INDIANS DEFEAT THE HIGHLANDERS

Cleveland Opens Its Series with Eastern Clubs by Winning Three-to-One Game.

HAGERMAN PASSES TEN MEN

CLEVELAND, O., May 11.—Cleveland opened its series against the eastern clubs by beating New York, 3 to 1. Hagerman, who had not pitched a full game this year, passed ten men, but as he held his opponent to three hits he was in trouble in only one inning, the eighth, when he forced in New York's only run. A running catch by Liebold in the same inning cut off two other runs. Jackson's hits drove in Cleveland's runs. Score:

Senators Beat Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 11.—Washington, the first of the eastern clubs to invade Chicago, shut out the locals 2 to 0, today. They won the game from Scott in the fourth inning, when a base on balls and a double by Morgan netted a run. Their other run came on Moeller's homer off Benz. Sensational fielding behind Shaw in the pinches prevented the locals from scoring. Score:

Prize Fight Film Case Argued Before Court of Appeals

PHILADELPHIA, May 11.—The case involving the right to bring into this country films of the Willard-Johnson fight was taken under advisement by the United States court of appeals here today after arguments has been heard.

Frederick E. Freed, collector of the port of Newark, refused to allow the entrance of the films and was upheld by Federal Judge Thomas Haight of Jersey City.

Counsel for those interested in the films said they were not an article of commerce and therefore should be admitted.

Scott Perry Sold to Browns.

LOUISVILLE, May 11.—As a step in reducing the roster of the Louisville American association club to the prescribed limit of sixteen players, Pitcher Scott Perry, it was announced last night, has been sold on trial to the St. Louis Americans. Perry came to Louisville last year from the Wichita club of the Western league.

The Clerk Guaranteed It.

"A customer came into my store the other day and said to one of my clerks, 'Have you anything that will cure diarrhoea?' and my clerk went and got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and said to him, 'If this does not cure you, I will not charge you a cent for it.' So he took it home and came back in a day or two and said he was cured," writes J. H. Berry & Co., Salt Creek, Va. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

GATES IS HIGH IN SECOND DAY SHOOT

Wins 150-Target Optional Sweepstakes and Is Tied for First in 100-Target Event.

M'COWN GETS COMBS TROPHY

Shooting in most consistent form, Lester Gates of Columbus carried off the honors in the final events of the two-day registered tournament held under the auspices of the Omaha Gun club yesterday. Gates was high gun in the 150-target optional sweepstakes with a score of 145, and tied for first place with Bert Dixon of Omaha, and A. Kanyen of Fremont in the 100-target optional sweepstakes with a score of 94.

Ben Gallagher of Omaha won the 100-target trophy race for the simon-pure amateurs with a score of 84. This match was open only to shooters who had never made a score of over 80 per cent in a registered tournament.

With his 84 score, Gallagher ceased to be a simon-pure amateur, as does L. D. Callahan, who finished second with 82. The other competitors fell below the 80 mark and still retain their standing.

Kennicott Makes Long String.

H. Kennicott of Evanston, Ill., was the high gun of the day with a score of 148 out of a possible 150, but being a professional, does not cut in the money. Kennicott also shot the longest unbroken string, 106 targets. That is the record for the tourney.

In the 150-target optional sweepstakes, C. L. Wagner of Dillon and Bert Dixon of Omaha tied for second with a score of 141.

Don McCown, Les Gates and Kanyen all broke 94 rocks in the 100-target race. Charles Gammon of Arcadia, C. L. Wagner of Dillon and Bert Dixon of Omaha were tied for second in this event with 93 breaks.

McCown Gets Trophy.

Don McCown is the new possessor of the T. L. Combs trophy, a cup which has been a cherished trophy among Nebraska trap shooters for a dozen years. McCown, the challenger, defeated Chris Christensen of Elk City, holder of the cup, in a special 100-target race. McCown turned in a score of 94, while Christensen broke but 65 birds. The even scores in this race are as follows:

McCown	19	17	19	20	19—94
Christensen	14	14	13	11	13—65

Gallagher upset all the dope in the simon-pure amateur event, as did Callahan, who finished second. A. J. Workman and Cliff Wolfe were tied for third position with 79.

The tournament was an unqualified success and the members of the Omaha Gun club are more determined than ever to make it an annual event. Next fall another two-day registered shoot will also be held.

Scores yesterday were as follows:

I Use "Tiz" For Sore, Tired Feet

"TIZ" for puffed-up, aching, smarting, calloused feet and corns.

Good-bye sore feet, burning feet, swollen feet, smelling feet, tired feet.

Good-bye corns, callouses, bunions and raw spots. No more shoe tightness, no more limping with pain or drawing up your face in agony. "TIZ" is magical, acts right off. "TIZ" draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up the feet—the only remedy that does. Use "TIZ" and wear smaller shoes. Ah! how comfortable your feet will feel. "TIZ" is a delight. "TIZ" is harmless.

