

BRIEF CITY NEWS

Electric fans, $7.50. Burgess-Granden. Have Root Print Co. New Season Press. Wedding Rings at Elkholm jeweler. Radiator Efficiency—The 25c plate dinner served at Scholtz hotel. Mowers sharpened by machinist on 17th street, charge 15c. Doug. 25c. "Today's Complete Movie Program" classified section today, and appears in The Bee EXCLUSIVELY. Find out what the various moving picture theaters offer. Dr. W. P. Wherry announces the severance of his association with Dr. F. S. Owen and the establishment of his temporary office at suite 308, Brandeis theater building. Plans to Build Rose Building—John Hart has been awarded the contract for the construction of the Rose building on the southeast corner of Sixteenth and Farnam streets. Clayton Bound Over—Joseph Clayton arrested for the passing of worthless checks, was bound over to the district court by Police Magistrate Foster with bonds fixed at $500. Tree Breaks Man's Leg—Ora Letterwood, 400 Hamilton street, employed with a paving gang at Twenty-fourth and Crown Point avenue, had his leg broken when a tree he was chopping down fell on him. After having his fracture set at the police station he was taken to his home. Burglars Return—S. H. Staats, 827 South Seventeenth street, reports to the police that burglars evidently were not satisfied when they broke into his garage Saturday night and stole three canines, so returned Thursday night and made way with the carburetor from his machine. Passes Bogus Checks—Ray Jordan, address Eleventh and Farnam streets, was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail for the passing of a worthless check. Other checks are being held by the police and each one will result in the filing of a separate complaint against Jordan. Killed by Horse—William Collins, expressman, living at 470 North Fourth street, sustained a fractured right leg, when the horse which he was hitching up kicked him. Dr. Charles Zimmerman was dispatched from police headquarters to attend him and ordered the man's removal to St. Joseph's hospital. Bennington. Mrs. Wilbur of Bennington was a visitor at the Domackier home on Tuesday. The fourth will be celebrated by a picnic, ball game, races and dance at the park; also with a dance at Ott's hall. George Nelson, who died following an operation for appendicitis, was buried from his late home on Monday afternoon. He is survived by his widow, formerly Mrs. Steffen, and two small children; four sisters and six brothers. Mr. Nelson gave to manhood in this vicinity. The wedding of George Cunningham and Miss Rose Witte of Elkhorn occurred Wednesday at noon, at the bride's home, Rev. Anton von Waterloo was the officiating minister. Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham will make their home in Bennington, where the groom is engaged in business.

