BLUES EASILY COP THE SECOND GAME

Hammer Roy Crabb All Over Scenery and Run Up Eleven Runs to Rourkes' Two.

ONE HIT MADE OFF SANDERS

Lefty George, ex-big leaguer, and Pep-Sanders, prospect, stood the Rourke batters on their heads yesterday while their pals battered the pill all over the landscape. The result was II to 2, with the locals carrying the lesser end.

The lads from Kay See were on the Su waspath right yesterday and the way they larred Mr. Roy Crabb was a caution. It didn't make any difference what Roy delivered, they knocked the ball in the nose and, as is generally the case when Jack Hendricks and the ball is smacked in the face, several hits were made. Twelve blows were caromed off Crabb's slants in five stanzas while three were made off Styles in four

Lefty George opened the game for the noble athletes in the second when Lefty permitted a couple of walks, Teach's bobble and safe pokes by Krueger and Krug. That settled it for the Rourkes. OMAHA FANS TO SEE MATCH AT LINCOLN

Dan Gaines Guarantees Special Train for All Who Wish to See Westergaard-Stecker Match.

TO BE AT LINCOLN MONDAY

Omaha wrestling fans are to have special train to the Stecher-Westergaard match at Lincoln Monday night. This was arranged last night by Dan W. Gaines, proprietor of the Merchants hotel, who not only put up the guarantee for the special, but also made arrange ments with the management of the event at Lincoln to send up a block of reserve seats, so that all who desire to go may be assured of their seats before they start.

The special will leave Omaha over the Burlington at 5:30 Monday evening, and after the bout. No sooner had it become noised around town that a special had been arranged so that Omahans could return home the same night in time to catch a street car that Mr. Gaines was besieged with applicants for seats. NORFOLK VIRGINIANS Premoters at Lincoln had long distance messages from both contestants yesterday, assuring their presence there. That the affair i to be conducted in a high class manner is assured by the prominent business men of Lincoln who are backing it. The Auditorium at Lincoln holds 3,500 people, and present indications are that all room will be occupied Monday night. Special trains are to be run over the Northwestern road from the section of WIN FROM HOUSTON the state around Stecher's home-Dodge.

LINCOLN, April 2.-(Special)-The wrestling match between Joe Stecher and Jess Westergaard, which was to have been held at the Auditorium in Omaha and was prevented by an order from Chief of Police Dunn, will be held at the Lincoln Auditorium Monday night. J. F. Hetmanek, manager for Stecher, and At-R.H.E. torney Cook were in favor of taking legal steps to force Chief Dunn to permit the holding of the match in Omaha about April 16. Westergnard, however, has some engagements in the east about that time and wanted the mutch held carlier Accordingly Hetmanek came to Lincoln DEFEATS CINCI REDS and procured the big Auditorium here to stage the match.
