

CAPTAIN AND SON SAVE SHIP FROM U

Anglo-Californian Reaches Queens-town with Dead Aboard After Attack by Subsea.

COMMANDER FALLS AT WHEEL

QUEENSTOWN, July 6.—With nine dead sailors stretched on its deck, eight men lying wounded below and its sides riddled with shot and shell, the British steamship Anglo-Californian steamed into Queenstown harbor this morning after having withstood the attack of a German submarine for four hours.

The ship's escape from destruction was accomplished with no other means of defense than the indomitable spirit of its captain and crew, combined with masterly seamanship which enabled it to frustrate the efforts of its assailant to torpedo it.

Son Takes Father's Place. The story of how Captain Parlow stood on the bridge of the Anglo-Californian, amidst a rain of shot and calmly directed the movements of his ship until he was killed by a shell, and of how his place was taken by his son until British destroyers appeared and the submarine was compelled to flee, was told by the survivors.

RUSSIAN LINE AROUND WARSAW IS HOLDING FIRM

French Official Report. PARIS, July 6.—The French war office statement today says:

Last night showed much activity at several points along the front. In Belgium the British troops, supported by our artillery, took possession of some German trenches at a point to the southwest of Pilleken, on the east bank of the canal. There was a spirited engagement around the railroad station at Souchez. The station, however, remained in our hands though the enemy repeatedly tried to take it.

The town of Arras was bombarded all night. In the Ardennes there was incessant fighting last night with bombs and hand grenades. Our artillery successfully checked several attacks.

On the heights of the Meuse two German attacks on our positions on the south side of the ravine of Sonvaux to the east of the trench of Colonne were completely repulsed.

In the vicinity of Le Pretra forest the enemy also made two attacks. One spread little by little from the western side of the forest as far as Fey-En-Haye, while the other was directed particularly against that portion of the forest to the west of Croix-Des-Carnes. Both were checked by the fire of our artillery and our infantry, which inflicted very heavy losses on the enemy.

German Official Report. BERLIN, July 6.—(Via London).—The German army headquarters staff today gave out the following statement:

Western theater: The French attacks at Les Eparges were repulsed last night. The booty taken after our success in the forest of Le Pretra has been increased by one field gun and three machine guns. Furthermore a pioneer's supply station with a large amount of material fell into our hands.

Our victors attacked the aviation grounds at Corcieux, east of Epinal, and a French camp on the left bank of the east of Krust in the Vosges.

Eastern theater: A strongly fortified wood to the east of Blazeboto and west of the road between Suwalki and Kalwarya was taken by storm early this morning. We took about 500 Russian prisoners.

In the southeastern theater the situation with the German troops is unchanged.

GERMANS SEIZE OIL SHIP FROM NEW YORK BERLIN, July 6.—(Via London).—The American consular agent at Swinemunde, Prussia, reports that the American steamship Floridia, from New York with a cargo of petroleum, consigned to a Swedish port, has been held up by a German warship and brought into Swinemunde.

HERE'S HOLT, THE MAN WHO ATTEMPTED TO TAKE THE LIFE OF BANKER MORGAN—The whack over the head dealt by the butler, who wielded a coal scuttle, probably saved the financier's life.

FRANK HOLT TRIES TO KILL HIMSELF

promptness with which Holt's attempt was discovered, he lost a considerable quantity of blood.

Asks for Lead Pencil. Holt spent a restless night, tossing about on his cot from which he had been unable to rise during the day, and muttering to himself at intervals. His keepers had taken from him his belt, his suspenders and every article in his possession with which they thought he could have attempted suicide. He had seemed to be so despondent during the day that a strict watch had been kept upon him.

After several hours had passed without sleep during the early night, Holt called to an attendant and asked for a lead pencil. He said he wanted to write to his wife. A lead pencil was brought to him and a few moments later a pad of paper. The attendant remained in the cell a few minutes, and Holt, turning on his left side, apparently started to write.

The attendant then left. Within less than five minutes he passed the door of Holt's cell again. He then noticed that Holt seemed to be in pain, entered the cell and found blood flowing from a jagged cut in his wrist.

After the flow of blood had been checked and the wound bandaged, the keeper and Warden Hulise searched for the pencil. They found it on the cot. Holt had extracted the rubber eraser from the tip of the pencil and with his teeth had bit the metal which held the rubber in position until the edges met. The result was a fairly sharp weapon with a blade perhaps a quarter of an inch long.

Did Not Reach Artery. Apparently Holt had not reached the artery. He had cut a vein, however, and from this the blood was flowing. To the warden's question as to why he had attempted to kill himself, Holt refused to reply.

Dr. Guy Cleghorn, the jail physician, was not summoned because of the lateness of the hour and the evident fact that the attempt had been successfully checked. He was to have visited Holt some time during the forenoon today. The bandage still remained on Holt's wrist today and it was said that Dr. Cleghorn's attention would be called to the wound.

