

TO INVESTIGATE JURY BRIBE CHARGE

Alleged Misconduct is Set Up in Case Tried in Sarpy County.

ELSFELDER DENIES CHARGE

Charges of alleged jury bribery and misconduct on the part of the jury which returned a verdict for the defense in Mrs. Charles Johnson's $40,000 damage suit against nine Omaha saloon keepers...

An affidavit filed by A. E. Langdon, an attorney for Mrs. Johnson, recited that Henry Elsfelder, former police officer of South Omaha, had told him that Elsfelder had received about $20 from the defendants...

Mrs. Johnson sued the saloon keepers, alleging that as a result of their sale of liquor to her husband, she had been damaged in the amount of $40,000. The suit was brought in Sarpy county on the theory that the jurors there would be more kindly disposed to the plaintiff in such litigation than in Douglas county.

TWENTIETH CENTURY FARMER

For the Missouri Valley...

110,000 Copies Weekly

The manufacturer, jobber or dealer who is endeavoring to sell goods to the farmer trade of the Missouri Valley will find his sales will come easier and in greater volume when his advertising copy is appearing regularly in Twentieth Century Farmer.

Here is the reason—Twentieth Century Farmer covers Omaha's trade territory more thoroughly than any other agricultural publication.

It not only reaches these farm homes, but it carries a vital weekly message that has become as necessary a part of the regular routine of these homes as any other one thing.
