WOLVES MAKE ONE HIT OFF EVERDON

Omaha Twirler Does Not Allow a Man to Reach Third Base and Wins Easily, 4 to 0.

FORSYTHE HITS A HOME BUN

With Mr. Barney Everdon bowling along in his slickest vein the Wolves were duck soup for Omaha yesterday. Inasmuch as Barner allowed the sad and disheartened Wolves-who had just lost five straight games-but one measly single, the 4-to-0 victory was a cinch. Mr. Geist, the twirler who lest the game, was the young man who poled the lene hit off Everdon. Geist did the work in the fifth frame, but it didn't do him or his team mates any good. Three times a Wichita athlete managed to scramble as far as second, but nary one could wander as far as third. In fact, nary one of them even tried it.

On the other hand, the Rourkes dug up the old hammer and put the game on ice in the opening stanza. Breen opened with a single and after Smith had wifffed Cy Forsythe busted one over the right field wall. Krueger was safe a second later on Britton's error and Ernie counted when Krug whanged a triple to center. A fourth mark was chalked up in the fifth for good measure. Whalen was safe on Hosp's error and was saortflood to second by Everdon. He registered on Breen's hit to center, Mix with Umpire. Umpire O'Brien worked his first game in Omaha and performed with consider able eclat. He hustled the game through in an hour and a half and made his decisions quite creditably.

In the sixth O'Brien had a brief mixup with Ham Patterson. Mr. Hosp had just been called out at first and he entered a few objections. O'Brien disliked the na ture of the objections and the manner in which they were promulgated, so he slipped Mr. Hosp the gate. This aroused the ire of the flery Patterson and s minute later he was admontshed to follow the path of Mr. Hosp. Patterson stopped long enough to break a perfectly good bat, cost $1.50, take a drink of water and perform the other usual maneuvers of a ball player just fired from a combat before wending his dreary way to the well-known shower bath.
