

TRYOLA CAPTURES TROT AT BENSON

Expedition Mare Wins First Harness Contest Started Over County Fair Outside Track.

MATCH RACE TO BE HELD TODAY

By G. K. MURRAY.
Tryola, a nice black mare by expedition, won the first harness race started over the Douglas County Agricultural association's new track at Benson yesterday.

Lottie Aleotti won the first heat in 2:30 1/2, but Tryola, which is a granddaughter of Hambletonian, the founder of the trotting horse family in America, had too much speed for her in the other miles.

Although the time was slow in the 2:25 pace, it was warmly contested by Major Constantine and Frank Holloway. Laughlin put the Major over in straight heats, however. This horse is a good looking young pacer and is improving.

M. T. won the 2:11 pace rather easily, pacing the third heat in 2:12 1/2. Kinney won the second heat.

Twelve hundred spectators saw the race, many preferring to stand in the warm sun rather than to take seats in the grandstand. The forecast is for warmer weather today, however, and prospects are that a big crowd will be present to see the $1,000 match race between Columbia Fire, 2:04 1/2, and Hal McKinney, 2:04 1/2, the 2:14 trot and two other good races.

Columbia Fire and Hal McKinney were exhibited before the grandstand yesterday, and it was evident that much interest has been aroused by this contest.

The Match Race Today.

So far as predicting the result of this race, every man is entitled to do what he wants with his own money, but if any person desires to know what is the wise thing to do, it is this: Restrain your enthusiasm for either horse to a sufficient degree so that your money will remain in your pocket.

The element of uncertainty is very great in the race between the two steeds today. The track is new; it is fairly fast, but there are some waves in it which may cause either horse trouble. It cannot be said to be a track which will favor either Hal McKinney or Columbia Fire. The two horses have been fishing nose and nose all summer, and there is evidently little difference between them.

Given a fast track, good weather and all conditions favorable, Hal McKinney has shown that he has a little something on the lug horse, by beating Columbia Fire two third heats in 2:07 1/2, this year. But all the conditions demanded by Hal McKinney for his best effort will not be present today and there you are. Columbia Fire beat Hal McKinney over a soft track at the Speedway in a five-heat race last August.

The racing program will begin at 1:30 o'clock today.

LARRY CHAPPELLE LIKELY TO RETURN TO CHICAGO

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—Larry Chappelle, who came to the Chicago American league base ball club from Milwaukee two years ago in one of the biggest financial transactions ever made by the local team and who was returned to the American Association club this spring because he failed to make good, will play in a Chicago uniform next year if a well-defined report which prevailed here today materializes.

Chappelle is mentioned with Pitcher Shackelford in a deal with President Comiskey of the local club, in which the two players are to be received by the Chicago team in exchange for some cash, a pitcher and an outfielder.

Omaha Architect Sues W. H. Lanning

HASTINGS, Neb., Sept. 21.—(Special Telegram)—Thomas R. Kimball of Omaha today brought suit against W. H. Lanning to recover $7,000, which he claims is due him for services as architect and supervisor in connection with the erection of the Mary Lanning Memorial hospital in this city and a memorial fountain at Smith college, Northampton, Mass.

The architect says in his bill that he was dismissed by Mr. Lanning without cause after Lanning had agreed to compensate him on the basis of 7 1/2 per cent of the total cost of construction and paid him $1,000 of the sum. Both structures have lately been finished, the hospital at a cost of more than $100,000.

SUNDAY WORKED AS HARD AS POOR MAN

preacher met us and 'Bill' asked where the meetings were to be held. He said, 'In the Baptist church. 'Nothing doing,' said 'Bill,' 'you couldn't get that bar-room crowd into the church for anything. We'll have the meetings in the opera house.' The preacher threw up his hands in horror. 'Why, that rents for $10 a day,' he said, 'but we held the meetings there.'

"In a little Minnesota town, Tower by name, we held the meetings in an old deserted dance hall. 'Bill' and I took off our coats and worked several days building the seats, laying rough planks over logs. He preached there five weeks with his whole heart and soul, just as he does now. And on the last day he took up a collection. It was $25. He didn't make a murmur. It was all right."
"In North Dakota."
"In Biseton, N. D., we had meetings that I won't forget to my dying day. Biseton is on the border of an Indian reservation and an Indian squaw by the name of Big Face Creek played the organ. The meetings were in a hall over a grocery store. The Indian squaw didn't come more than half the time and when she didn't 'Bill' tried to lead the singing."
"One day the Presbyterian preacher came and wanted to show us his church. We went with him and after he had showed us the main part we were astonished when he ushered us into the prayer meeting room and we found that he and his wife and three children were living there."
"He mentioned that in the last six months he had received just $100 in salary. He wasn't complaining, but we could see that he was truly destitute. When we got back to our rooms 'Bill' took off his best suit, put on his other one and sent me down to the preacher with his best as a present with his compliments, and some cash."

"Yes, sir, I know what 'Bill' Sunday is at heart. I knew him when he was obscure and he was just as earnest a Christian as he is now when the world recognizes him."
"Mr. Leavitt will be joined by his wife and daughter Friday and they will proceed to their home in Los Angeles."
