TALK about wit. Several afternoons ago a few friends strolled in for coffee at the home of one of our very well known matrons. They were returning from their constitutional walks, for or against flesh.

In a few minutes the air was fairly scintillating epigrams. I have discovered that women rarely show to the best intellectual advantage in masculine company.

The repartee was quick and incessant, quite on what we read of the salon order.

For instance, Miss — exclaimed that, notwithstanding three perfectly stunning new gowns and much experience, a certain swain in town had remained cold.

"Enough to make you lose faith in yourself," remarked a sympathetic listener.

"Well, it nearly made me lose faith in my dressmaker," declared Miss —, disgustedly.

JITNEY LAW GOES THROUGH COUNCIL

Jitney Must Be Protected by $10,000 Liability Insurance Policy—Liability is Limited.

POLICE TO SUPERVISE THEM

The city council passed the jitney regulation ordinance, with provisions as heretofore outlined. The ordinance will be in force July 7.

The liability insurance feature provides each jitney up to ten-passenger capacity shall be covered by a maximum of $10,000 liability for one accident and that $2,500 shall be the maximum allowance for any individual killed or injured. This section further provides that the maximum liability shall be increased $1,000 per seat above ten seats. The occupation tax will be $60 a year for a five-passenger car, including driver, and a proportionate increase for cars of more than five capacity.

The other provisions of the ordinance refer to competency of drivers, designation of routes, lights, signs and other requirements.

Police to Regulate.
The superintendent of police will have general supervision of the operation of jitneys. Before a license to operate shall be issued the driver must have qualified, filed a bond and he must designate the exact route he intends to cover. The superintendent will have authority to refuse any license if the proposed route does not meet with his approval and it is believed that this authority will result in requiring some of the jitneys to cover the long as well as the short hauls and prevent congestion of Farnam street, for instance.

Jitneys will be required to stop on the near side of intersections and will be regulated as to speed.

Chris Gruenther Looks Over Job in Federal Building

Chris Gruenther of Columbus, Senator Hitchcock's choice for the federal appointment as collector of internal revenue in Nebraska, visited that office in the federal building and met the employees today or two ago. As a result, political dopsters are wondering if Chris has an "inside tip" that something is coming to him soon. Speculation leans that way.

In this connection, it is a notable fact that Acting Collector E. W. North, who was advanced from the post of chief deputy when Ross Hammond of Fremont resigned, has now been in complete charge of the office, with its $4,000 salary, for a while past.

Impatient and hungry demos, who have waited long and anxiously for the Nebraska patronage squabble to be settled, are freely expressing the hope that the victors will get the spoils before long. Collector North has been in the service for more than a quarter of a century and is not a politician, whereas the collectorship has always been a purely political appointment.

Churches Observe Date of Martyrdom of John Huss July 4

Protestant churches of Omaha will hold a union meeting Sunday, July 4, in observance of the 500th anniversary of the martyrdom of John Huss, a Bohemian, who was one of the early Lutheran martyrs and was burned at the stake July 6, 1415, because of his advanced religious beliefs.

The meeting will be held at Kountze Memorial Lutheran church at 3:30 p. m., with the pastor of the church, Rev. O. D. Baltaly, presiding, and a representative group of other pastors taking part. The chief address will be made by Rev. E. J. Kallina, Bohemian Presbyterian pastor of South Omaha.

On the Calendar.
The Columbian circle will entertain at their hall at Twenty-second and Locust streets on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. E. P. Ferris and Mrs. E. F. Farrel will be the hostesses of the afternoon.

Father Williams Has Two Events to Celebrate This Week

The thirty-ninth anniversary of the coming of Rev. John Williams to Omaha will be celebrated Thursday evening with a reception in his honor at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Lloyd B. Holsapple, 310 Davenport street.

Father Williams observed his eightieth birthday Monday, so this week is a gala one for him. He is hale and hearty, although he has retired from active pastoral work. Rev. Mr. Holsapple, having succeeded him as rector of St. Barnabas Episcopal church.

The new church of the St. Barnabas congregation at Fortieth and Davenport streets is now being roofed. It will be ready for occupancy September 1, and the regular services will be held there, as in all Episcopal, Lutheran, Catholic and some Protestant churches, throughout the Billy Sunday campaign.

AUTOISTS TAKE SEVEN THOUSAND-MILE JOURNEY

Fourteen days out on a round trip of over 7,000 miles by auto, five tourists from New Haven, Conn., stopped at the Henshaw hotel Tuesday. They were Mr. and Mrs. William S. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. C. Seaver Smith and A. R. Smith. They are bound for Seattle, from which they will tour down the Pacific coast and take in the exhibitions, before returning to New England again over the Lincoln Highway.

Greatly Benefited by Chamberlain's Lintment.
"I have used Chamberlain's Lintment for sprains, bruises and rheumatic pains and the great benefit I have received justifies my recommending it in the highest terms," writes Mrs. Florence Sife, Wabash, Ind. If you are troubled with rheumatic pains you will certainly be pleased with the prompt relief which Chamberlain's Lintment affords. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

And Still Another Legal Question is Up on Omaha Merger

Among the many legal questions and situations arising by reason of the Greater Omaha consolidation, the city legal department offers this as a possibility:

The refusal of the South Omaha officials last Monday morning to recognize the authority of the Greater Omaha officials could be taken advantage of to the extent of declaring void contracts made by the south side officials with various employees. For illustration, within the last few weeks the South Omaha officials entered into contracts with library employees for a year. Assuming that a writ of mandamus will be forthcoming and the constitutionality of the merger law will stand the test, then it follows that the contracts referred to would become contracts of Greater Omaha; granting that, then those contracts appear to have been repudiated Monday morning and are not binding upon the new administration governing South Omaha. This opinion is given with the explanation that it is a rather fine legal point, but one which might afford a way out of a dilemma.
