

OMAHA SLIPS BACK INTO SIXTH PLACE

Des Moines Wins, Making it a Clean Sweep of Series, and Sioux Cop Two Games.

ERRORS RESPONSIBLE FOR LOSS

Being rather intent upon the course of his brave crew toward the well known Western loop pennant and having no regard for the feelings of our Rourkes, Mr. Isbell of Des Moines not only made it a clean sweep of the series by copping the combat yesterday afternoon, but he also gave Marty Krug's warriors a gentle shove into sixth place. The game ended 6 to 4.

Three straight took the Des Moines gang. But saddest of all our boys fell n notch in the percentage column. For Sloux City captured two games and passed us quite briskly.

Tom Blodgett was the unfortunate twirler who lost the game. It wasn't entirely Tom's fault. His mates behind error had its part in contributing runs to the opposition. In fact five of the six runs made by the Boosters are directly traceable to the miscuss traceable to the miscues.

Rally Falls Short. Omaha made a desperate rally in the eighth and slipped four runs over on Mr. Lefty Thomas, who was tolling for the hostile bunch. Krug opened with a double and Hippo McChesney scored him with a single. Schliebner walked and Blanck beat out an infield hit, choking the runway with live stock. Hippo counted on Wells' infield out and Smith's ripping single to center marked Schliebner and

But four runs couldn't win the game ninth, thus cutting off any chance our side had for victory.

Today will be Booster day, with the Denver Grizzlies as the attraction. The game will be called at 3:30. At 5:30 the wrestling exhibition by the Stecher brothers will be staged. Score: DES MOINES.
