The closing of the Field and Happy Hollow clubs last evening and the approach of the closing dinner-dances of the Country club on Saturday evening and the Seymour Lake Country club on October 15 casts no damper on the social alendar

Vying in interest for this week are the weddings of four of the most prominent of the younger set, with their given-inhonor affairs and the big tournament for the Woman's City Golf championship, which opens. Monday morning at the Country club.

The wedding of Miss Irens McConnell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McConnell, and Mr. Richard Cond will be a large church wedding Tuesday, St. John's Col legiste church having been chosen for the ceremony. Miss Rose Smyth and Mr. Clarence Sibbernsen will be married on Thursday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Smyth.

Right around the corner, as it were, is Ak-Sar-Ben week, with all its attendant reativities and its host of visiting belles for the coronation ball. And after a short breathing spell the subscription dance will open its season of weekly dinnerdances. This week also brings the announcement of opening dates for most of the winter dancing clubs, among them the Cinosam, the Vesta chapter of the Eastern Star, the Elks' Dancing club and others of the younger set.

Ak-Sar-Ben Visitors.

Ak-Sar-Hen season will bring forth a bevy of visitors whose presence will brighten the social calendar with given--in-honor affairs. Miss Louise Lewis of De Kalb, Ill., will arrive to be the guest of Miss Helen Clarke, one of the special maids to the queen.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Well will arrive October 1 to be the guests of Mrs. Well's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Tates, and many affairs are planned for them. Miss Gladys Tree of London, England. arrives the early part of the week to the guest of Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Bridges

Miss Gertrude McCarthy of Chicago only. Although no called dinner-dances came yesterday for the Coad-McConnell that is what the Subscription dances wedding and will remain as Miss Mary proved to be last season, as every dance Burkley's guest for the ball.
