

RURAL CREDITS BILL ADVANCED IN HOUSE

Measure Providing for Banks to Loan Money on Farms Recommended to Pass.

MANY BUY AND SELL REALTY

LINCOLN, Neb., April 5.—(Special Telegram.)—H. R. R. R., known as the rural credit co-operative, banking bill, was recommended for passage by the house this morning.

Twenty or more persons may incorporate a rural credit bank whose shares shall be for not less than $5 each, and not more than 5 per cent of the stock shall be held by any one person.

Long-Time Loans

The banks are permitted to make long time loans, not exceeding thirty-five years, on farm lands with first mortgage security.

Rural credit bonds secured by mortgages or deeds of trust deposited with the state banking board may be issued by these banks.

Quinby Persists In Trying to Get Wilson Praised

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, April 5.—(Special.)—Senator Quinby does not propose that the democratic senate shall adjourn until it has endorsed President Wilson and his administration.

Lawyers' Bill Goes BY BOARD IN HOUSE

LINCOLN, April 5.—(Special.)—Another bill favored by the lawyers ruthlessly slaughtered in the house Monday morning.

Governor Awaits Primary Outcome

LINCOLN, April 5.—(Special.)—The governor has done nothing yet so far toward issuing a proclamation for the special Omaha election for the purpose of voting on the annexation proposition.

White Sox Game Calls MEMBERS FROM DUTY

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, April 5.—(Special.)—With only six members present with bills on final passage, Hoffmeister of Chase announced that he understood absent members were attending the Chicago White Sox and Lincoln ball game and he moved that the assembly-at-large be ordered to go to the grounds and bring the members back.

Terre Haute Case Goes to the Jury

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 5.—The case of the twenty-seven Terre Haute men charged with conspiring to corrupt the election of last November, went to the jury in the federal court here late today.

Gas Franchise and Firemen's Bill Favored

LINCOLN, April 5.—(Special Telegram.)—Senate file 33, the Quinby bill to repeal the 1911 law permitting the Omaha city charter extension of the Omaha Gas company franchise was recommended for passage by the senate.

Legislative Proceedings

Recommended for Passage by Senate Committee of the Whole.

H. R. 22, Howell of Douglas—Amendment to workmen's compensation law providing a finger and the schedule, such injuries, hitherto left indefinite, to the amount of compensation.

H. R. 23, Henry of Colfax—Annual assessment shall begin March 1 instead of April 1.

H. R. 24, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to establish vocational training courses and to get part of the federal fund for that purpose.

H. R. 25, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 26, Saunders of Douglas—Raises the maximum of aggregate school tax in Omaha from 20 to 25 mills.

H. R. 27, Henry of Colfax—Annual assessment shall begin March 1 instead of April 1.

H. R. 28, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 29, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 30, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 31, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 32, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 33, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 34, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 35, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 36, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 37, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 38, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 39, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 40, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 41, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 42, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 43, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 44, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 45, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 46, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 47, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 48, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 49, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 50, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 51, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 52, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 53, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 54, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 55, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 56, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 57, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 58, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 59, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 60, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 61, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 62, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 63, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 64, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 65, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 66, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 67, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 68, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 69, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 70, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 71, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 72, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

RELIEF COMMITTEE THANKED

House Members Pass Resolution Commending the Members Who Served on This Body.

SERVICE GIVEN WITHOUT PAY

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

Whereas, on March 23, 1912, a terrible disaster in the form of a terrific fire visited and laid waste valuable property in and about the towns of Berlin, in Otoe county; Tutin, in Saunders county; Ralston, and the city of Omaha, in Douglas county, Nebraska, and created untold suffering and incalculable losses to thousands of home owners and residents, and

Quinby Persists In Trying to Get Wilson Praised

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, April 5.—(Special.)—Senator Quinby does not propose that the democratic senate shall adjourn until it has endorsed President Wilson and his administration.

SENATORS AT WORK UPON MONEY BILLS

Thirteen Special Measures Favored by Board of Control Reported Out by Finance Committee.

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, April 5.—(Special.)—Thirteen of the special appropriation bills, most of them Board of Control measures, were reported out by the senate finance committee when the upper house met today.

U. S. Officers Watch For Jack Johnson

CHICAGO, April 5.—United States District Attorney Clyne announced today that the government had stationed secret service men at the ringside of the Johnson-Willard fight in Havana.