Holt was cheered somewhat today by the receipt of a telegram from his wife at Dallas. It read: "Have best counsel here. Advised to rest and wait. You must do the same. Send loving greetings hourly. Beautiful tribute to you in both evening papers here. I am tarrying for details of our finances. I will come when you need me. Do not be afraid. Rest."

The telegram was signed "Leone." Morgan Still Improving. The condition of Mr. Morgan, who is recovering from the two wounds in his left hip inflicted by bullets from Holt's revolver, continued to improve. It was said Mr. Morgan felt so much better that he wanted to get up, but that this was not approved by his physicians. The physicians feel so encouraged by his progress that they have virtually reached a decision to issue no more bulletins on his condition.

Callers from Cambridge, Mass., were expected at Mineola today to see Holt, with a view to determining if he resembles closely Erich Muentner, who disappeared from Harvard in 1906 after the death of his wife from alleged poisoning.

May Be Taken to Hospital. Holt was considered to be in such a serious physical condition from loss of blood and refusing to eat, that forcible feeding and his removal to the Nassau county hospital at Mineola were considered at a conference of county officials.

"I have never seen a man in worse condition," said District Attorney Lewis J. Smith. "Holt is very weak and I should not be surprised if he died. I do not know whether he is trying to starve himself or not, but I do know that he is not eating and that he has lost much blood."

Charles E. Apted, assistant superintendent of buildings at Cambridge, Mass., who knew Muentner at Harvard nearly ten years ago, reached Mineola today to see whether Holt and Muentner were the same man. Mr. Apted visited Holt in his cell and remained there a few minutes, but did not attempt, because of Holt's weakened condition, to question him.

Evidence Gathers Frank Holt's Real Name E. Muentner

GLEN COVE, N. Y., July 6.—The evidence that has been accumulating to support the theory that Holt and Muentner are same person was strengthened by the announcement today that an examination of Holt's body had revealed scars which correspond to a description received by the authorities here today of scars which Muentner bore on his body. The scars in Muentner's case were said to have been due to an operation.

Allentons have been asked to come here to make an examination of Holt's mental condition to determine whether he is sane. Dr. Creighton said he believed Holt was suffering either from paranoia and dementia praecox. Dr. Carlos McDonald and Austin Flint, who have been held in readiness to testify for the state at the trial in New York, have been asked to come and might arrive late this afternoon, it was said.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., July 6.—Rev. F. M. Bennett, pastor of the First Unitarian church, today declared that Frank Holt, the assailant of J. P. Morgan, was known to him as Prof. Erich Muentner. Rev. Mr. Bennett said he knew Muentner at Harvard, and also Lawrence, Kan. He compared a photograph he has of Muentner with published pictures of Holt and said there was no doubt in his mind that they were one and the same person. The photograph shows Muentner without a beard.

Fatally Injured by Rocket. HASTINGS, Neb., July 6.—(Special Telegram).—Lawrence Carroll, aged 12, was fatally injured last night by a falling skyrocket in the Fourth of July celebration, which attracted the largest crowd ever in Hastings. Approximately 10,000 visitors were here.

"Coffee Face" —ever see one?

There are many with the tell-tale signs of indigestion, heart, liver or nerve troubles who don't suspect that coffee is a frequent cause of these and other ills.

Any ailing person can find if coffee has anything to do with his trouble, by a 10-days' change to

POSTUM —the pure food-drink.

It contains no caffeine or tannin (the coffee drugs)—nothing but the nourishing elements of whole wheat, roasted with a little wholesome molasses.

Postum comes in two forms: Postum Cereal—the original form—must be well boiled to bring out the flavour and food value—and Instant Postum—the soluble form—prepared in the cup with hot water instantly!

Grocers everywhere sell both kinds. They are equally delicious, and cost about the same per cup.

Most people can make good use of a strong body, clear brain and steady nerves.

CARRANZA LOSES ALL-DAY BATTLE

both sides began the battle about Parson early yesterday morning. At night the Carranza charges ceased and General Trevino was reported to have failed to gain ground. This morning's reports said, however, that he had received reinforcements estimated at 5,000 and was renewing the attack on the Villa army.

Safe Blown Near Superior

SUPERIOR, Neb., July 6.—(Special Telegram).—The safe in the general store of Hodges & Kreska at Webster, Kan., was blown open by nitroglycerin late last night. The robbers obtained about $300 in change, besides the stamps and supplies of the postoffice, which was in the same building. The robbers gained entrance to the building by using a small sledge close to the lock and then using a wire.

Wilson Exchanges Cipher Messages With Sec. Lansing

CORNISH, N. H., July 6.—President Wilson today exchanged confidential cipher messages with Secretary Lansing in connection with the statement of Germany's informal outline of its position regarding submarine warfare.

While absolute secrecy regarding the situation was maintained at President Wilson's summer home, it was understood that the president was reluctant to enter into any arrangement with Germany which could be interpreted as the surrender by the United States of its stance for the freedom of the seas.
