N. L. Drew Will Promote Three-Day Program of Hill-Climbs Up Famous Mountain Highway.

STOPS IN OMAHA FOR VISIT

N. L. Drew of Colorado Springs, the who conceived the idea of the Pikes leak Highway and promoted the road which runs from Colorado Springs to the pinnacle of the famous mountain, stopped off in Omaha yesterday on his way east, where he will make plans for staging s hill-climbing contest on the road next

The Pikes Peak Highway is one of the most wonderful automobile roads in the United States. It is eighteen miles long with an average grade of 6 per cent. The maximum grade is 10 per cent. The perpendicular elevation is 5,694 feet. The road runs from twenty to fifty feet in

A hill-climbing contest up the Pikes Peak Highway and promoted the road gest racing events of the year. It would take some mighty skillful driving to pilot cars up that grade with its many sharp urves and turns, and Mr. Drew declares there is a point on the road where a grandstand can be built that will enable poctators to see fourteen miles of the ighteen-mile course.