Colorado Solon is Arrested for Assault

DENVER, Colo., April 5.—A. P. Ardourel, member of the Colorado legislature, today was arrested on a charge of assault and battery sworn to by C. H. Newell, editor of a newspaper.

Death Record

Jacob Cook, 87, died at the home of his son, L. Cook, of Atlanta, of infirmities incident to old age.

Some Restorations are Made

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, April 5.—(Special.)—Thirteen of the special appropriation bills, most of them Board of Control measures, were reported out by the senate finance committee when the upper house met today.

White Sox Game Calls MEMBERS FROM DUTY

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, April 5.—(Special.)—With only six members present with bills on final passage, Hoffmeister of Chase announced that he understood absent members were attending the Chicago White Sox and Lincoln ball game and he moved that the assembly-at-large be ordered to go to the grounds and bring the members back.

Terre Haute Case Goes to the Jury

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 5.—The case of the twenty-seven Terre Haute men charged with conspiring to corrupt the election of last November, went to the jury in the federal court here late today.

Gas Franchise and Firemen's Bill Favored

LINCOLN, April 5.—(Special Telegram.)—Senate file 33, the Quinby bill to repeal the 1911 law permitting the Omaha city charter extension of the Omaha Gas company franchise was recommended for passage by the senate.

Legislative Proceedings

Recommended for Passage by Senate Committee of the Whole.

H. R. 22, Howell of Douglas—Amendment to workmen's compensation law providing a finger and the schedule, such injuries, hitherto left indefinite, to the amount of compensation.

H. R. 23, Henry of Colfax—Annual assessment shall begin March 1 instead of April 1.

H. R. 24, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to establish vocational training courses and to get part of the federal fund for that purpose.

H. R. 25, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to establish vocational training courses and to get part of the federal fund for that purpose.

H. R. 26, Saunders of Douglas—Raises the maximum of aggregate school tax in Omaha from 20 to 25 mills.

H. R. 27, Henry of Colfax—Annual assessment shall begin March 1 instead of April 1.

H. R. 28, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 29, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 30, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 31, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 32, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 33, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 34, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 35, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 36, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 37, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 38, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 39, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 40, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 41, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 42, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 43, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 44, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 45, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 46, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 47, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 48, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 49, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 50, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 51, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 52, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 53, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 54, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 55, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 56, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 57, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 58, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 59, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 60, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 61, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 62, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 63, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 64, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 65, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 66, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 67, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 68, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 69, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 70, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 71, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 72, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 73, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 74, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 75, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 76, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 77, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 78, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

H. R. 79, Mallery of Box Butte—Enables school boards to consolidate high schools (rural) of from 1910 to 1930 a year per school.

Starters in the Great Elimination Stake

Full List of Entries for the Primary Race to Precede the Main Event, the Great Contest for the Seven City Commissionerships—Trial Heat Set for Today.

Table listing names, residences, and political affiliations of candidates for the Seven City Commissionerships.

Polls Open in the Various Voting Districts from 8 a. m. to 9 p. m.

SENATORS AT WORK UPON MONEY BILLS

Thirteen Special Measures Favored by Board of Control Reported Out by Finance Committee.

SOME RESTORATIONS ARE MADE

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, April 5.—(Special.)—Thirteen of the special appropriation bills, most of them Board of Control measures, were reported out by the senate finance committee when the upper house met today.

U. S. Officers Watch For Jack Johnson

CHICAGO, April 5.—United States District Attorney Clyne announced today that the government had stationed secret service men at the ringside of the Johnson-Willard fight in Havana.

Colorado Solon is Arrested for Assault

DENVER, Colo., April 5.—A. P. Ardourel, member of the Colorado legislature, today was arrested on a charge of assault and battery sworn to by C. H. Newell, editor of a newspaper.

Death Record

Jacob Cook, 87, died at the home of his son, L. Cook, of Atlanta, of infirmities incident to old age.

Some Restorations are Made

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, April 5.—(Special.)—Thirteen of the special appropriation bills, most of them Board of Control measures, were reported out by the senate finance committee when the upper house met today.

White Sox Game Calls MEMBERS FROM DUTY

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

LINCOLN, April 5.—(Special.)—With only six members present with bills on final passage, Hoffmeister of Chase announced that he understood absent members were attending the Chicago White Sox and Lincoln ball game and he moved that the assembly-at-large be ordered to