A flutter of silk, a whispering and a semblance of a worried look foretells that all is not as serene as it might be with the local suffragists.

"Will the Congressional Unionists gain a foothold in Omaha?" This is what it is all about. This is what is making a few of the well known workers slip into their electric and make a morning call upon another with the "votes for women" as the nearest and dearest of her "causes."

One can hardly realize just what agony it will really cause until the fact is made known that the suffragist "regulars" and the Congressional Unionists are—well, a bit out of tune with one another.

Mrs. E. M. Fairfield, ex-president of the Equal Franchise society and chairman of the city central suffrage committee, has recently returned from a summer spent in the east. She says that the names of many well known suffragists in the east are identified with the Congressionalists.

The first sound of alarm of this faction was given last spring when the Equal Franchise society entertained Mrs. William Kent of California. Mrs. Kent, who is most active in Congressional Union circles, was extensively entertained during her short stay in the city and spread the plans of her fellow workers before many interested hostesses.

Mrs. Fairfield was entertained by Mary Garratt Hay of New York City, whom Mrs. Pankhurst visits whenever she is in New York City. In Boston Mrs. Fairfield met Agnes Ryan of the Woman's Journal, the national suffrage paper.

NEWPORT TALKED ABOUT THIS PATCHWORK SKIRT

A somewhat extreme style, perhaps, but it had a smart note of originality and was highly approved. They are quite easily made, too.

Being an original faddist this young society lady added a new idea to her outfit by carrying a little wicker bird cage hung from the wrist. And for what? Just a fad, perhaps, but, supposing it carried her little vanity accessories. The younger women adopted it and all society smiled—and approved.

Just some of the caprices of fashion, but it shows that unique ideas and originality are always at work in the world of style, and our designers in New York always on the alert for inspiration and ideas.

To Quickly Remove Ugly Hairs From Face

(Beauty Notes.)

Beauty-destroying hairs are soon banished from the skin with the aid of a delicate paste, made by mixing some water with a little plain powdered detolone. This is spread upon the hairy surface for 2 or 3 minutes, then rubbed off and the skin washed to remove the remaining detolone. This simple treatment banishes every trace of hair and leaves the skin without a blemish. Caution, should be used to be certain that it is detolone you buy.—Advertisement.
