MR. GEORGE HARCOURT, the connoisseur of Terpsichorean art, has become so charmed with the fair sex of Omaha that he has delayed his return east for another week.

During his engagement at the Orpheum two weeks ago with Miss Joan Sawyer, the world's most beautiful dancer, Mr. Harcourt met through Miss Eugenia Whitmore several members of the younger set, and since then has been loathe to leave.

The circuit closing for the summer months, Mr. Harcourt decided to sojourn awhile in Omaha instead of leaving for the east, as was his plan. He has been spending his time on the Country club links and as honor guest at informal affairs given by the fairer sex.

A new dancing class has been organized at which Mr. Harcourt will be the instructor. The first meeting was held last evening at the Country club, and the members include Messrs. and Mesdames Fred P. Hamilton, Ward Burgess, Frank Kennedy, J. T. Stewart, E. H. Sprague, W. T. Burns, W. J. Foy and W. D. Hosford; the Mesdames Menie Davis, Elizabeth Davis and Louise Dinning, and Messrs. Cuthbert Potter, A. B. Warren and C. W. Hull.

Feder-Alpin Wedding.

The marriage of Miss Goldie Alpin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Alpin, and Mr. David P. Feder of St. Paul, Minn., was celebrated last evening at 6 o'clock at the Hotel Rome, in the presence of relatives and immediate friends.

Miss Graham Lutz sang several selections during the ceremony.

Miss Eva Alpin, sister of the bride, and Miss Mollie Corby were the bridesmaids, and Mrs. H. D. Marowitz was the matron of honor. Mr. Abe Levy and Mr. Louis L. Periman of St. Paul were the groom's attendants.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of ivory satin made along the Queen Anne lines, with court train. It had an over drape of spider web lace, edged with tiny white satin rosebuds. Her tulle veil was held in place with lilacs of the valley and she carried brides' roses and lilacs of the valley.

Miss Eva Alpin, maid of honor, wore a gown of sea green tulle, trimmed with tulle of French hand embroidery edged with silver rosebuds.

Miss Corby's gown was pale yellow pussy willow tulle. The skirt was draped over white lace and chiffon flounces.

Ribbons were stretched by the Mesdames Esther Epstein, Ruth Gross, Fannie Rosenblum and Doretta Eisenstadt of Minneapolis.

The ushers were Mr. Hay Wolfe, Carl C. Kattelman, Arthur Rosenblum, Max Rosenblum, Arthur Marowitz and Herman Marowitz.

The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. Barr and daughter, Beula, of St. Paul; Mr. and Mrs. E. Barr of Kansas City; Mrs. Eisenstadt and daughter, Doretta, of Minneapolis; Miss Anna Barr of Minneapolis; Mr. Abe Levy and Mr. Gayle Levi of St. Paul; Mr. Louis Periman of St. Paul; Mr. and Mrs. H. Levin of Sioux City; Miss Sarah Shulkin of Sioux City; and Miss Rose Genesky of Des Moines.

Entertains at Luncheon.

Mrs. W. A. Smith entertained the members of the Rummy club at a buffet luncheon Tuesday at her home. The rooms were decorated throughout with spring flowers. The card game followed the luncheon and the prizes for high scores were awarded to Mesdames H. L. Underwood, E. H. Oakes and D. E. Lovejoy. Mrs. J. S. Zepf was the guest of the club. The club will meet again in two weeks at the home of Mrs. Alex Jetas. On Friday evening of this week the members of this club will entertain their husbands at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Lovejoy.

TEN STORIES FOR SCHLITZ CORNER

Wolf Completes Financing of the Deal and Secures Lease—To Build at Once.

TENANTS ARE ALL TO MOVE

H. A. Wolf, local real estate man, who has held an option on the Schlitz hotel corner from George A. Joslyn, who bought the corner from the stockholders of the First National bank, has completed his option. The ninety-nine-year lease from Mr. Joslyn to Mr. Wolf has been delivered. Mr. Wolf has succeeded in financing the proposition, has made peace with the present tenants so that they will move out and he will proceed as soon as possible to erect a ten-story fireproof building on the corner.

Mr. Wolf has succeeded in interesting some strong financial backing for his undertaking. The building will be built on the Joslyn building and plans are being drawn by John McDonald, the architect. Mr. Wolf deposited $50,000 with Judge Sullivan, attorney for Mr. Joslyn, under agreement made with Mr. Joslyn before he left for California.

Mayard Gets Third Call to Front, but is an American Now

Although he has received his third call to return to France and fight in his former regiment for his native country, M. Charles Mayard, director of restaurants at Hotel Fontenelle, is not going to the war.

"I am an American citizen and have been for over three years," he explained. "The United States is the only nation I will ever fight for now."

He was a member of a regiment of Alpine chasseurs and served his full time under the French tri-color before entering the hotel business and finally coming to America. He has three brothers now at the front in northern France, and has just received letters from two of them.

