BRIEF CITY NEWS

Jitney Watches at Edholm's. Have Boot Frint It-Now Beacon Press Bleetrie Fans-Burgess-Granden Co. Radiator Efficiency-The 25c plate inner served at Schlitz hotel.

Join T. M. C. A. on special summe membership plan. Then use it. $5.69. Boysen's Famous Virginia Ham will be served for lunch at the Faistaff Buffet Saturday.

Butler Beturns-City Commissioner Butler has returned from a rest at Excelsior Springs, Mo

Dr. A. A. Crandell announces removal theater building. Phone Douglas 446. Dr. James P. Connolly, Dentist, wishes to announce the removal of his offices to 200-01 Brown block, 16th and Douglas Sts. Formerly in City National bank.

"Today's Complete Movie Program' classified section today, and appears in The Bee EXCLUSIVELY. Find out what the various moving pleture theaters offer. Quinian Bound Over-John Quinlan, charged with the breaking and entering of Ed Thiel's tailor shop at 719 South Sixteenth street, was bound over to the district court with bonds fixed at $1,000.

Tries to Pass Worthless Check-Mike grandparents since having formed the Sona of Genoa, Nob., was sentenced to ninety days in the county jail for attempting to pass a worthless check for $15.75, to which had been signed the name of J. H. Cahill.

George B. Raynes Out of Mospital-George B. Haynes, formerly city pas- was a continuous resident of the state. senger agent of the Milwaukee railroad here and now general passenger agent, with offices in Chicago, is just out of the hospital, where he underwent a serious operation on his siomach.

Find Stranger in Cellar-A. H. Hen-drickson, 1541 South Forty-first street, reports to the police that upon going to the basemant Thursday evening to fix the furnace he surprised a man hiding in . the fellow, however, he had made his escape through the cellar window, Hendrickson gave a description of his find to Chief Maloney.

Sewer Bids Are Opened-Bids have been opened in Commissioner Jardine's office for sewer improvements which will cost nearly $75,000. The following were the low bids received: Fifty-first, Leavenworth, to Saddle Creek and Poppleton venue, Fifty-first to Fifty-third, J. J. Manighen company, $18,229.93: Grant street, Forty-fifth to Forty-seventh, A. G. Schreiber, $1,179.92; extension of Miller park storm water sewer on Twenty-seventh avenue, Crown Point avenue north line of Miller park, $53,485.22.

Teachers Peeved Over Delay in Time for the Pay Check

Quite a breeze is stirring in school affairs over the circular sent to the teachers, announcing that their last warrants of the school year will not be distributed until Tuesday, June 22, four days after the close of school.

Acting upon the custom which has been in vogue for twenty years, many of the teachers made plans to leave on Saturday, June 19, the day after the last day of school. This sudden announcement by President Ernst of the Board of Educaion brought forth all sorts of comments. When the Ernst circular was received one of the principals, with a prophetia |vision. made this remarks The mob in Caesar is like a May day affair compared to what will follow this fully Surrounded by His Large Family.

UNCLE JOE REDMAN, OLD PIONEER, DEAD

Joseph Redman, one of Omaha's oldest pioneers passed away Friday afternoon at 1:05 at his home., He t his dental office to suite 342 Brandels has been gradually sinking for the last week, having been unconscious for the last two days.

a sweet, peaceful sleep. It was a gradual wearing out of the human machine His health had failed so gradually that when called, he passed away without a struggle, surrounded by the members of his family. Conscious almost to the last, though weak, he recognized his friends who called, and of whom there were scores, men and women who have grown to manhood and womanhood and have become fathers and mothers and even

Joseph Redman was a ploneer of the pioneers, coming to Nebraska long prior five years and, more of his life, he had spent more than fifty-eight in Nebraska.

Rode the Tow Path.

The son of a tailor in a little Pennsyl-Uncle Joe Redman at an early age had way, riding a horse on the tow-path of where his parents resided. For this work he received $$ per month, working seven

Answers the Last Call Most Peace-

ONE OF EARLIEST SETTLERS

To Uncle Joe Redman, death came like acquaintance of this ploneer who has to the period when statehood commenced. and from that time until his death he of the steamers that then were numerous on the Missouri. They were thirty days Douglas county and the city of Omaha. in reaching Omaha and, early the morn-Born in Hollidaysburg, Pa., December 14, 1829, at the time of his death he was past 85 years of age, and during the eightyvania village and one of eight children, yoke of oxen, and, loading his posses- paigns, rather than asking anything for sions into the wagon, started out to look himself the coal room. Before he could apprehend to shift for himself. When 13 years of up some land, very little of which had Some twenty-five years ago Mr. Redage he started out to make his own been taken by settlers at that time. Be- man retired from active business and Redman, Wray, Colo.; William S. Red- program.

