CORN AND OATS ARE STRONG

OMAHA. March 31, 185.

Foreigners are in the wheat market, and as they want it delivered in the near future, it looks as if the demand is urgent. From their point of view peace will not be declared very soon and it appears that there will be an exceptional demand for breadstuffs.

Not only Great Britain, but the other allies are in the market for August wheat. Their purchases are estimated at about 400,000 bushels. Russia is about the only warring nation that has supplies of foodstuffs ample to last for some time.

L. C. Thrasher of Massahusetts Was on Ship Sunk by German Submarine.

ON WAY TO THE GOLD COAST

LONDON, March 31 .- Leon Ches. ter Thrasher, who was among the 111 persons who lost their lives when the British steamer Falaba was torpedoed last Sunday by a German submarine in St. Georges channel, prob-The corn and oats markets are both strong. The advance in corn was a surprise to both bulls and bears, as the May delivery was quite strong and the buying was mainly by commission houses, although there were some short contracts

Story of Passengers.

Story of Passengurs. Passengers rescued from the Falaba say that when the submarine approached the steamer the German captain shouted in English through a megaphone "I am going to sink you." Another first class passenger from the Falaba reached Liverpool tonight, having been rescued by a trawler and landed at Milford. The Daily Mail in an editorial in connection with the drowning of Thrasher says that the question whether the Washington government will permit a belligerent to destroy an unoffending pasenger ship, carrying an American citizen without giving that citizen any opportunity to escape is raised in its sharpest

The inquest at Milford Haven in the natter of the sinking of the steamer Falaba has established an official death list of III.

Witnesses under oath testified to what had previously been charged that the submarine fired before sufficient time had clapsed for the removal of the pas-Walter Baxter, chief officer

Falaba, said that the submarine crew were dressed in khaki. He also swore that the submarine when first sighted, flew the English eneign, which was replaced by the German ensign prior to the attack.

NEW YORK, March 31.-Leon Chester Thrasher, who was among the Falaba's passengers who perished, lived in Hardwack, Mass., before going to England, His mother, Mrs. M. L. Thrasher, Bves there now.

The Eastman-Dillon company, cankers of this city, transacted business with Mr. Thrasher and received from him a number of letters from time to time, the last being written at Plymouth, England, Feb. ruary 16. The firm did not know whether he was an American citizen, but though

In letters to his mother written early in the year Mr. Thrasher said he had finished with the Gold coast and thought be HARDWICK, Mass., March 3L-Leon

Chester Thrasher, one of the passengers whose lives were lost when the British steamer Falaba was sunk, was a citizen of the United States. He was born here in 1854. Thrasher's mother, Mrs. Mary L. Thrasher, said Leon had lived here until 1901, when he went to Springfield to learn the machinist's trade. After completing his apprenticeship he became a traveling master mechanic, his work taking him to many parts of the world. her son last Friday, in which he wrote that he would sall from Liverpool on the Falaba for Broomhassie, Africa, where he had obtained a position as master mechanic in the mines. The Thrasher family has appealed to Washington to learn the circumstances of the death of Leon. Mrs. Austin M. Thrasher of West Springfield communicated by long distance telephone with Congressman Frederick H. Gillett, who.
