HUSKER WIN UPSET BUT NOT SURPRISE

Overwhelming Victory Over Jayhawk Not Anticipated, but it Caused No Astonishment.

EXPECTED KANSAS TO SCORE

By FRED S. HUNTER. While followers of Nebraska foot ball confidently anticipated a victory over Kansas Saturday the result was really an upset in the dope. It could hardly be called a surprise because upsetting the well known dope has become a custom at Nebraska, but those who predicted a cataclysm such as occurred Saturday were few and far between.

Anybody who thought the Jayhawkers would not score against the Cornhuskers could have made a millionaire out of himself. Lawrence was recking in coin the morning of the game and everybody seemed willing to wager that Kansas would score or that Nebraska would not make more than twice as many points as Olcott's eleven. But that money still remains in Lawrence for the Nebraskans on the ground were unwilling to gamble on such risks so succeasful was Stiehm's of the Huskers before the game.

Jayhawk Fights Hard. They had seen the strongest team Kansas had seen in years crushed by the foe. Nebraska was outweighed about four pounds to the man and it was up against a team that fought from whistle to whistle. It was hardly conceivable that s team whipped as Kansas was could still fight on every play as those Jayhawkas if they made up a secondary college language very well tries to drag off an huskers are as good as they make on me when he walked into the office them, and stand firm in the opinion last night to tell me about his plans for that the cream of the Missouri valley the Joe Stecher match at Lincoln, Neb., is as good if not better than the cream Thanksgiving afternoon of the east, the big nine or the far west.

Now wait, who declare him the greatest end in for a minute or so. the west and as good as there is in the This Stecher man he will have the one he is an All-Western man and Abbott tough Turk for his dinner on that and Corey firmly established their claim to All-Valley honors.

But the man who most gratified Nebraskans was John Cook. It was Cook's first appearance in a big game and the little quarter made an instant hit. His running back of punts was nothing short of wonderful and he ran in the team in capital style, getting off the plays in quick time and calling for the right play at the right time. Cook will be some quarterback in 1916 is the prediction of all who saw him play.

The big score over Kansas makes the Huskers prohibitive favorites over Iowa. The crushing defeat administered the Hawkeyes by Ames, who was licked easily by Nebraska, indicates that Stiehm's men will have an easy time
