OKLAHOMA GRANDFATHER LAW WILL BE AMENDED

OKLAHOMA CITY, Jan. 7 .- Governor R. L. Williams issued a proclamation today convoking the legislature of Oklahoma in extraordinary session January 17. The proclamation does not mention questions that the governor may submit for consideration, but it is believed here that the so-called "grandfather law" will be submitted for amendment and the legislature asked to enact a more stringent anti-usury law. Provisions of the "grandfather law" imposing qualifications for voters in this state recently were declared unconstitutional by the supreme court of the United States because the effect of the law was to disfranchise negro residents

Most of Wheat Sales Made at Advance of Two Cents, Although Some Cars Get Less.

DEMAND FOR CORN IS GOOD

OMAHA, January 7, 1916. OMAHA, January 7, 1918.

The run of wheat and corn was quite heavy today, and there was an active demand for both of these cereals. The cash wheat market was strong, most of the sales being made at an advance of 2 cents, although a few cars sold only half a cent over yesterday's quotations.

The demand in general for corn was good, although most of the corn being received at the present time is of poor quality. Corn prices remained steady, the market ranging from 1 cent higher to half a cent lower.

Oats receipts were not very good, and the demand for this cereal was moderate. Cash oats sold at practically unchanged prices.

Rye and barlow were strong selling at

Cash cats sold at practically unchanged prices.

Rye and barley were strong, selling at about 1 cent advance over the prices of the previous day.

Clesrances of wheat and flour were equal to 1,641,000 bushels; corn, 5,000 bushels; at Liverpool wheat closed unchanged to 4d higher; corn, 14d higher.

Primary wheat receipts were 1,773,000 bushels and shipments $49,000 bushels and shipments of 1,466,000 bushels last year.

Frimary corn receipts were $69,000 bushels and shipments of 1,785,000 bushels and shipments of $32,000 bushels and shipments of $32,000 bushels and shipments of $32,000 bushels last year.

Primary cats receipts were $65,000 bushels and shipments of $32,000 bushels last year.

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—Increasing receipts and the growing difficulties of shippers had a bearish effect today on wheat. The result was a heavy close, at 14.67% onet decline, with May at $1.25\cdot \text{Miles} \text{Miles} \text{Miles} \text{Miles} \text{May at $1.25\cdot \text{Miles} \text{Miles} \text{Miles} \text{May at $1.25\cdot \text{Miles} \text{Miles} \text{Miles} \text{May at $1.25\cdot \text{Miles} \t Australia during January and February would be light.

Gradually, however, the bears acquired the advantage, for Europeans were said to be offering to recall at a substantial reduction in prices, and there was word of a decided increase in the stock pile at Minneapolis. Much additional significance in regard to the accumulation of supplies seemed apparent when announcement was made later that arrivals at primary points totaled nearly twice the amount of a year ago, whereas shipments displayed a material falling off.

Depression in the wheat market grew more pronounced on account of shipping contracts here being made enforcible only as soon as the railway embargo at the east is removed. Even on that basis, not more than 175,000 hushels was disposed of, and the aggregate of the day's export business for the whole United States was estimated as not surpassing at the most 500,000 bushels.

Corn gave way with wheat, despite some sales to Europe, and notwithstanding new high record quotations at Liversool. Receipts here was increasing, but very slowly. Oats reflected the action of corn. Selling pressure though was not much in evidence.

Provisions sagged because of the down-turns in the hog market and in grain.

not much in evidence.

Provisions sagged because of the down-turns in the hog market, and in grain, packers were on the selling side, provisions. The market was fairly well sustained, however, by speculative de-reand.

In later transactions the market ruled easy, in line with hogs. It was said that scarcify of feed was causing the sacrifice of live stock to an unusual extent.

Cotton Market.