One writes the Omaha man that many troop trains, bringing hundreds of the wounded soldiers back from the front, are filling the hospitals. He was himself taken back ill, but not wounded. The other brother writes that he has taken German out of the course of study of his young son, who will hereafter learn to speak English.

Jardine Wants Two Streets Repaved

Commissioner Jardine of the public improvement department will offer at the next city council meeting ordinances to provide for repaving Twenty-fourth street, Cumming street to Patrick avenue, and Twentieth street, Pierce to Center streets. This work will be done under the new law which authorizes the council to order repaving within a territory of one mile and a half from the city hall.

Under the same law the following repaving districts have already been decided on: Military avenue, Forty-fifth street to city limits; Pierce, Sixth to Tenth streets; Thirteenth street, Leavenworth to Martha streets.

Other districts will be announced during the spring.

In cases where streets to be repaved are surfaced with granite blocks it will be possible to relay the same blocks. In other blocks it will be only necessary to tear out only the asphalt surface and apply new material. Some of the old pavements are in such condition that continual repairing is a waste of money, it is stated.

FIFTY CARS OF THRESHERS GOING TO KANSAS FIELDS

A special train of fifty cars, all loaded with threshing machines for Kansas, is enroute west over the Rock Island, carded to reach here at 7 o'clock this evening and leave for destination Friday morning, making a daylight run. The cars are from the factories of the Rumley company, coming from La Porte, Ind., Battle Creek, Mich., and Stillwater, Minn.

Father of Bride Who Eloped Wants Marriage Annulled

Mrs. Elsie Marie Richmond, 15-year-old bride, is an unwilling plaintiff in a suit in district court against her husband, Emerson Donald Richmond, with whom she eloped January 8, to annul the marriage. It is brought in the name of her father, George Nachneber, who declares his daughter is too young to wed.

The young folks were principals in the old story of the escape from unrelenting parents, the hasty trip across the Missouri river, and the wedding in Council Bluffs. The ceremony was performed by Justice of the Peace John Cooper of the Iowa city.

But, according to the petition filed in court, the parents immediately separated the two who desired to be one and Mrs. Richmond is now being guarded at her father's home, 530 William street, where, says the petition, the stern parent is keeping them apart "with his entire ability."

"Wait two years," says father.

Wheat Takes Drop of Four to Five Cents

Following Chicago, the Omaha wheat market sold off 1 to 5 cents, $1.42 per bushel being the highest price paid. There were nine carloads on the market and two sold. The balance was carried over.

Corn was up 1/4 of a cent, selling at 79 cents to 77 1/2 cents, with thirty-two carloads offered.

Oats were steady to unchanged from Tuesday at 45 cents to 46 1/2 cents per bushel. Ten carloads were on the market.

HE WANTED TO ROVE THE SEA

William John Frank Tries to Enlist When Yet Under Tender Age of 17 Years.

GETS HIS MOTHER'S CONSENT

"Procrastination" is a word that is not found in the bright lexicon of William John Frank, 501 Bauer street.

Six months ago William John Frank presented himself at the navy recruiting office and broached his ambition to get onto a battleship.

"How old are you?" asked Chief Yeoman Hilly.

"I'll soon be 17," said William John Frank, who was still so young as to be ashamed of youth.

"We can't enlist you till you're 17 and even then you'll have to get your parents' consent," he was told.

William John Frank, however, begged to be allowed to take the physical examination then and there.

May 19 he appeared at the station with his mother.

"I'm 17 today," he announced with a joyous grin. "Can I enlist now?"

Then mother spoke. Alas, she hadn't raised her boy to be a sailor, and she didn't know where he got this idea of joining the navy; and he was so young, it seemed only yesterday since he was a baby, and oh, he was such a sweet baby, she used to take him out in his perambulator and all the folks on the street just had to stop and look at him and—

But William John Frank interrupted with manhood's sternness. Such memories were not for him. No, no. What have pretty babies in perambulators to do with warlike young men who are about to go out on battleships and shoot off sixteen-inch guns. Avasit, such thoughts and let us to the stern business in hand. Men must work and women must weep. Has it not been so written by Rudyard Kipling, Rose Beach, Jack London and other stern warriors?

Yeoman Hilly, Agate.

Mr. High and others then reasoned with William John Frank to such good purpose that he consented to return to the maternal roof and fix tree to give still further thought to the alleged beauties of peaceful life ashore.

But it was no good. Tuesday, after apparently six days of meditation, William John Frank appeared again to give himself up to the sea, where life is wild and free singing.

"Fifteen men on a dead man's chest, To, ho, ho and a bottle of rum."

William John Frank is already on his way to the naval training station at Chicago.

SEVERAL SEWERS STOPPED UP AND SEWAGE BACKS UP

The city sewer department has received complaints of sewers stopped up and backing into basements. Among the worst cases were reported from Thirteenth and Dorcas streets, Sixteenth and Davenport streets, Eleventh and Clark streets and under the Tenth street viaduct.
