. Scott Meyers and family left this week for Deuel county, where they will reside. Henry Wohlers, who was seriously injured here last Friday, is somewhat improved. J. C. Oatman, wife and son of Hemingford are visiting relatives near here. Mrs. Charles Woodson and son of Council Bluffs were here this week visiting. Miss Ruby Nutman left for Burr Woodbury, where she will teach school, this week. Papillion. Mrs. McKirrick and Miss Orpha McKirrick of Omaha were guests of Mrs. E. B. Nickerson Sunday. Mrs. H. E. Harrison and two sons, Robert and Harvey, were guests of the J. R. Wilson family Saturday and Sunday. Louis Lesieur, who has been ill for the last month, is not improving as rapidly as had been hoped and is still confined to his bed. The county oratorical contest will be held here March 29. The high schools of Springfield, Bellevue and Papillion will be represented. Mrs. Geo. Durkop and Frank Leaders were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Durkop. Mr. and Mrs. Leaders will make their home on the Leaders farm south of town. The oratorical concert of the Papillion high school was held Friday evening. Ralph Nickerson won first place, and will represent Papillion at the district contest, to be held at Fremont in a short time.

Nehawka. Mr. Ekman left Monday for a trip to New Orleans. Mrs. Geo. Stankall was and Omaha visitor on Wednesday. Harvey Knight and Irlis Vestal are on the sick list this week. John Hendrickson is in the hospital again, taking treatment for his eyes. Mrs. John Hendrickson and Mrs. Roy Mace were Omaha visitors Monday. Misses Edie and Matta Brewster visited relatives in South Omaha on Monday. Mrs. Joe McGuire of Benson spent the week with her daughter, Mrs. John Heick. Walter Sundall returned Monday from Rawlins, Wyo., for a five weeks' visit with his parents. Charles Dehn, Archie Hamard and Misses Annie Jacobson and Minnie Dehn, were Omaha visitors on Wednesday.

Lincoln. Mrs. J. C. Oatman, wife and son of Hemingford are visiting relatives near here. Mrs. Charles Woodson and son of Council Bluffs were here this week visiting. Miss Ruby Nutman left for Burr Woodbury, where she will teach school, this week. Papillion. Mrs. McKirrick and Miss Orpha McKirrick of Omaha were guests of Mrs. E. B. Nickerson Sunday. Mrs. H. E. Harrison and two sons, Robert and Harvey, were guests of the J. R. Wilson family Saturday and Sunday. Louis Lesieur, who has been ill for the last month, is not improving as rapidly as had been hoped and is still confined to his bed. The county oratorical contest will be held here March 29. The high schools of Springfield, Bellevue and Papillion will be represented. Mrs. Geo. Durkop and Frank Leaders were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Durkop. Mr. and Mrs. Leaders will make their home on the Leaders farm south of town. The oratorical concert of the Papillion high school was held Friday evening. Ralph Nickerson won first place, and will represent Papillion at the district contest, to be held at Fremont in a short time.

Avoca. J. R. Peckham of Chappell was here this week. Miss Marie Bothmann of Chicago, is visiting Avoca friends. L. J. Marquardt and wife spent several days this week at Omaha. Simon Rehnier and wife have returned from a visit at Clarion, Ia. Mrs. Otto Brooks and son were over Sunday visitors at Lincoln. Mrs. J. H. Schmidt was an Omaha visitor the first of the week. W. I. Smoots and wife were Omaha visitors Monday and Tuesday. Nicholas Kohl left this week for Campbell, Mo., for a few days' visit. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Johnson are spending the week at Lexington. Scott Meyers and family left this week for Deuel county, where they will reside. Henry Wohlers, who was seriously injured here last Friday, is somewhat improved. J. C. Oatman, wife and son of Hemingford are visiting relatives near here. Mrs. Charles Woodson and son of Council Bluffs were here this week visiting. Miss Ruby Nutman left for Burr Woodbury, where she will teach school, this week. Papillion. Mrs. McKirrick and Miss Orpha McKirrick of Omaha were guests of Mrs. E. B. Nickerson Sunday. Mrs. H. E. Harrison and two sons, Robert and Harvey, were guests of the J. R. Wilson family Saturday and Sunday. Louis Lesieur, who has been ill for the last month, is not improving as rapidly as had been hoped and is still confined to his bed. The county oratorical contest will be held here March 29. The high schools of Springfield, Bellevue and Papillion will be represented. Mrs. Geo. Durkop and Frank Leaders were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Durkop. Mr. and Mrs. Leaders will make their home on the Leaders farm south of town. The oratorical concert of the Papillion high school was held Friday evening. Ralph Nickerson won first place, and will represent Papillion at the district contest, to be held at Fremont in a short time.

Nehawka. Mr. Ekman left Monday for a trip to New Orleans. Mrs. Geo. Stankall was and Omaha visitor on Wednesday. Harvey Knight and Irlis Vestal are on the sick list this week. John Hendrickson is in the hospital again, taking treatment for his eyes. Mrs. John Hendrickson and Mrs. Roy Mace were Omaha visitors Monday. Misses Edie and Matta Brewster visited relatives in South Omaha on Monday. Mrs. Joe McGuire of Benson spent the week with her daughter, Mrs. John Heick. Walter Sundall returned Monday from Rawlins, Wyo., for a five weeks' visit with his parents. Charles Dehn, Archie Hamard and Misses Annie Jacobson and Minnie Dehn, were Omaha visitors on Wednesday.