THE BEE: OMAHA, SATURDAY, MAY 29, 1915.

1.24.4

the canal that passed through the town west, a tract of 160 acres was found that to fall several months ago, devoted much days per week and twelve hours per at the rate of $1.35 per acre with money part of the city, where he always re-

35 2 1383/ 57 2 -

With the beginning of working out, rate of 80 per cent per annum. Uncle Joc Redman finished his education Settled at Saratoga. so far as schools were concerned. How-Shortly after securing title to his land, ever, in after years, always being a thor-Mr. Redman hought a tract in the vicinough student, he acquired a pretty fair education, mastering all the common ity of Twenty-fourth street and Ames avenue, a town that at that time was branches taught in the public schools of known as Saratoga. Here he erected a the country. building and started doing blacksmith For two years Uncle Joe Redman rode work, though, as he frequently afterward for the canal company and then turned acknowledged, he was not a blacksmith. his attention to farming, finding em-The blacksmith venture was not successployment near his home. At the age of ful, and quitting this. Mr. Redman en-20 years he heard the call of the west. gaged in freighting between Omahs and and, securing deck passage, went down the Ohio river on one of the boats to the Mississippi, and then up that stream to Dubuque. At Dubuque he remained onyear, and then went back to Penneylwhere a few months later he vanin, and Izard streets. And, by the way, this Fair, who died many years ago, and to was the first store located on Sixteenth whom all of his children were born. street where dry goods were sold. Sailed Down Ohio.

18.2.35

tile business for a number of years and Early in the spring of 1857, Mr. Reuman, retired when elected to the city council his wife and their two hables hade goodin 1878, serving in that body with Georga byr to the old Pennsylvania home and, Lininger, Dennis Cunningham, Isaac securing passage on one of the Ohio W. Hascall and Barney Shannon. He was river boats, started for Nebraska, a secthe chairman of the committee on lights tion of the country that then was little and it was on his resolution that the first known, except that it was spoken of as gas lamp in the city was located. Durthe abode of Indians and the range for ing his incumbency the first sewer in countless herds of buffalo. The Ohio Omaha was laid, it extending from Fourriver boat carried the Redmans to teenth to Eighth street on Jackson. Louis, and from there they came on one

Held Appointive Office.

After serving one term in the council, Mr. Redman was a number of times aping of May 12, 1857, stepped off the gangpointed deputy assessor and upon sovplank at a point near what is now the eral occasions held appointive offices, both city and county. Always active in For a couple of weeks after reaching politics and for years the president of Omaha, Mr. Redman, his wife and chil- the Fifth Ward Republican olub, he seidren lived in a covered wagon that the | dom sought office, seemingly being conformer purchased. Later he bought a tent to aid his friends in political cam-tween Omaha and Florence and a little after that until his health commenced man, western Nebraska, and Mrs. Clarpleased Mr. Redman, and here he made of his energies to working for the interhis pre-emption filing, paying out on it ests of the Fifth ward and the north he borrowed, the interest figuring at the sided. During several summers he had charge of the boys' swimming pool and bath house at the south end of Carter man, who lived at Salt Lake, died a lake, working without reward, or hope of reward. He was always an advocate of a park in the north part of the city. and it was largely through his efforts that the land for Miller park was seured for and by the city

Worked for Carter Lake Park.

Immediately after the close of the Transmississippi exposition Mr. Redman started a campaign looking to the city securing Carter lake and the grounds around it for park purposes and a public i project until success crowned his efforts. Redman was quite an extensive traveler. but he was always imbued with the idea of the Missouri.

Uncle Joe was a life-long Latheran and was one of the charter members and oralso a member of the Douglas County STan is being arranged. Association of Nebraska Pioneers, a member of the Nebraska Historical soclety. Following the death of his first wife, some years later, November 12, 1882, Uncle Joe married Mrs. Elizabeth Has-he lived for twenty years or so. Besides his widow, Uncle Joe Redman dren. The children are: George L. Redman, Mrs. A. L. Root, Kelly, Rev. Joseph A. Weis and Prof. A. Bluffs; B. F. Redman, Salt Lake City, ence English, Winnipeg. With the exception of Mrs. English all the children. were with their father at the time of his death. One son, David C. Redman, who lived at Harper's Ferry, Ia., and Joseph Red-number of years ago. JUNIOR PLAYERS WILL HAVE A DRAMA LEAGUE

