

GREEK PORTS ARE NOT BLOCKADED

London Statement Taken to Mean that Kitchener's Conference with King Brought Results.

ATHENS REPORTS PREMATURE

BULLETIN. SALONIKI, Nov. 22.—(Via Paris, Nov. 23.)—The resignation of Premier Skoufoulis of Greece, according to reports in circulation here, is expected momentarily on account of difficulties between Greece and Great Britain.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—The foreign office states no Greek ships are being searched or held up in the ports of the United Kingdom and that no blockade of Greek ports has been instituted or is in force.

No amplification of the foreign office statement is obtainable in official quarters. The universal deduction is that the Greek government has satisfied the British demands submitted by Earl Kitchener, secretary for war, who was in Athens last week, and has furnished guarantees of the safety of the Anglo-French expeditionary force.

It is believed that the announcement from Athens concerning a commercial blockade of Greece were premature, in that they presented the provisional intentions of the entente allies as accomplished facts.

Recent dispatches from the near east have stated that the British government had inaugurated a "peaceful blockade" of Greece. The purpose, it was said, was to induce Greece to guarantee immunity to Serbian, French and British troops which might be forced into Greek territory from hostile action by the Greeks.

Artillery is busy on the western front, where the only other activity of late has been mining and aerial operations.

Roumania again figures in news of the diplomatic situation. It is reported that the central powers are about to make a formal request to the Bucharest government to maintain its neutrality, but are offering certain concessions if that nation will intervene in the war of their side.

German Official Report.

BERLIN, Nov. 23.—(Via Wireless to Bayville).—An aerial battle, in which a French biplane was dashed to the ground, is reported by German army headquarters in today's official statement dealing with operations on the western front.

Several sections of the Franco-Belgian line, the report states.

The text of the official statement, issued today by the German army headquarters, follows:

"Western theater: Favored by clear weather, there were lively artillery duels at various places on this front. The activity of other kinds of fire also continued.

"In the Bois Le Prete sector two enemy mine explosions were unsuccessful.

"A French biplane, after an aerial fight near Aure, in the Champagne, fell to the earth.

"Eastern theater: There is nothing to report.

"Balkan theater: North of Mitrovitza and north and northeast of Pristina, the enemy was thrown back in rear guard battles. Bulgarian forces, fighting southeast of Pristina, are victoriously advancing. In the region near Pristina 5,000 Serbians were made prisoners and twenty-two machine guns and forty-four cannon were captured."

CAPTAIN BOY-ED IS NAMED BY LAWYER

money in two New York banks and soon after Captain Boy-ed came to him and told him that the money was to be spent under his (Boy-ed's) direction. We shall show that $200,000 of this money was sent to San Francisco, where it was spent to charter and supply three ships with coal and provisions, and that these vessels sailed out and met the German cruiser Lepelz and perhaps the Dresden.

"One hundred and thirty-five thousand dollars of this money, we shall show, was spent for the purchase outright of one of these three vessels and all of the $250,000 was spent under Captain Boy-ed's personal direction and instructions.

Many Ships Chartered. "Sixteen or seventeen ships were used," Mr. Wood continued, "by the defendants to carry coal, water, wine, sauerkraut and other needed supplies to the Leipzig, Dresden, Cap Trafalgar, Elba, Santa Lucia, Eleanor Woerner and other German men of war. These steamers all carried super cargoes consisting of instructions, which were opened after the vessel steamed away, sometimes within the three-mile limit.

"The defendant, Kotter, we shall show, signed letters which the super cargoes carried and these letters, addressed to the captains of the steamers selected to supply German warships, instructed the captain to obey the super cargoes and promised them liberal gratuities for doing so.

"We shall show that after these vessels sailed for Buenos Aires, La Guayra, Cadix, Moravia and other destinations, the super cargoes, instructed the captains to go elsewhere and that the captains in obeying these instructions took their vessels to meet German warships at sea and to deliver to the warships the supplies aboard."

"We shall show that these defendants conspired at various meetings to do all these things, that in so doing they rough-shod over the laws and treaties of the United States, as contemptuously as if those laws and treaties had been mere scraps of paper."

ROBERT LORAIN, the actor-aviator, well known in America, has received the military cross for gallantry for attacking a German Albatross at a distance of fifteen yards.

from American ports to supply German warships and admit that these ships were outfitted by Dr. Buens and the other defendants, but deny that the acts of the defendants constitute conspiracy."

Mr. Hand added.