Lincoln. Mrs. J. C. Oatman, wife and son of Hemingford are visiting relatives near here. Mrs. Charles Woodson and son of Council Bluffs were here this week visiting. Miss Ruby Nutman left for Burr Woodbury, where she will teach school, this week. Papillion. Mrs. McKirrick and Miss Orpha McKirrick of Omaha were guests of Mrs. E. B. Nickerson Sunday. Mrs. H. E. Harrison and two sons, Robert and Harvey, were guests of the J. R. Wilson family Saturday and Sunday. Louis Lesieur, who has been ill for the last month, is not improving as rapidly as had been hoped and is still confined to his bed. The county oratorical contest will be held here March 29. The high schools of Springfield, Bellevue and Papillion will be represented. Mrs. Geo. Durkop and Frank Leaders were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Durkop. Mr. and Mrs. Leaders will make their home on the Leaders farm south of town. The oratorical concert of the Papillion high school was held Friday evening. Ralph Nickerson won first place, and will represent Papillion at the district contest, to be held at Fremont in a short time.

Valley. All of the Valley teachers attended the teachers' meeting in Omaha on Saturday. Miss Wauneta Cook spent Saturday night and Sunday at her home in Lincoln. The regular meeting of the Mothers' club was held Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Frank Kennedy. Rev. E. E. Zimmerman and baby, Ethel, of Belden, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Heimbach. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hubbard, Ruth, Mrs. Whitmore, Francis and Edith Edithers, spent Saturday in Omaha. The Women's Christian Temperance union women of Valley will go to Papillion on Friday to assist in organizing

In Spaghetti There Is Great Strength

ONE of the chief articles of food in Southern Europe is spaghetti. We have it of the authority of Dr. Hutchison, the world-famous dietitian, that the energy value of spaghetti or its allied products, as compared with meat, is in the ratio of 100 to 60.

is a strengthening, economical, easily digestible food. Good for the toiler, the office man, the growing child—good for everybody. Prepared from hard durum wheat—the cereal that is rich in gluten—the muscle and tissue builder. Write for free recipe book and find out the many savory dishes that can be made of Faust Spaghetti.

MAULL BROS., St. Louis, U. S. A.

Sunday Dinner Musicale

Leave care at home. Dine where the surroundings add a charm found nowhere else in town. Every Sunday night a Dinner de Luxe at one-fifty the person enables you, at moderate expense, to learn the culinary delights of the new hotel. There is no expense in the enjoyment of a music program of rare excellence from six to nine. This new hotel, with its Dining Rooms, is a realization of a necessity in a modern, progressive city. Moderate prices make it a convenience to you and not a luxury—the luxury is all in your surroundings.

"Built for you to enjoy."

HOTEL FONTENELLE

If you have a "Sunshiny Room," let people know about it in this column of Bee Want ads.

To Each Purchaser of 10 cents' Worth of TUXEDO Tobacco

You'll appreciate the handiness of this Pocket Pencil the minute you try it. Just the right length for easy writing; has a bright, gilt lacquered finish, a soft, adjustable lead, and a durable eraser as an additional advantage. This Pony Pencil is made by Eberhard Faber, the world's famous pencil manufacturer. It fits perfectly in the vest pocket and is the most popular memorandum pencil ever designed.

Because men so thoroughly approve of this new Faber design, we selected it as a suitable gift to offer free, as an inducement to more men to try Tuxedo, and become acquainted with its mild, fragrant and healthful qualities.

Tuxedo is the favorite tobacco of the critical pipe smokers of America and is enthusiastically endorsed by thousands of famous men.

Tuxedo is made of only the finest Burley tobacco grown in Kentucky—carefully ripened, cured and aged until perfectly mild and mellow. Then treated by the secret "Tuxedo Process" that removes the last trace of "bite" and bitterness, and develops the wonderful fragrance of the Burley leaf in a way that no other tobacco has ever successfully imitated.

Take advantage of this free offer and try Tuxedo—pure, mild and absolutely non-biting—soothing, healthful and thoroughly enjoyable.

YOU CAN BUY TUXEDO EVERYWHERE
Convenient pouch, inner-lined 5c with moisture-proof paper . . . 5c
Famous green tin with gold 10c lettering, curved to fit pocket
In Tin Humidors, 40c and 80c
In Glass Humidors, 60c and 90c

FREE Take advantage of this Free Offer today and avoid disappointment. Dealers have only a limited supply of these Pocket Pencils and cannot get more. Look for Free Offer sign in a dealer's window—get 10c worth of Tuxedo and ask for the Pony Pencil Free.

THE AMERICAN TOBACCO COMPANY

Special Notice to Dealers: We want every dealer in Omaha, South Omaha, Benson and Florence to be supplied with these Pocket Pencils. All dealers who have not yet secured a supply of these Pocket Pencils can do so by applying at Tuxedo Headquarters, Hotel, Phone