Pollowing up the interest of their elders In the recently Drama league, the younger set at the Social Settlement will organize the "Junior Players" this evening. The settlement already boasts one drama club, composed of young men and women. The Junior Players" plan to put on several recreation resort. He worked on this fairy plays in the fall, carrying out the of the Settlement Dramatic league work During the latter years of his life Mr. of the Educational Alliance in New York. The picnic of the sewing school classes. which was announced for Saturday, has "See America First," consequently he been postconed on account of the weather. confined his travels to the country west Instead the children will meet at the settlement at B:# o'clock and come downtown to the movies The Woman's club of the Social Settleganizers of the Kounize Memorial church ment will give a June party Thursday at of this city, organized in 1888. He was the settlement house. An interesting pro-

member of the State association and a CREIGHTON HIGH GRADUATES ATTEND ANNUAL BANQUET

Creighton High school's graduating class held its banquet at Hotel Rome kell, who survives him, residing in the Friday evening and enjoyed an interestfamily home at 1625 Corby street, where ing program of speeches and music following the dinner. Joseph P. Mally, president of the class, was toastmaster. Other is survived by eleven children, fifteen students who spoke included Paul V. grandchildren and seven great-grandchil- Duffy, Daniel Dorsey, Edward Fogarty and Thomas Collopy. Rev. Robert M.

James P. Redman and Sherman Redman, Schmitt talked. School and class rongs Omaha; Mrs. Harry Keeline, Council and banjo and mandolin selections by John Flynn and John Kennebeck com-Utah; Mrs. Clara Balley, Canada; Samuel prized the musical part of the evening's

Spring Medicine

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the Great Blood. Purifier, is the Best.

Spring sickness comes in some dearee to every man, woman and child In our elimate.

It is that run-down condition of the system that results from impure, imoveriahed, devitalized blood.

It is marked by loss of appetite and hat tired feeling, and in many cases some form of eruption

The best way to treat spring sickness to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. This old reliable family medicine purifies, enriches and revitalizes the blood, it is an all-the-year-round alterative and tonic, and is absolutely the best Spring medicine

Get your blood in good condition at nce-now. Delay may be dangerous, Ask your druggist for Hood's Barsaparilla, and insist on having it, for nothing else can take its place,-Advertise ment

In the war zone have ordered Allen's Foot-Ease, the antiseptic powder, for use among the convalescent troops. Shaken into the Shoes or dissolved in the foot-bath. It gives refreshing treest and prevents the feet getting the or foot sore. Drug and Department Stores Everywhere well it. Don't accept any substitute.

foot of Farnam street.

I Lucky is the man who has found a cigar of which he can make a steady diet. It can't be an imported Havana which is too expensive, and all-Havanas, if smoked continu-ously, leave a man overloaded with their heaviness.

I So your "steady diet" cigar must be one in which fragrant Havana and milder tobaccos meet-making the "modulated" Havana blend. Tom Moores are all made this way.

It's safe to predict you will stick to Tom Moore -once you become acquainted. And after you have smoked half a dozen you'll be wanting to keep a box of these "modulated" Havanas handy in your "den" or office desk. Any dealer can supply you with Tom Moores.

Denver. He freighted one or two seasons and then returned to his farm, remaining there eight years, after which he moved into Omaha and went into the merchandising business with T. B. Ellingwood, the location being at Sixteenth married his first wife, Miss Mary Jane

Mr. Redman continued in the mercan-

President Ernst declared he would not sign the warrants until "after the work had been done," which would be on Satarday, June 19. The board will meet on Monday, June 21, to approve the payroll and the teachers will be paid on the following day.

It is generally agreed that Mr. Ernst is acting within the law.

Hummel Says the Senile Goober Has No Place in Parks

'All peanuts sold in the public parks this season must be within the requirements of the pure food laws."-Park Commissioner Hummel.

Jos Hummel says that peanuts are worthy of respect, and he'd who sell them in the parks must be quite circumspect. A nut is but a nut, and never can be more, but the vendor of a senile goober makes Hummel very sore. His dictum is law and his orders just as brief, and the man who'd vend unworthy nuts will surely come to grief.

Place a crown upon the peanut and give Joe a credit mark; it's time to rout the unkind churl who'd sell peanuts in the dark. We all may have a lark with neanuts in the park, and while the band plays "Tipperary" we'll take a stroll with Mary and with a nickel in our jeans our bill of fare may vary.

