TWO BROTHERS DIE OF SCARLET FEVER

Health Commissioner Connell Finds Many in Family Stricken with the Disease.

HOUSE PUT UNDER QUARANTINE

Kirk and Selwyn Whitcomb, 20 and 22, respectively, died yesterday at the City Emergency hospital on Douglas street, following a brief attack of scarlet fever. Two brothers, 8 and 12, are at the hospital convalescing from the same disease.

Health Commissioner Connell had the two brothers who died taken from their home at 1107 Pacific street to St. Joseph's hospital and afterward removed to the Emergency hospital on orders of Dr. Connell yesterday.

A woman living at same address, which is a rooming house, is a victim and the place is now under quarantine.

The Whitcomb family came here two weeks ago. Dr. Connell states that the brothers who died were taken ill last Saturday and had no medical attention until yesterday. He believes the two small boys will recover.

The Whitcombs, the health commissioner found, are financially embarrassed, the father now endeavoring to get money from relatives.

Cupid With Arrow Seeks to Shoot Mr. Robin Redbreast

Pedestrians on South Sixteenth were startled yesterday when they beheld Cupid, marching north on the thoroughfare, dressed in the garb originally donated Father Adam and bearing with him his bow and arrow.

Peter awoke early this morning and looking out the window beheld a large red-breasted robin. Considering clothes a small matter on such an occasion, Peter seized his bow and arrow and filled with the spirit of the moment, started to hunt Mr. Redbreast.

The bird's course led him to Sixteenth street, where he started forth on a tour of inspection. William Devereux, Bertrill official, took the little fellow's picture when he was brought to the station, where anxious parents waited.

No Heart to Fine Old Man Up for Theft of Ten-Cent Glasses

Accused as he was to the stern aspects of the police court, Police Judge Reed of South Omaha was visibly touched yesterday when an old man, 65 years of age and homeless, was arraigned before him on the charge of stealing a 10-cent pair of glasses.

After several minutes of absolute silence the judge reached slowly for his pocket and drawing forth a silver coin, said, "Your sentence is a car ride to Benson and something to eat besides."

EMBRYO SLEUTH MASHED BY SUSPECT HE TRAILED

How a special investigator for the Federal Department of Justice, working on a white slave case here, picked up a split lip and other facial decorations that he didn't need as evidence in his case, is being told and laughed over on the quiet by Omaha police officers.

They say the unfortunate investigator was named Wilson, a young lawyer from Lincoln. He thought he was on the trail of a person wanted by the government, and he quest led him to that part of Omaha near the police station.

HARBINGERS OF SPRING HERE TO GIVE MISS RYAN GREETING

Spring surely is here. The martens have arrived at the window of the office of Miss Ryan, assistant superintendent of schools.

MANY TOOK BOOKS FROM LIBRARY IN LAST MONTH

More books were distributed by the Omaha public library last month than during any previous month in its history. The total circulation was 42,354 volumes, compared with 38,000 in January and 31,000 last October.

Johnson Says the Eitel Had No Chance to Escape Enemy

There were so many British and French warships waiting for the Eitel, and they watched so closely, that the famous German sea raider had no opportunity of getting away safely from Newport News, says Manager E. L. Johnson of the Gayety theater, who made a sea trip from New York to Old Point Comfort last Friday and Saturday.

The Dominion vessel Madison, on which Johnson made the trip, passed within 300 or 350 yards of one of the waiting foreign fighting ships, near Chesapeake light ship, he says, and he saw several others closer to land. One foreign vessel approached the shore a little too close and he saw the United States dreadnaught Alabama go out to warn it to stay beyond the three-mile limit.

While he was making the ocean voyage the terrific coast storm of last Saturday was encountered, when many ships were destroyed and 200 lives were lost.

Omaha to Vote On Sunday Base Ball Question May Four

City commissioners have voted to submit at the May 4 election the question of whether Omaha shall have Sunday baseball, this being under the state law which gives towns and cities this privilege.

PEACE TALK AND RAIN TUMBLES WHEAT PRICES

Peace talk in New York and more rain over the winter wheat belt sent prices on the Omaha Grain exchange down like a rocket, the cereal marking a loss of 2 to 3 cents from Wednesday.

Omaha wheat receipts were light. Eleven cars, the prices ranging from $1.45 to $1.47 per bushel. Corn suffered a loss of 1/8 cent per bushel, selling at 68 3/4 cents per bushel, while oats remained steady to unchanged at 13 1/4 cents, with twenty-one cars on sale.