Get a 25 cent box of "TIZ" now at any druggist or department store. Don't suffer. Have good feet, glad feet, feet that never swell, never hurt, never get tired. A year's foot comfort guaranteed or money refunded.—Advertisement.

What's the Use of Red Suspenders When Coats Must Be Kept On?

They are a proud lot—the Omaha policemen—since they got their new red suspenders.

Several days ago this sign appeared on the station house bulletin board:

Officers: The suspenders which you ordered have arrived. ANDERSON.

Only this and nothing more. But if Paul Revere himself had ridden, bearing the tidings, the news could not have spread more quickly.

Think not oh, citizen, that the cop whom you see directing traffic or nonchalantly sampling peanuts from Antolo's stand is a man without pride. Nothing of the kind. You should have seen the rush for those suspenders. You should have seen the gleam of joy in scores of pairs of eyes as they viewed the new pants supporters.

And well might they admire. Well might pride stir their manly buzzums. Well might they see in their minds' eyes admiration from wives and sweethearts. For these are suspenders de luxe.

Of Royal Crimson.

Royal crimson is their color. They are plentifully ornamented with brass and there is an ingenious arrangement of block and tackle which will allow of the hoisting of even the most voluminous and tentlike trousers without the aid of steam, gas or electrical power.

As for strength, the manufacturer assures the force that each and every one of its members can bend over without fear of consequences—provided, of course, the buttons don't give way under such terrific pressure. Even big Jim Murphy need have no fears when he gets into the patrol to conduct it somewhither, and the altitude and weight of big Mike McCarthy form no bar to the efficiency of the new galluses.

In former years the police suspenders were just the ordinary kind.

"What's the idea in having red suspenders?" someone asked Desk Sergeant "Andy" Pattullo.

"Why, to keep our pants up," said "Andy."

To Embroider Steves.

Steve Maloney, chief of detectives and a disciple of the late Beau Brummel, will probably have his embroidered. Steve always has to be a lap or two ahead of the rest in sartorial magnificence.

Of course, they're adjustible, and the block and tackle arrangement can be drawn up or let down to accommodate the leg screens of O. P. Petersen, the smallest man on the force, as well as to take sure hold on the voluminous drapings that cover the pedal extremities of the biggest men.

Interviewed on the new suspenders some of the officers and men had the following to say:

Chief Dunn: "What are pants without suspenders?"

Captain Dempsey: "A poor suspender and its pants are soon parted."

Humane Officer Nielsen: "I have tried the effect of the red color of our suspenders on horses and dogs. I am glad to say the animals suffer no shock whatever at seeing them."

Assistant Desk Sergeant Joe Heil: "The suspense may be awful, but the suspenders are awful nice."

Will Keep His Coat On.

Turnkey Brady: "I'll wear them, but I'll keep my coat on."

Although the regulations forbid it, can the cops be blamed if they carelessly throw open their coats now and then to give the public a glimpse of the crimson haberdashery?

No, let us not blame them.

We'd be tempted to do it ourselves if we had such galluses.

Saunders-Westrand Suit is Settle Out of Court for $27,000

Trial of the Saunders-Westrand company's suit for $45,000 against Lamson Bros. & Co. in Judge Estelle's district court, in which the plaintiff sought to recover money alleged transferred from it to the defendant by the late Sherman Saunders and William C. Sunderland, was brought to a close by dismissal of the suit, caused, it was said, by a settlement.

It was rumored that $27,000 was the consideration for dismissal of the suit, the report being unconfirmed by attorneys on either side. A stipulation in which no consideration was named will filed in court.

Dismissal of a similar suit brought by the Saunders-Westrand company against the Bartlett-Frazier company was also recorded.

All the parties to these suits were companies which deal largely in grain transactions. One of the principal issues outlined in the suit which went to trial was the question of alleged illegality of grain dealings as carried on by the Chicago Board of Trade and its branches throughout the country.

WHO IS "CELESTIA"?

(Sometimes Called the Goddess)

Who is Celestia, who is she, that all the town is asking? What has she done that is so wonderful? Has she performed miracles in this modern day of ordinary mechanical things? Who is Celestia, that some should call her "The Goddess?" Who is Celestia that she can claim she comes from Heaven?

Who is Celestia? Who is she?

Who is this woman? How can she be permitted the liberty of the press, even though paid for in advertisement space.

Who is paying for her publicity and what is the scheme?

How can she be permitted to adopt the tone that she does in her speeches?

Here is a person claiming to come from Heaven. Insane on the face of it!

Evidently a scheme to introduce this woman as a shouting Evangelist, crying for converts. Does it not seem that way to all thinking men and women?

Before we permit ourselves to become hysterical over this matter of Celestia, however, we must consider quietly and deliberately, all that this means.

Let us solve this mystery at once!

Notice All

Unless we receive an appropriate answer by Monday we shall swear out a warrant against Celestia. It is preposterous that anybody should use the public prints, in any such manner as this. She comes as a leader without any presumable right. She has the audacity to call herself "The Goddess!"

We demand to know why such a charlatan, a fraud and an imposter should be allowed to play on the credulity of our citizens.
