Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade. CHICAGO, May 4.-Canadian govern-ment restrictions of exports had a builish effect today on the wheat market here. Gains in price, however, were not all held, the close being weak, Mc to Mc up, cats, at a shade off to Mc advance, and provisions, with a rise of foc to 20c. Although the likelihood appeared re-mote that in any possible juncture the action of the Canadian authorities would have a material influence on supplies in the United States, wheat shorts were quick to run for cover. Higher quota-tions at Liverpool tended furthag to make the bear side of the market unpopular, and it was not until midday that specu-lators ventured on a selling drive. Good support was encountered on the ensuing dip in prices, and there was a guick re-Features of the Trading and Closing bound, which, however, seemed to lose energy in the last fifteen minutes of the sense of urgent foreign demand had something to do with the comparative weakness of wheat during the last trans-actions. After trading hours, a report was received from the east that 109,000 barrels of flour had been sold to Burope, but bellef prevalled here that the an-nouncement referred to old business. Corn developed strength largely as a result of Argentina advices telling of severe crop damage. Assertions, though, that European demand had turned to the United States were not confirmed. Shorts in cats took to cover owing to the bulge that cash demand had much improved. Enlarged export trade tended to lift provisions. Besides, hog receipts today were not so plentiful as had been looked for. Futures ranged as follows: Trticle Open. High.! Low. | Close. [Yes'y.
