

B. JOHNSON HANDS ALL-STAR A SLAP

American League Boss Says National Commish Will Call Off Trip if Anything Goes Wrong.

SAYS BANCROFT PUT ONE OVER

When the All-Star baseball team, piloted by Frank Bancroft, secretary of the Cincinnati club, started on their tour of the west, little Benny Johnson, who swings the club over the American League, bid them a fond farewell by slipping them a little slap in the nush.

Open their departure from Chicago for Okauch, where the first game was played, Benny informed the athletes that they did not have the sanction of the well-known National commission, which seems to find its chief pleasure in life in walloping minor league towns. It might be mentioned, in passing, that the All-Stars will play only in minor league towns on the trip.

Johnson announced that post-season tours of base ball players are not a good thing. "Should anything develop on the trip to mar the national pastime, it will be called off," said Johnson. "This trip never should have started," he continued. "Frank Bancroft took advantage of the rush and hubbub of the world's series to plan this tour."

The All-Stars are somewhat hot up over the kindly-disposed Johnson announcement. Bancroft says he got permission from each club owner to sign each player, and that Gerry Herrmann said it was all right.

Johnny Evers said he would do as Johnson said. "Bancroft helped me out once," said Johnny, "and if he calls off the trip it's O. K. with me."

Jack Coombs feigned not the same way. "Johnson turned me down when I asked him for a job as an umpire when I thought I was through as a pitcher, so I don't feel the same way as Johnny."

Regardless of the cheerful news from Ben, all of the players scheduled to make the tour were on the job at the start except Alexander, and he will join the team in Omaha.

Omaha Lad Makes End Position on Illinois Varsity

Tommy Miller, coach at Creighton university has received a letter from Leo Klein, Omaha boy and pupil of Miller when Tommy was coach at the Central High school, regarding the Illinois-Ohio game last Saturday which wound up 3 to 2. Klein played at end in the game for Illinois.

"Quarterback Clark and Halfback Pogue were both out of the game," said Klein, "and Clark and Pogue make up the Illinois scoring machine. That accounts for the surprise Ohio gave us. With Clark and Pogue playing Illinois is 100 per cent stronger."

Klein is making good at Illinois and it is expected that the Omaha lad will be regular and all of this year. This is the first year he was eligible to the varsity squad. He graduated from Central High in 1914.

NOTRE DAMES SOME TEAM, SAYS HOWARD

Assistant Creighton Coach Watches Catholics in Action and Says Nebraska Must Fight to Win.

"The Cornhuskers will encounter the stiffest opposition they have in years when they tackle Notre Dame at Lincoln Saturday," declares Warren Howard, former Nebraska star and assistant coach at Creighton, who has just returned from South Bend, where he watched the Catholics play in order to get a few lines on their work, so as to teach a defense to the Creighton warriors who meet Notre Dame later in the season.

"It's a powerful machine Harper has built up, with only two new men on the squad, the center and quarter," continued Howard. "Phelan at quarter is unknown, but he is good enough, so that Harper put Bergman, who directed the team last year, at half."

"Notre Dame directs most of their plays toward the right side of their own and the left side is the side where Nebraska is weakest. Chamberlain is really the only strong man on Nebraska's left wing and that wing must be depended upon to bear the brunt of most of the Notre Dame plays."

"Bergman is a whirlwind at half. He is a little fellow, but as fast as lightning and a wonderful open-field runner. A trick that proves difficult for other teams to solve is the Notre Dame method of punting. The kick is made from formation and it is impossible to tell when it is coming."

"I think Nebraska will win, I certainly hope so, but it will be a mighty tough scrap."

IOWA GETS INTO MEDICINE BUSINESS

State Board of Health Buys Anti-Toxin at Wholesale and Distributes it to Doctors at Cost.

GOOD RESULTS ARE REPORTED

(From a Staff Correspondent.)

DES MOINES, Ia., Oct. 29.—(Special.)—The Iowa State Board of Health is doing quite a business in handling anti-toxins and vaccines. The plan of buying these disease repellents in wholesale quantities and selling them to the physicians through local drug stores, known as distributing stations, is saving the people from 50 to 75 per cent on the cost of their supplies, according to the statement of Dr. Sumner, State Board of Health secretary.

The board is now handling typhoid vaccine, diphtheria and tetanus anti-toxin. A few years ago the legislature made an annual appropriation of $3,000 to carry on this work, in order that the people might have access to these supplies at a low cost.

Now the board is sending out considerable quantities of diphtheria anti-toxin. Not that diphtheria is especially prevalent, but it is always in evidence, soon after the schools open in the fall. Dr. Sumner states. Yesterday the board sent out sixty-three immunizing and fifteen curative treatments. The total cost of these supplies at a low cost.

The large hospitals report that this anti-toxin has robbed diphtheria of its terrors and the fatalities from this disease are now less than 10 per cent, whereas they formerly were more than 50 per cent.

The board is having some trouble in getting a supply of tetanus anti-toxin because of the demands of the war.

Municipal Court.

The petition for a special election to vote on the question of establishing municipal courts in Des Moines to do away with justice courts was filed with the county clerk with 3,662 signatures. This is 1,269 more names than were necessary. The special election will be called for November 22, at which time the new street car franchise will also be voted on. The authority to establish a municipal court was granted to Des Moines and other large cities in the state by the last general assembly. The establishment of a municipal court would automatically abolish the four justice offices and the police court. Instead of electing these five men the people would be called upon to choose four municipal court judges, whose salaries will be $2,500 each per year.

FRENCH FORCE ON WAY TO SALONIKI

Capital of Nish Moved to Prizrend and an Attack by the Combined Armies of Nish is Expected.

AUSTRIANS MOVE UP MORAVA

SALONIKI, Oct. 19.—(Via Paris, Oct. 20.)—The entente allies are marking time, pending the concentration of a sufficient number of troops for their operations in the Balkans. A large French force is on the way to Saloniki. French forces have succeeded thus far in protecting the lower end of the Nish-Saloniki railway.

The capital of Serbia has been transferred from Nish to Prizrend, in western Serbia, close to the Albanian frontier. The banks and most of the legations are being removed to Prizrend. The Russian consul at Saloniki has sent an automobile to bring the Russian minister to Serbia to this city, but owing to the muddy condition of the roads, it is doubtful whether this effort will succeed.

The Austro-German expedition is composed of mixed forces of about twelve divisions. The Austrians have advanced well up to the Morava valley and are endeavoring to effect a junction with the Bulgarians, who are making an attack north of the Nish-Zajcar sector.

Army officers here believe the combined armies, when a junction has been effected, will not be satisfied with opening a route across northeastern Serbia, but will attack Nish.

Another serious attack also is under way by the Bulgarians with Uskup as its objective. It is admitted that this force already has occupied Iatip.

Prince Andreas, a brother of the king, accompanied by his wife, Princess Alice, has joined his regiment here.

Don't Build Castles In the Air

Build a Bungalow In Omaha

It's all right to plan, and of course you HAVE been planning this long time. You know just how you want your home to look. But, even so, a professional builder can give you much advice and tell you things you never reckoned on. Better call him in so that you will plan wisely.

However, it is time to act. You have planned long enough. To continue planning is just like building castles in the air—it gets you nothing.

On the other hand, if you act you will be taking a definite step toward a richer, better, happier life. Lots may be had now far cheaper than you can buy them next year. It will be wise for you to invest now and take advantage of this natural increase in the value of land.
