

WANTS CITY TO CACKLE LIKE HEN

Charles Zueblin Tells Commercial Club to Not Simply Crow Like the Rooster.

ADVERTISE THE CIVIC UPLIFT

"When the boastful rooster crows, you know the sunrise is a co-incidence, but when the hen cackles, you know she has delivered the goods."

With that sort of an illustration, Charles Zueblin of Boston, noted publicist and student of civic affairs, told the Commercial club in entertaining and witty fashion at a public affairs luncheon, that Omaha ought to advertise its goods and its good deeds, instead of making noise sounding but meaningless boasts about its importance.

"Advertising and Civic Advancement" was his subject. "Instead of posting big signs concerning Omaha, the City of Opportunity and Prosperity along the railroad entrances to the city," he said, "tell the world of your municipal water works, which have taken Omaha out of the class of back-number cities."

"Tell folks about your great and beautiful Central High school, and of the municipal Auditorium and municipal concerts, your great Commercial club and your real hotel."

"Do things noteworthy and conspicuous. Then you will get on the map in big letters. In fact, then you will be one of the kind of cities that make the map."

"Make Omaha so good and beautiful that Omahans will want to keep on living here, even after they have made a fortune and are ready to retire."

"If, as it is already said, you have a park within fifteen minutes' walk of every Omaha residence, and they are good parks, the fact will advertise Omaha better than all the announcements of great bank clearings."

Mr. Zueblin urged municipal ownership of all utilities. He declared that no city can really own its municipal government until it owns its streets and that private business cannot be tended to while it is mixed up with public business.

Picket Duty Leads To Row at Theater

Police reserves were called to the Princess motion picture theater on Douglas street last night to quell a disturbance there which resulted from the boycott recently established by the operators' union.

Early in the evening, sneezing powder was turned loose in several parts of the theater, causing a few minutes' delay. Afterward, other persons emptied vials of chemicals on the floor, causing a nauseating odor and forcing all the patrons to leave hurriedly.

The management had aired the place out and started another show, when Mrs. Emma Crumm, 1709 Center, secretary of the Union Label league, who was outside doing picket duty, got into a quarrel with Mrs. Sam Harding, wife of one of the owners of the theater.

Mrs. Crumm is said to have slapped Mrs. Harding in the face, and in a few minutes, the street was in an uproar.

Police arrested Mrs. Crumm and Walter Denny, the latter a movie operator, who was also picketing the place. A charge of assault was placed against Mrs. Crumm, and Denny was charged with disorderly conduct.

In police court the case of Mrs. Crumm was continued a week and Mrs. Crumm was placed under $500 bonds. Denny was discharged.

TELLS OF MUNICIPAL CAR LINES IN SAN FRANCISCO

C. F. Harrison, who has recently been nominated for the presidency of the Real Estate exchange, spoke before the Economic league last evening on the municipal street railway of San Francisco. Mr. Harrison visited the exposition city, but a short time back, and was very much impressed by the success efficiency, the highest of any member of the municipal traction enterprise of that city. He demonstrated by figures, and notations he had secured of how really prosperous the 'Frisco people have been in the venture.

Following his talk, the league drifted into an informal discussion of municipal ownership, during which I. J. Dunn brought out, that the only legal franchise granted to a traction company in Omaha, was that given the old horse car line, nearly fifty years ago. Further, that at the expiration of the period stipulated in the franchise, the property of the company was to belong to the city. He advised that the commission be notified of this fact, and an investigation conducted. In his opinion the Omaha street railway company is operating over territory covered by the original franchise, which it is possible may still be valid.

"MOGY'S" AIM NOT ACCURATE ENOUGH TO STOP BURGLAR

"Mogy" Bernstein took three shots at a burglar whom he surprised in the act of breaking into his home at 2215 Davenport street last night.

Bernstein was just returning home in his machine when he saw the man try to pry open a window. He quietly walked up to him, but the prowler heard him and ran, Bernstein pursuing and shooting.

The burglar got away.