From Our Near Neighbors

Springfield. Mrs. Byron Sage returned from a visit to her sister in Colorado. Miss Clara Minturn is spending the week with friends in Omaha. Mrs. Frank Inghelof of Elgin is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Nichols. J. W. Peters of Omaha visited at the home of his father over Sunday. Mrs. Frank Inghelof of Elgin is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Nichols. Mrs. Mary Flanagan of Thermopolis, Wyo., is visiting her uncle, John McBride. Emma Watson and Etta Smith accompanied Mrs. Pagan to Ragan, Neb. this week. Mrs. L. A. Bates went to Wayne last Monday to be the guest of Elizabeth O'Brien. Guy Fish, who has been ill several weeks, was taken to an Omaha hospital last Monday. John Nottelman has bought the hospital of Dr. Peters and will build a hospital on the site. After attending a college at Aurora, Ill., a year Ernest Brawner is home for the summer vacation. Mrs. Jo Neesley of Elmwood was taken to an Omaha hospital last Monday. Mrs. Neesley will be remembered as Miss Mattie Mumford. J. M. Merrill and family and the families of Ben and Will Schobert attended the wedding of Howard Gramlich in Bancroft Wednesday. At the school meeting last Monday Ernest Christianson, Mrs. Thomas Nelson and Henry Fliegenbaum were elected members of the board. Mrs. Ed Conrad of Oklahoma is here this week, called by the dangerous illness of her mother, Mrs. Cunningham. B. Welch and Stuart Raugh and families were at Crete this week attending the graduation of some of their young people from Doane college. Bellevue. Mrs. Charles Whetstone has been very ill for several days. Mrs. Hattie Steers has gone to Peru to attend the summer school. Pauline boat Bellevue, 8 to 5, in the base has again Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Flaherty entertained the weekly meeting of the Ladies' Aid Wednesday afternoon. George Evans, son of Prof. P. W. Evans, has gone to work on a ranch near Spalding, Neb. Mr. Ferguson fell Tuesday while stooping to pick up his cane and injured himself seriously. Miss Elsie Probasco returned Sunday night from Tekamah, where she has been visiting Miss Jeanette Goodwill. The village board met Monday. James Gow was elected street commissioner and C. L. Puelis water commissioner. Mrs. W. E. Nicholl had as her guests Tuesday and Wednesday her aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Arthur, and her cousin, Mrs. Gus Sales, and family of Omaha. C. E. Fowler of the Nebraska City News, who has been in South Omaha as a delegate to the Eastern convention, visited his parents in Bellevue Thursday. Master Stephen Randall is spending a few days with his grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. Stephen Phelps, in Bellevue, while en route to Los Angeles to join his mother there. A mass meeting of the voters in school district No. 1 was held Monday night. J. M. Fowler and M. H. Stewart were elected to fill the places on the school board left vacant by Dr. D. F. Stauffer and G. A. Meade. An appropriation was made for the grade school of $200, an increase of $30 over last year, which is needed to care for new plumbing. An appropriation of $200 was made for the Pioneer Union high school of district 1 and 2. Valley. Miss Ethel M. Ingram spent the week-end at Elk City. A shower was given at the home of Ole Parson last week for Miss Neola Parson. Mrs. Aubrey Davis and children of Benson are visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Davis. Mrs. Mary Hemstedt, who was taken on the train on her way home from Omaha Monday morning, is recovering rapidly. Miss Bulah Byars and Miss Eva Harrier, who have been teaching in Benson the last year, came home the first of the week. Mrs. Peter Peterson entertained the members of the Woman's Christian Temperance union at her home in Byarsville Tuesday afternoon. The members of the Second Baptist church gave a very enjoyable reception at their church Monday evening for their new pastor, Rev. A. J. Fredrickson. Regent W. G. Whitmore, together with the other regents, will take a 1,000-mile automobile tour, taking in the experimental stations in the state, very soon. The Women's club gave a book shower at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Neesley Friday evening. Twenty books were received for the library and over $15 to purchase others were given. The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Paxon was the scene of a beautiful wedding Tuesday evening when their daughter, Neola, and Conrad Johnson were united in marriage. Rev. S. G. Carlson read the marriage lines. About 50 guests were in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson will be at home on a farm near Mead, Neb. Weeping Water. Farmers in this vicinity are complaining that the Hessian fly is working in the wheat. The work in installing electric lights in the Methodist church was completed last week. The Zetetic ladies entertained their husbands at a picnic supper at the falls Monday evening. John Jones of Omaha was an over-sunday visitor with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Jones. Miss Floy Canada returned Monday evening from her trip to California. She reports a fine time. Mrs. H. B. Arons and little son, Charles, left last week for California, to spend the summer with relatives. Shirley Marshall of Lincoln was in town Monday and Tuesday, meeting old friends and visiting at the L. N. Hunter home. Leslie Dunn, Robert Reed and Frank Wilkinson returned this week from Crete, where they had been attending Doane college. The large barn on the farm occupied by Carl Robert and owned by William Oehrling was burned during the storm Thursday. Weeping Water's chautauqua begins this year on Sunday, July 3. Miss Jennie Hittchman has been secured as junior superintendent. Dr. W. H. Wilson of the state board of health was called here Thursday to settle the question of whether the contagious disease so prevalent in this vicinity is small pox or chicken pox. Dr. Wilson pronounced it small pox and said that all cases should and must be quarantined. Elkhorn. Work was commenced on the Farmers State bank Tuesday. Mrs. Minnie Deerson entertained for her birthday Monday. Mrs. Charles Batts of Benson visited her son, Charles, Sunday. Mrs. J. A. Gibbons entertained the Ladies' Kensington Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. William Reuben are the parents of a baby born Monday. Mrs. J. N. Wyatt and little daughter arrived Monday for an extended visit with Mr. Wyatt. Mrs. Fudge of Allan, Neb., visited here over Friday. Miss Rose Morrison accompanied her home. Mrs. P. G. Helfold and daughter, Miss Dorothy, visited in Omaha Saturday at the M. O. Jeffries home. Clarence Bendle, a family of Hooper, Neb., visited Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. Bendle's mother, Mrs. Calvert. John Bendler, W. F. Quinn and Mike Cavanaugh went to Excelsior Springs, Mo., Monday for a three weeks' sojourn. Mrs. P. H. Hellett, accompanied by sons, Earnest and William, and daughter, Mrs. A. J. Deerson, were Omaha visitors Tuesday. The annual school meeting was held Monday. V. E. Chamberlin and I. A. Gibbons were elected members of the board. A levy of $500 was voted for school expenses for the coming year. Miss Rose Witte and Mrs. George Cunningham of Bennington were married at noon Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Witte. They will make their home in Bennington.

JOHN A. SWANSON, Pres. The Nebraska WM. L. HOLZMAN, Treas. Store Hours: Open Saturdays Till 9 P. M.; Other Days 5 P. M. Breaking Value-Giving Records in This Mighty Mid-Season Sale

GREAT sales require great assortments. We secured the cream of America's Leading Clothes Makers' surplus stocks of men's and young men's journeymen tailored suits at record low prices and pass them on to you as we bought them.

Consider the Tremendous Values and Assortments This Opportunity Offers. Think of buying at $25 a $35 or $40 suit, but you can do that very thing. At every price we offer most extraordinary values, at $10, at $15, at $20, at $25. Here's an absolute cash saving of $5 to $15, and the advantage of selection from the finest assortment of midseason styles this city has ever known.

Straw Hats Greatest Selections. Genuine Panama, $5 to $10. Genuine Bangkoks, $4 to $5. Genuine Leghorn, $3.50 to $5. Porto Rican Panamas, $2 to $2.50. Men's $1.50 Shirts, Saturday, at $1.05.

Nebraska's Underwear Leader. Particular men find us the Mecca for underwear. All the leaders—Vassar, Superior, Flaxall, B. V. D., Hatch one-button, Corwith, and many other union suit favorites. All sizes, all proportions, all sleeve and leg lengths. Union Suits, 50c to $5.00 | Shirts or Draw's, 25c to $1.00.

Nebraska Clothing Co. Wash Neckwear. Season's newest styles at 50c. CORRECT APPAREL FOR MEN AND WOMEN.

At Hospe's Remodeling Stop! Look! Profit! Sale Saturday. Never before has such an elegant stock of fine pictures, art goods and musical instruments of all sorts been offered the public at such an enormous reduction in price as Hospe is offering in this big sale. Those who realize what wonderful values Hospe has to offer have been crowding the store for the last two days. Saturday will be another big day in this great sale.