slow and dull, with prices anywhere from steady to a little easier than yesterday.

Cows and heifers that just happened to mest buyers fancy commanded close to steady prices, but the general market was slow to a little lower.

Stockers and feeders were a little dull. The country demand has been rather disappointing and, as there were quite a good many cattle of that description on and, buyers all held back, bidding loc or more lower than pesterday. The market might be described as around Economic lower than last week.

SHEEP-Today's supplies were the tracilest that have been received here on a Thursday since the last week of July, only about twenty-eight cars or 6.700 read, were reported in The total for the week to date is only 65.708 head, being 6.000 smaller than last week and only saif as large as two weeks ago. Supplies or the four days are, however, larger han for the same period of last year by 1,000 head.

leally everything killers could use had been bought by the middle of the foremoon. Best lambs offered brought $2.75, while others moved on dewn to $8.65.

Feeders, while making up a good share of the lamb offerings, were not so very plentiful. Here again quality was only fair, and while nothing sold over $8.86, values looked fully steady, and were quoted as strong to a little higher by some sellers. A few range yearlings went to a feeder buyer at $5.90, while strictly feeding ewes brought $1.5 and some that might in a pinch come under the breeder classification made $5.26.

Fat sheep were in very limited supply, but prices were practically unchanged. Bost ewes offered, which were not choice by any means, landed at $5.50, thood fed western yearlings were bought by packers at $5.50, the highest price paid for killing yearlings since the middle of last month.

ROADS CRIPPLED BY CAR SHORTAGE

Heavy Grain, Coal and Live Stock Movements Make it Impossible for Them to Get Cars.

WILL LAST OVER THIRTY DAYS

Western railroads have once more and within the next ten days it gives promise of becoming the most acute in the history of traffic operations. Until a week ago there were plenty of cars for the transportation of all commodities. Suddenly the tightening started and now it has reached erating in or out of Omaha can get bold of as many cars as it can use. President Mohler of the Union Pacific sums the cause of the car short-

"Right now a heavy movement of grain has set in. The run of live stock is unusually large and the movement of coal from the mines is something enormous Added to this, great quantities of merchandles are going out from factories and pelled to handle all of the transcontinental freight between the Atlantic and Pacific coasts. The slides in the Panama canal have forced the vessels out of the trade, and all of a sudden the railroads have had to take over this enormous tonnage."

Practically all the railroad freight men anticipate that the car shortage will continue for thirty to sixty days, and that as time passes cars will be harder to get, at least until the crest of the grain and coal movement has passed,

McVann Will Speak at Chicago Meeting

E. J. McVann, manager of the traffic bureau of the Commercial club, has been honored by being chosen as one of two speakers at the annual dinner of the National Industrial Traffic league, to be held at the Congress hotel, Chicago, November 17. He will talk on the work of the league.

Frank Manchester of Omaha and Walter Whitten and Robert M. Joyce of Lincoln are also members of the league. The four Nebraska members have invited the Nebraska State Railway commissioners to be their guests at the Chicago banquet.

Printers Neutral on Prohibition Issue

The Omaha Typographical union at its meeting, last Sunday, repudiated the action of the Nebraska State Federation of Labor in declaring against prohibition, By a very large majority the union adopted a resolution declaring its absolute neutrality on the prohibition ques-

The union also adopted a resolution declaring against the indorsement of any newspaper. This action was the outcome of a recent referendum among union men which resulted in the indorsement of a local publication by the Central Labor

New bids on that part of the work will be called for in about a week, Cashler T. L. Davis says. The original bids were about 12 per cent higher than the $700,000 the bank will spend for its new fourteen-story banking and general office building.

Big Shoe Sale at Brandeis Next Week

Bale of an $5,000 shoe stock which was purchased by the Brandels stores from the O. G. shoe store which discontinued business in Omaha upon the death of Otto Glick, will be held at the Brandeis store starting Thursday next.

This big shoe stock will be sold at less than half the list price and as all of the shoes are pratically new and of good quality the management of the Brandels. stores expects to see the entire $5,000 stock exhausted in record-making time

COLLEGIATE ALUMNAE TO ENTERTAIN PROF. LEAVITT

Prof. Frank M. Leavitt of Chicago will be honor guest at a luncheon to be given at the Commercial club today by the vocational guidance section of the local Association of Collegiate Alumnae. Prof. Leavitt will talk on "Educational Guid-ance From the Employers' Standpoint." For this reason the college women are especially desirous that local employers attend in large numbers. Reservations are being received by Miss Elizabeth Breniser, Young Women's Christian association secretary, who is chairman of the vocational guidance section.

Prof. Leavitt has charge of the industrial education department in the School won prominence in Chicago by fathering the plan whereby large corporations employing boys and girls consented to permit them to go to school part of the time. The children attend school and work alternately for two weeks.

The Rexall Store

Next Friday and Saturday At the Four Sherman & McConnell Drug Stores

Cor. 16th and Dodge-Cor. 16th and Harney (The Owl) Cor. 24th and Farnam (The Harvard)-207-9 North 16th St. (The Loyal)

HERE'S THE PLAN: If you buy any of the articles quoted below at the regular price Saturday, we give you an extra one for one cent. Makes no difference whether the price is five cents or a dollar, you get the extra one for a penny. The One Cent Sale is an outgrowth of modern merchandising methods. By its means, the manufacturer, anxious for a wide distribution of his products, is willing to make a special concession in price, thus encouraging the retailer to co-operate by the holding of these sales, whereby a large volume of merchandise is distributed to the public within a few hours' or days' time, of course, without a cent of profit; but with the purpose and effect of quickly introducing some meritorious article, perhaps hitherto unknown, or increasing, largely, the distribution of well known and standard articles.

These sales have been held in most of the principal cities of the United States, during the last few months, and almost exclusively in the Rexall Drug Stores, and wherever held have been the sensation of the hour.

An exceptionally good quality to the skin. Delicately fragrant with a subtle bouquet odor.