"On or about August 1, 1914, Dr. Buens received from his home office in Germany orders by cable directing him to charter a number of steamships here, place provisions, coal and other supplies aboard and send them to a designated place in the Atlantic, there to await the appearance of German warships, to which the supplies were to be delivered. He was acting on these legitimate orders in chartering these vessels."

HAUSER HERE; MAY CONFESS SMITH MURDER

against the fellow, although the attitude of a number of men was anything but reassuring. After the speedy run from Albright the prisoner was landed in the cell room without mishap, and Maloney heaved a visible sigh of relief, emphatically refused to talk and went home to dinner. Both he, Hauser and Finn showed the strain of the fifteen-hour ride on the cars.

"I'm glad this part is over," said the prisoner just before the iron bolt of his cell door fell into place with a clang.

Maloney has sent for those believed to be Hauser's victims, who did not make the recent trip to Wichita, where Hauser was identified, and they will hear him speak, get a good look at the man, and, if possible, add further to the chain of evidence which is designed to send Hauser to the chair."

"Glad He is Brought Back. Upon learning that Captain Maloney had arrived in Omaha with his prisoner Miss Grace Slater, who was Smith's companion the night he was murdered, said: 'I am glad he has been brought back here, and I hope his trial will come up soon. I am sure my statements will be substantiated either by a confession or testimony at the trial.'"

W. F. Hauser, whose home at 328 Pine street, was held up by Hauser while a house party was in progress, said: 'You can bet your sweet life I'm glad they've got him here. The worst is not too bad for that fellow. Hauser confessed to the Hauser holdup.'

John T. Yates, sovereign clerk of the Woodmen of the World, by whom Smith was employed, said: 'I am pleased to find Hauser has been brought to Omaha, and I hope he is given a speedy and fair trial so justice can be done.'"

TOD SLOAN ARRESTED ON DEPORTATION ORDER

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Tod Sloan, the former jockey, was arrested here today on a deportation order from the home secretary, under the defense of the realm act. He will be sent back to the United States immediately.

The explanation given by the home office for designating Tod Sloan as an undesirable alien is that he has been maintaining a gambling house.

It is presumed here that Tod Sloan's deportation from England was ordered because he recently had been in Germany. No official report on the case has reached the State department.

FIFTEEN MILLIONS IN GOLD COME FROM LONDON

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Two shipments of gold valued at $15,750,000 which arrived here on board the steamers Lapland and St. Paul, were landed today. The Lapland brought $7,000,000 while the St. Paul carried $8,750,000 in gold specie and $4,800,000 in bullion. Most of the gold was consigned to New York banking houses to pay for war munitions ordered by the British government.

YOUR BRONCHIAL TUBES

When a cold settles in the bronchial tubes, with that weakening, tickling cough, immediate treatment is very important. The breath seems shorter because of mucous obstructions; usually fever is present, your head jars with every cough and your chest may ache. This is no time for experimenting or delay—you must get Scott's Emulsion at once to drive out the cold which started the trouble, and it will check the cough by aiding the healing process of the encrusted membranes.

If you have any symptoms of bronchitis, or even a stubborn cold, always remember that Scott's Emulsion has been relieving it's trouble for forty years. It is free from alcohol or drugs. Refuse substitutes.

SEVEN KILLED AND FORTY-TWO INJURED

Special Train Carrying Circus Colides Head-On with Passenger Near Columbus, Ga.

SEVERAL REPORTED MISSING

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 23.—Seven persons, at least, were killed and forty-two injured in the wreck near here last night, when a circus train collided head-on with a passenger train on the Central of Georgia railroad.

A misunderstanding of orders brought the two trains together on a straight track and much of the wreckage was burned. At least six persons were burned to death and a seventh died in a hospital. All the dead were members of the Kennedy Carnival company, which was traveling on a train of twenty-eight cars. None of the injured will die.

The owner of the show estimated that eighteen were killed, but a search of the wreckage today gave no trace of that number. All the show animals were burned to death and there is a possibility that several showmen, of whom no record was kept, were also lost.

The known dead and injured, except for trainmen, were persons traveling with the carnival company. The list of dead follows:

MIL AND MRS. FRED S. KEMPF of Kansas City.

A SHOWMAN, known as "Whitey," O. H. HAWKINS, Peoria, Ill.

GEORGE CHADWICK, address unknown.

JOHNSON, address unknown. Hawkins, Chadwick and Johnson were employed by the carnival company.

