SOCIETY WOMEN IN WAR RELIEF MOVE

Plans for Another Season of Work for European Sufferers Are Formed at Meeting.

MISS ZORBAUGH ON SITUATION

Local society women began another season of relief work for war sufferers at the home of Miss Jessie Millard, when Miss Grace Zorbaugh of Paris, France, general secretary of the British-American Young Women's Christian association at Paris gave a detailed report of relief needs in France and enlisted the Omaha women's aid in the work.

Mrs. Fred Pearce, 119 South Thirty-seventh street, offered her home as a base for receiving supplies and money. Mattress materials, unbleached muslin, paper toweling, old kid gloves and surgeon's gauze were materials for which Miss Zorbaugh pleaded especially, as these articles will furnish employment for Belgian refugee women at the association headquarters.

Donations of Old Kid Gloves. Indications were that a few of the women will undertake a campaign for denations of old kid gloves, which will be cleaned and sent to France, where they are converted into wind-proof vests Miss Zorbaugh announced that the Thomas Kilpatrick company had offered to pack for shipping all donations, free of charge, and that the American Relief York City, would ship the boxes from New York to France, also free of charge. Among the women interested in the bert Rogers, Mrs. George A. Joslyn, Mrs. Sam Caldwell, Mrs. Fred Pearce, Mrs. H. C. Summey and Miss Helen Mil-

Miss Zorbaugh and Miss Liddal brought garments and other necessities for distribution among the many thousands of refugees who had concentrated in this part after being forced to evacuate their homes in the Ardennes and Belgium.
"La Liberte," a French newspaper published at St. Dizier de la Haute Marne, gives this account of Miss Zorbaugh's

"The distribution was made in one of the most crowded sections of the refugees' colony and the recipients expressed their thanks to the association represented by the two secretaries in warmest terms, not only for the material comforts secrived, but far more for the moral good derived from the two ladies coming in person all the way from Paris with their hope-inspiring message of cheer.

"The St. Dizier refugees are not the only ones to benefit by the generosity of in those states which have not granted the British-American Young Women's Christian association.