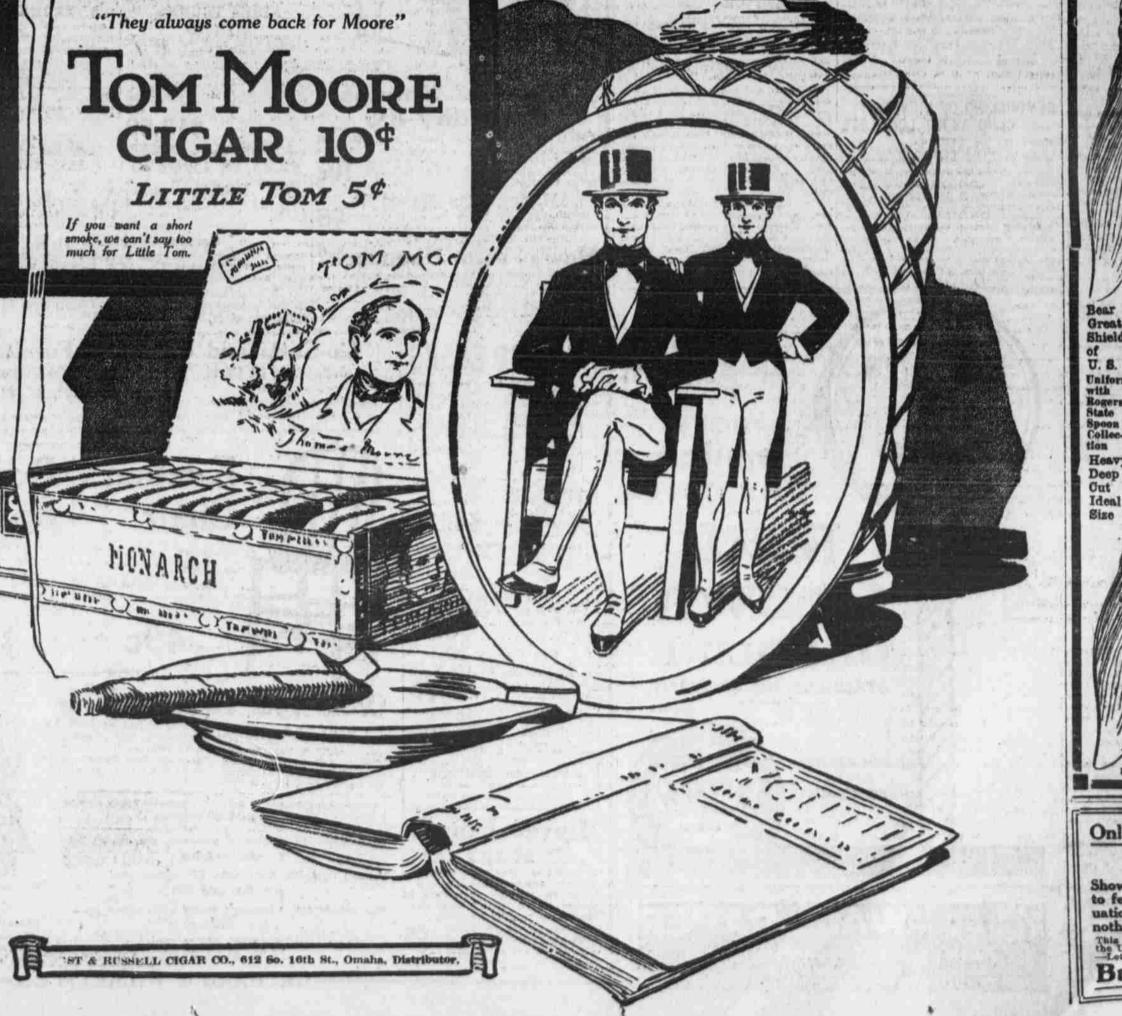

Where are the peanuts of yesterday, those of uncertain repute? They've traveled the dark way of dire disrepute and with us no more can dispute. Sing Ho! Sing Ho! for the merry peanut, for the nut with a family tree; lest we should forget, we will all say it yet, Joe Hummel has set the world free.

GREEN PICTURES WAR AS A DESTRUCTIVE MONSTER

In his Memorial Day talk to the boys and girls of Columbia school this afternoon, W. H. Green urged his young listeners to regard war as the last resort in upholding national henor. He pictured was as a destructive monster. "I want all of my friends here to honor fing, one country and one God. I 0114 want you to look on war as a terrible thing and to be avoided if possible. Do not be ashamed to work with your hands and do not look down on those who are in lowly places. I know what it is to te down and out and I know what a word of encouragement meant when the way seemed dark." said Mr. Green to the children

John Walker, colored, was sentenced to ninety days in the county jail for an attempted attack on Mrs. L. Harvey, 252 Farnam street, and her little boy. Walker applied at the Harvey home for something to est and when refused started after Mr. Harvey and the boy. who ran out the front door of the realdence and called to Officer O. P. Pater son, who was passing the house. Peter son brought Walker to headquarters.

Get Butter Knives With Shield Our COUPONS Uniform SUNDAY Rogers State Watch News-Heavy dealers Be thor-oughly pre-pared for the over-whelmin g demand tomorrow this exc ite Nati E m bi 1618 Cauito DON'T MISS THIS Only children fear the dark Show others there is nothing to fear in the present sit-uation and there will be nothing to fear. This is the time of the U.S. A to make Lot's all set busy. Buy-It-Now