The engines of both trains were demolished by the impact. The passenger train carried three steel coaches, all of which escaped serious damage. The cars of the carnival train, however, piled up on the engines and immediately caught fire. The chief performers of the carnival company rode in twelve coaches which made up the rear end of their train and none of them suffered more than bruises.

Throws Girl from Window. Mr. and Mrs. Kempf and their young daughter, Hazel, were in one of the cars near the front of the train. When the car caught fire the woman tossed her daughter out of a window, the child escaping with cuts and bruises. Mrs. Kempf and her husband were burned to death in the wreckage.

It was said tonight none of the animals except some horses and dogs escaped being burned to death.

There were about 400 people attached to the carnival company, which had been exhibiting in Atlanta during the last week.

The train carried a lion, two bears, six camels and a number of trained horses and dogs.

TANK SCRAP SUIT AGAINST PURDUE IS DISMISSED

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 23.—Judge J. Caldwell in the circuit court today dismissed the $25,000 damage suit against Purdue university brought by Abraham L. Obenchain of South Whitley, Ind., whose son was killed in the Purdue tank scrap of September 19, 1912, his neck being broken. It was alleged in the complaint that the school authorities induced Francis W. Obenchain, 20, to enter the fight, and that the fight was conducted and encouraged by the university. The case was dismissed because of a lack of prosecution.

WANT FRAUDULENT ADS SUPPRESSED

Advertising Clubs Ask Federal Government to Take Jurisdiction Over Them.

PRINTED LIE IS A PUBLIC LIE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23.—Representatives of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World appeared today before the federal trade commission to urge the commission to take jurisdiction over dishonest advertising as unfair competition within the meaning of the federal trade law.

"We feel we are a natural ally of the commission with our 14,000 members, embracing fourteen methods of advertising," said Herbert S. Houston, president of the clubs.

"In addition to our national vigilance committee we have in each state separate vigilance committees, and they come in contact with many interstate cases which we think might well be laid before this commission by us."

James Keeley, editor of the Chicago Herald, presented the view of a large number of advertising agencies that dishonest advertising was unfair competition.

"A spoken lie may be a private matter, but a printed lie is a public lie; it concerns the public and is a question for public treatment," said Mr. Keeley.

"Publishers deal in the sale of white space and the value thereof depends upon the confidence of the public in which it has printed therein. To print a crooked advertisement in that space is to assault public confidence. To depreciate the value of advertisements is to injure one of the greatest of public utilities."

Many Instances Cited. H. J. Keener, secretary of the national vigilance committee; William H. Ingersoll, a New York manufacturer, and Charles H. Porter, president of the Chicago Advertising association, cited numerous cases of misstatements in advertisements which they urged came within the jurisdiction of the commission.

E. P. Meredith of Des Moines, Ia., estimated that the association could present 8,000 such instances.

CONVICTION OF SLAYER OF ANNA AUMULLER UPHELD

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 23.—The judgment convicting Hans Schmidt of the murder of Anna Aumuller was upheld by the court of appeals today.

Schmidt, who was performing the offices of a priest at St. Joseph's church in New York City, was arrested September 15, 1913, and confessed to the police that he had killed Miss Aumuller, whose dismembered body had been found in the North River.

The first trial resulted in a disagreement, but a second trial ended in a conviction. Later, Schmidt repudiated his confession and the case was carried to the court of appeals on the ground that Miss Aumuller's death was the result of an illegal operation.

Burton's Name on Republican Ticket For Coming Primary

Matthew J. Greevy of Omaha yesterday filed in the office of the secretary of state at Lincoln a petition nominating Senator Theodore E. Burton of Ohio for president on the Nebraska republican ticket, he announced in a statement issued last night.

"The petition was signed by thirty-six republican voters who are representative of the rank and file of republicans in this state, rather than of office holders, or office seekers," said Mr. Greevy. "Among the signers were a dozen members of the Ohio club of Omaha."

Senator Burton recently visited Omaha and was greeted and entertained here by hundreds of republicans.

Convicted of Shipping Whisky in Coffin

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Nov. 23.—The Tennessee Coffin and Casket company and Frank Fox, its shipping clerk, were convicted in the federal court today of shipping whisky in coffins into adjoining states without proper labeling.

T. C. Betterton, president of the company, who also is police chief of Chattanooga; L. C. Mylius, superintendent of the company, and A. G. Smith, a salesman, were acquitted. Betterton denied knowledge of the fact.

The government contended it was the company's custom to enclose bottles of whisky to those who bought coffins.