BROUGHT BEFORE JUDGE, BUT COMPLAINT IS GONE

Gall Reingold, 415 South Fifteenth street, charged with being a keeper of gambling devices, was brought before Judge Foster for trial, but the complaint had mysteriously disappeared over night. The case was continued until Thursday, when several duplicates will be struck off to insure an immediate hearing.

Two Little Musical Tots Give Successful Concert to Buy One of Thema Piano

Well Known Omaha Women Are Sponsors for Affair, Which is Success All Around.

ORCHESTRA ACCOMPANIMENT

Entire Program Made Up of Difficult Selections, Which Are Played with Skill.

MUSIC LOVERS FILL THE HALL

Music lovers enjoyed a rare treat Tuesday evening in the unusual spectacle of two tiny misses, 12 years old, Anna Leaf and Olga Eitner, one year older, appearing in concert, a miniature symphony orchestra of men, selected from Omaha's best orchestral resources, furnishing the accompaniment. The concert was given at the Metropolitan club, the proceeds to go towards purchasing a suitable piano for the budding young pianist, Anna Leaf. Olga is the most promising young violinist in the city.

Well known Omaha women contributed much to the success of the affair, a large and representative audience of music lovers crowding the large hall. Among the women whose interest in the young musicians has been unceasing are Mrs. F. S. Cowgill, Mrs. R. B. Howell, Mrs. J. M. Metcalf, Mrs. Nate Mantel, Mrs. W. L. Harria, Mrs. Samuel Katz, Mrs. N. P. Fell and Mrs. A. V. Kinsler.

The little white-clad maidens were almost hidden from the view of the audience by the loads of blossoms with which they were showered. The big hit of the evening was the Mozart piano concerto played by Anna Leaf with the orchestral accompaniment, Louis Schaubert acting as concert master and Sigmund Landsberg conducting. The contrast between the tiny pianist and her accompanists brought down the house.

"Perpetual Motion," a violin number by Olga Eitner scored another big hit. This most difficult selection was given in a most artistic manner, the tempo and the music interpretation being far in advance of the player's tender years.

The entire program was made up of difficult selections and ones that are commonly heard on great artists' programs. The excellent tone, the strength and the musicianly conception of their work was a source of wonder to the large audience.

It was signed by Edward A. Cudahy, president. The board of directors voted to make this change in the corporation at a meeting October 14. No change is made in the officers or directors. The transfer is a legal matter because of advantages derived from being incorporated under the laws of Maine.

OLD-TIME COLD CURE—DRINK TEA!

Take a tablespoonful of the tea, put a cup of boiling water upon it, pour through a sieve and drink a teacup full at any time. It is the most effective way to break a cold and cure croup, as it opens the pores, relieving congestion. Also loosens the bowels, thus breaking a cold at once.

It is inexpensive and entirely vegetable, therefore harmless.—Advertisement.

Surprised on Their 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Enholm celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding Tuesday evening at their home, 314 Parker street. They didn't know they were going to celebrate it in any big way until 8 o'clock in the evening, when the Rev. Dr. L. Groh called and offered his congratulations. They were glad, but surprised that he knew anything about it.

In a few moments the bell rang again and the time a whole crowd of merry folks trooped in, wreathed in smiles and bearing gifts. They had gathered in a house across the street while Dr. Groh went ahead. There were sixty-three guests altogether and the evening was spent in the usual delightful way on such occasions.

Mr. and Mrs. Enholm were married in a house across the street and have lived in their present home all their married life.

WANTS DAMAGES FOR PUTTING HIM OUT OF GARAGE

Otto Spickler alleges that L. Rolly Hummel and Ryan Hummel went into the second story of the Middle State garage, 308 Farnam street, the night of October 29 and threw out into the alley the machinery, tools, appliances and stock and books which he had there in his business of running an auto repair shop.

He says he had spent a large sum of money in the equipment and was making $300 net and has been damaged in the sum of $5,000 for which he asks judgment.

Turn Hair Dark With Sage Tea

Grandma kept her locks dark, glossy and thick with a simple mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and folks are again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mussy mixing at home. All drug stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 50 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply moisten your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces a soft lustrous and appearance of abundance which is so attractive; besides, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.—Advertisement.
