

BUDDHIST PRIESTS ARE TO BE PERMITTED TO MARRY

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) TOKYO, Nov. 28.—After an eleven days' conference at Kishu, the Buddhist sect known as Shingon had adopted two steps which, according to its leaders, bring the sect into paths of modernism. The first is to ratify the extension to women of the right of pilgrimage to the famous Koyasan monastery which stands in the mountainous region in Kishu, a right which has been restricted to the male sex from times immemorial. The second step was that of extending recognition to the marriage of its priests. The Shingon sect has stood for celibacy since it was founded in the ninth century. The recognition of marriage took the form of a resolution declaring that the son of a rector of the monastery would be recognized as the first candidate for the rectorship upon the death of the incumbent. See Want Ads Produce Results.

AGED GENERALS TO BE PUT ASIDE WHEN DISCREPIT

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) LONDON, Nov. 28.—There is to be no age limit for generals in the British army, says a statement from Premier Asquith. He proposes, on the other hand, to displace them whenever they show signs of senility whether their age be forty or eighty. "It is not possible," remarks Mr. Asquith, "to institute any hard and fast rules as to an age limit for officers in command of divisions, but it will be our aim to appoint those officers whose mental and physical qualifications are most suitable. Some men age sooner and some later than others."

Our Entire Stock of Suits at Clearing Prices

This sale will be a surprise to Omaha women. You would never expect to see such handsome suits at these prices. Our method of mid-season clearings is different from most stores. Improvements in styles are being made with kaleidoscope action and they all come to this store. These higher priced models collect too rapidly, so we reduce prices and close them out when you need them most.

The variety of styles, materials, colors and trimmings cover the whole range of fashion. Many of these suits are original models which possess new and exclusive features not shown elsewhere, and a host of others are duplicates of authentic Paris models. In short, our entire stock of suits is offered at three small prices, at which you have unrestricted choice.
