CHIEF EXECUTIVE OF MINNESOTA DIES

Governor W. S. Hammand of North Star State Expires Suddenly at Clinton, Louisiana.

SEVERAL TERMS IN CONGRESS

CLINTON, La., Dec. 30 .- Governor Winfield Scott Hammond of Minnesota died suddenly in a hotel here early today from a stroke of apoplexy. which physicians stated apparently had been superinduced by a recent attack of ptomaine poisoning. He died before physicians could arrive.

Governor Hammond, accompanied by his private secretary, J. A. Nowell, arrived here three days ago to inspect his extensive land and lumber interests in East Feliciana parish. He had not been well for several days, but was able to go about the town and parish, and did not consider his condition sufficiently serious to consult a physician.

Death Comes Suddenly.

Shortly after Breakfast, about 9:30 o'clock this morning, Governor Hammond went into the wash room of his hotel, and a moment later Mr. Nowell and others heard him groaning. Rushing in they found Mr. Hammond on the floor. Rewas carried to his room and physicians summoned, but he expired within a few minutes.

Accompanied by Mr. Nowell and an excort from the Masonic lodge of Clinton, the body will be started northward to St. Paul late today. The Masons will go as far as Vicksburg, Mas. Governor Hall of Louisiana sent word from Baton Rouge that he and several members of his staff will accompany the body to Vicksburg.

Successor in Republican. ST. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 30.-Governor W. S. Hammond, who died suddenly at Clinton, La., departed from St. Paul for the south just a week ago today to inspect some farm lands which he owns in the vicinity of Clinton. At his offices at the state house it was said he had been expected to return tomorrow and that no intimation that the governor was ill had been received here or at St. James, Mmn., where Milton Hammond, the governor's brother, Lieutenant Governor J. A. A. Burnquist, who becomes governor of Minnesots as a result of the death of Governor Hammond, at Clinton, La., was in bed with a bad cold today when he received the news of the governor's death.

re-elected Beutenant governor after serving in that position during the administration of former Governor A. O.

Several Terms in Congress. Winfield Scott Hammond, eighteenth governor of Minnesota, was inaugurated partment today by cable. ust about a year ago, following his section on the democratic ticket. Preiqualy, he had served several terms in the national house of representatives, being sent to Washington from the Second Minnesota district. He was unmarried and was born November 17, 1863, st Southboro, Worcester county, Mass. where he graduated with the class of 1884. He came to Minnesota as a young man, was admitted to the bar and began the practice of law at St. James, He served as county attorney of Watonwan county nearly six years and as a member the state board of normal school directors, for eight years. He was elected to the sixtieth, sixty-first and sixtysecond congresses and re-elected to the

CHANGES IN EDUCATION NEEDED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 30 .- Pleas for a great Pan-Americanism were numerous today in the program of the Pan-American Scientific congress in spite of the great volume of papers read on technical subjects. Scores of questions of an international character were discussed and members of the congress informally talked of the crystallization of the Pan-American idea into a concrete form that might become known as the Pan-American

A Pan-American conference that has for its one object the co-ordination of "a principle of general education for the whole continent, with the fundamental idea of giving special importance to the reciprocial knowledge of the American mation coming from the attorney general nations," was suggested by Mrs. Ernestina A. Lopez De Nelson of Argentina. Addressing the congress on education she said that more Americanism and less nationalism should be taught the children of both North and South America. 'The education now given to the children of America," she declared, "does not prepare them for the Pan-American feeling of brotherhood which is so desirable, but fills them with false conceptions and predisposes them to look on the American neighbors with suspicion. Certain prejudices exist between the American nations which makes them see each other in a false light. One reason is that we always compare our neighbors with the

Have Good Time, but Don't Get Too Gay on New Year, Says Jim

Have a good time, but don't get too gay, is the substance of a New Year's eve order sent by Mayor Dabiman to Chief of Police Dunn.

Liquors ordered before 5 o'clock may be consumed by revelors after that hour, but no disarrangement of the natural scenery of the city will be permitted. The letter addressed by the mayor to the chief reads as follows:

the chief reads as follows:

Many people will no doubt make arrangements with the leading hotels for Jinners, wines, etc., for New Year's eve. Of course any liquors ordered before a ciclock p. m. on that day the city authorities will have no right to interfere with on that evening; or any parties ordering aame before that hour have a right under the law to use same.

However, you will notify all of the leading hotels that everything must be conducted in an orderly and respectable manner.

Prohibs Predict Big Gain if Old Parties Pass Up Dry Plank

CHICAGO, Dec. 30 .- Predictions that if the national democratic and republican traditional European models instead of platforms in 1916 do not contain prohibigiving to each nation its own individual tion planks there will be made defections from these parties to the prohibition party, were made today by prohibition leaders gathered here to consider the coming campaign.

The conference, called by the executive committee of the national committee national chairman.

Possible prohibition presidential nominees were discussed informally. There seemed to be a tendency to connect men to opportunities mere closely related to outside the party with the nomination. Among others mentioned as candidates were J. Frank Hanly, former governor of Indiana; William Sulser, former governor of New York; Richmond P. Hobson, former Alabama congressman; and Eugene Foss, former governor of Massa-
