The S. S. S. club, the outgrowth of a Sunday school class taught by Miss Esther Johnson, probation officer of the juvenile court, met at her home Thursday evening for its annual party and was treated to one surprise after another, After a social period in her home they were blindfolded and led by a long rope to the parlors of the First Bracken at 1418 Chicago street, several where a banquet and further surprises were awaiting them. The title of the evening's entertainment was "Shot at the Bracken home. Sunrise" which was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. Mr. Gilmore played the part of Nora Flanagan and did it well. Jack Oswald and Murray Taylor took prominent parts.

The invited guests were Rev. and Mrs. R. L. Wheeler, Miss Lottle Schroeder, Miss Ruth Schroeder and Miss Elizabeth Bloodgood, Mr. Harry O. Palmer gave several readings and Probation Officer Gus: Miller gave a sleight-of-hand enter-

The following boys were present: Thomas Farres, Willard Graner, Mason Zerbe, Clifford Anderson, Oscar Nelson, Jack Swaney, Glenn Glubaugh, Karl Oliver, Everitt Jeness, Clifford Larson, Tom Redman, Robert Henni, Ray Rasmussen, Harry Nelson, Clarence Anderson and Frank J. Schaffer.
