HOSPITAL HEAD JUGGLED PAPER

Superintendent Vanderslice Deducts from Warrants to Employ Additional Help.

NEW SYSTEM WILL BE USED

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Nov. 22.—(Special.)—The two members of the state board of control who visited the Kearney hospital for tubercular patients have returned and this morning George Weldenfeld, bookkeeper for the board, went to Kearney to check up the books of the institution, which, to use an expression of the board, had been kept in a very "childish" manner.

The board is of the opinion that the superintendent, E. E. Vanderslice, has not wilfully been dishonest, but has appropriated the funds from one source in order to apply them in another where the deficiency was needed.

Checks On Account

It appears that the superintendent was in the habit of taking warrants made out to employees and signing their names to them with his own underneath and depositing them in the bank, where he had his own private account. He then drew checks for a smaller amount for the payment of the employees. He gives as his reason for doing so that the board of control only allowed a stated sum for the payment of employees. He needed additional help and so he took the difference between what the warrant was made out for and the amount the employees received and applied it in employing more help.

To Keep His Farmer

In one instance, that of the institution farmer, the board cut the pay of that individual from $45 a month to $40 to correspond to the salary received by farmers of other institutions of the state. Van Slice was afraid that he would lose his farmer and so he cut the warrant of another employe five dollars and applied it on the salary of the farmer. In other instances he hired help, applying the same methods in order to get the necessary funds. The whole transactions would amount to about $35 a month and will probably run about three months.

Hall Starts New Plan

State Treasurer George Hall, will in the future lay down a new rule which will make a like arrangement impossible unless the employe enters into the arrangement. He will require that every person receiving money from the state shall make out a voucher. In the past it has been the custom for the pay roll of the institutions to be sent to Lincoln and the warrants are drawn to each individual separately.

Nebraska City Man Accidentally Kills Self With Rifle

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—Jerome C. Dullin, a gardener residing near the city limits, shot himself while cleaning his rifle Saturday night. He was in the kitchen when the accident occurred and in the next room his wife, who is paralyzed, heard the shot and his groans, but could not move to go to his assistance. He was not found until his daughter came home two hours afterward. He died from the effects of the shot Sunday morning, the bullet having entered his breast just below the heart. His funeral was held today. He is survived by his wife, a daughter and two sons. He conducted a shooting gallery in the fall and winter and was getting his rifles ready for Thanksgiving. He was born in Keithburg, Ill., December 23, 1869, and moved to Canada, where he was married, and came to this city some twelve years ago.

OTOE FARMER DIES OF BLOOD POISONING

NEBRASKA CITY, Nov. 22.—(Special.)—The funeral of Albert Wenzel, a wealthy farmer, took place yesterday. Five weeks ago he had a scratch on his great toe and neglected the same and when it became annoying put some salve thereon. It continued to grow worse and not until the toe turned almost black did he consult a physician. The foot was amputated and last Thursday his whole leg was taken off, because of the infection, but he never rallied from the shock incident to the last operation, because he was too weak and his body so infected. He leaves a widow and family of grown children.

Felix DeGonos, one of the best known Italians of this section, died Saturday afternoon of an operation for gangrene of the gall duct. His funeral was held Sunday from the family home, and was under the direction of Edna Camp, No. 25, Woodmen of the World, of which lodge he was a charter member. He leaves a widow and four children, all small. He came to this city some twelve years ago.

There were 1,191,206 acres raised in the state, which produced 4,082,794 tons, an average of 3.4 tons per acre. This would make each acre produce on an average of something like $4.90.

HALL COUNTY FARMER HIT BY AUTOMOBILE

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Nov. 22.—(Special Telegram.)—Fred Meyer, a farmer, aged about 65, was struck by an automobile last night on the Lincoln highway near the Merrick county line and lies in the General hospital with a crushed skull. It appears that he was walking behind a rig and did not see the automobile after it had passed the rig in time to get out of the way and that the automobile was going too fast to stop after the driver saw Meyer. Fred Meyer, a farmer, residing near Chapman, was the driver of the car and is quite broken up over the accident. Meyer had not regained consciousness twelve hours after being struck.

Ex-Mayor Miles Is Still Undecided Whether to File

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Nov. 22.—(Special.)—C. J. Miles of Hastings, former mayor of that city and president of the Nebraska State Baseball league, called at the office of the secretary of state today and applied for filing blanks in order that he may have his name placed upon the primary ballot as a candidate for the republican nomination for governor if he decides to make the race.

Mr. Miles is not certain yet that he desires to file. "When I do," said he, "I shall do so because I feel that it is a laudable ambition for any man to want to serve his state as its chief executive officer. I believe I have many friends who would be glad to sign a petition asking that my name be placed upon the primary ballot, but I do not believe I shall trouble them along that line. I would like to be governor of the state and do not believe I am going outside of the bounds of political propriety if I file my personal application instead of a petition.

The death of Mr. Miles, six weeks ago today, has been a hard blow to the former mayor; their plans for the future, should he enter the race and be successful, have been rudely shattered. He will take a short trip to the coast and will make up his mind on his return as to the future and his political plans.

VEISER, KENNEDY TO MEET

Secretary of State Pool Will Give Latter Chance to Protest Former's Filing.

RELICS OF THE DAYS GONE BY

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Nov. 22.—(Special.)—The last foot ball game of the season has been played in Lincoln, the Stecher-Husanski wrestling match will come off Thanksgiving afternoon, and after that very little of an exciting nature will be left to draw the attention of the people and amuse them, so Secretary of State Pool is preparing to pull off a curtain-raiser for the political game which ought to draw like a porous plaster.

On January 8, 1915, was filed in the office of the secretary of state a petition by John O. Veiser of Omaha and others asking that the name of Theodore Roosevelt be placed upon the primary ballot for the republican nomination for the presidency.

On January 8, three days later, that valiant statesman and hero of many a brilliant battle, Senator Crawford Kennedy, filed a protest against the placing of the name of the aforesaid Roosevelt upon the primary ballot, giving as his reasons for his protest that the laws of Nebraska provided no method for the filing of a candidate three years before the primary and also that Mr. Roosevelt had left the republican party of his own free will and accord and was not, therefore, a republican any more and therefore could not be entitled to a place as its nominee.

Two days later Mr. Veiser replied to the protest of Senator Kennedy and denied the allegations set forth in the senator's protest and defied the allegation. Now, as the time draws near when the matter should be settled, Secretary of State Pool announces that he will in the near future set a date when both Colonel Veiser and Senator Kennedy will be privileged to meet and show cause why they should not both be shot at sunrise if they do not make good in the claims made by them in their petition and protest.

When these two sturdy warriors meet one or the other is bound to have his shoulders pinned to the mat in the talk that will follow.

MAYOR CHARLES BRYAN TO FIGHT THE COUNCIL

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Nov. 22.—(Special Telegram.)—War has broken out again in the Lincoln city council, Mayor Bryan having made the public charge that "special interests" and an "invisible government" were influencing the city government.

The charge was made through a local newspaper and today the other four members of the commission—William Schroeder, T. J. Hensley, George Dayton and John Wright—called upon the mayor to prove it and show in what way and what special interests or what invisible government was controlling the commission.

The commission also resolved that there would be no action on the mayor's welfare ordinance until the mayor has made good on his statement or taken it back.

In the former trouble over the organization of the new commission last spring, Commissioner Wright stood with the commission as against the three old members, Schroeder, Hensley and Dayton, but in this instance he stands with the old members, leaving the mayor to fight his battles alone.

NEBRASKA CITY, Neb., Nov. 22.—(Special.)—Rudolph Schroeder, was attending church Saturday night and left his auto in front of the city jail. When he came out the car was gone. Two strangers that were seen standing near the car about ten minutes before he missed it are supposed to be the same. The car was traced going to Omaha and then the trace was lost.

Officers Say Ship Zelandia Searched Inside 3-Mile Limit

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Officers of the battleship Kentucky at Progreso, Mex., have reported that the American steamer Zelandia was one-quarter of a mile inside the three-mile limit when recently forcibly searched by a boarding party from a British cruiser, and therefore was in a neutral port.

They agree with the British report, however, that no papers were aboard the ship to show its nationality, but were in the American consulate ashore. The British officers contend also that the vessel was a quarter of a mile outside the three-mile limit and therefore on the high seas.

The Carranza government already has protested to Great Britain against the alleged violation of Mexican neutrality, and the subject probably will become a matter of diplomatic action between Great Britain and the United States.

BRITISH FREIGHTER IN DISTRESS AT SEA

HALIFAX, N. S. Nov. 22.—The British steamer Oakfield, bound from West Hartlepool, England, for an American port, is in distress about 600 miles southeast of Cape Race, N. F., according to a wireless message received at the Cape Race station early today. The message came from the steamer San Giorgio, New York for Mediterranean ports, which reported that it was standing by the Oakfield and that the latter steamer had lost all its propeller blades. The Oakfield is a vessel of 2,290 tons.

OLD ENGLISH REMEDY FOR CATARRH OF THE NOSE AND HEAD

If you know of some one who is troubled with Catarrh of the Nose, or ordinary catarrh cut out this formula and send it to those who will have been the means of saving some poor sufferer perhaps from total deafness. In England scientists for a long time past have recognized that catarrh is a constitutional disease and necessarily requires a constitutional treatment.

Straya, Inhalers and nose droppers are liable to irritate the delicate air passages and force the disease into the middle ear which frequently means total deafness, or else the disease is driven down the air passages towards the lungs which is equally as dangerous. The following formula which is used extensively in the damp English climate is a constitutional treatment and should prove especially efficacious to sufferers here who live under more favorable climate conditions.

Secure from your Druggist 1 ounce of Parmitin (Double strength). Take this home and add to it 1/4 pint of water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar; stir until dissolved. Take one tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and hearing improve as the inflammation in the eustachian tubes is reduced. Parmitin is used in this way as it acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system and has a slight tonic action that facilitates the recovery of the patient. The preparation is easy to make, costs little and is pleasant to take. Every person who has catarrh should give this treatment a trial.—Advertisement.