NEW YORK, Jan 7.—COFFEE—The market for coffee futures was higher again today on a broadening demand from Wall street and cotton trade sources which seemed to have been inspired by the recent advance in freight rates from Brasil to New York and apprehensions of increased difficulties of importation. The market had a comparatively quiet opening and at first prices were only 8 or 5 points higher, but huying became more active during the middle of the day and active months seed 17925 points above last night's closing figures with July touching T.Soc and October 7.50c. The close was within a point or so of the best at a net gain of 18224 points. Sales, 67.390 bags. Quotations: January. 6.85c; February. 6.85c; March. 1.94c; April. 7.85c; September. 7.45c. Santos 4s. 85c. The cost and freight market seemed rather iregular and unsettled, led owing parity to delay in receiving firm offers. It was reported that there had been a small sale of Santos 4s at 8.80c. but it was thought that this might have ben an old offering, and later offeres were quoted at about 900979.9 based on Faxilian markets.

anything, easier on everything except the best stuff, and trade naturally opened out pretty dull. Later on things firmed up, and while trade was a little draggy all the way through it turned out fairly satisfactorily, the liberal Friday run clearing pretty well at generally steady prices. One bunch of choice light weight lambs reached 19.66, the highest price paid since June. Rulk of the offerings sold at $3.75gpt.20, with a few bunches as high as $10.00. Clipped lamb tops moved up a dime, $8.70 being paid for another cut of the ones that sold at $8.00 yesterday. This week's market has shown the biggest advance registered during any similar period in a long time, current values being all of 75c above last Friday. Ewes were in scant supply and sold in about the same notches as yesterday, liest reached $8.20, while two loads of Mexicans that carried a thin end went under a light aort at $8.00. Mr. Crossley retired early in the evening, complaining of feeling tired and ill. There were no calls from the room during the night, and the presence of the gas was not detected until after 8 o'clock yesterday morning. The transom was open and employes of the hotel quickly traced the escaping gas to the room oc- bor cupled by Mr. Crossley. When the door was forced he was found lying on the

PRICES FROM HEAVY TO WEAR

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Conflicting elements guided the course of today's activity market to a considerable extent. During the forenoon sentiment remained under the spell of depression or caution engendered by the Garry statement and prices ranged from heavy to weak, some specialities yielding 5 to 6 points, while high-priced issues suffered more severely. In the last half of the session material recoveries, running into substantial pergains, were registered, the improvement heing concurrent with the report that Berlin has accepted Wasnington's terms in the matter of the Lustiania case.

United States Steel, the beliwether of the market, had been in free supply during the early operations at 85, vesterday's low price, but on the upward movement of the afternoon it advanced to 51%, clossing at its best. Other shares, notably American Can and petroleums, as well as coppers, and miscellancous issues, rose spiritedly from low levels, and General Motors, which registered an early loss of 25 points at 15, rebounded to 450.

Rails also carticipated in the rise, although to a smaller extent. A feature of this group was the better inquiry for is sues of minor tonds at a material gain toward the close.

Among the other specific movements was that of Mercantile Marine preferred, which made an extreme advance of 2% to 79% on unorticial statements purporting to give an outline of the proposed reorganization. Total sales of stocks amounted to 335,000 shares.

Reactionary tendencles were at work in the foreign exchange market, sterling failing more than 2 cents from its high rate of the previous day. Marke made the new low record of 73 on some early offerings, but closed at 73%, yesterday's minimum. Anglo-French is rose to 26% their high quotation of recent weeks and within a traction of the syndicate price. The known movement of money during the week points to an increase of local bank reserves tomorrow, largely as result of additional gold imports. New thancing by railroads and industrial corporations a

Death Comes to

George Crossley

His desire to attend the funeral of General Dodge was the means of causins a second tragedy in the family of George W. Crossley, whose son, Prof.
Crossley, was killed a year ago when caught in the flywheet of an engine on the 1,000-acre farm seven miles from Council Huffs.

Mr. Crossley came to Council Bluffs late Wednesday afternoon and stopped at the Kiel hotel. He was found unconscious in his room late Thursday morning with the room filled with illuminating gas that had escaped from a burner. He died Friday evening without having regained consciousness.

Dr. A. V. Hennessey was called and after his serious condition was noted Mr.
Crossley was hurried to Mercy hospital.

Mr. Crossley retired early in the evening, complaining of feeling tired and ill.

cupied by Mr. Crossiey. When the door was forced he was found lying on the bed in his night robes and entirely unconscious. The gas jet in the room was found to be jurily open and the escape of the vapor had been very slow.

It is believed that Mr. Crossiey arose during the hight and had lighted the gas, and when he had turned it off had accidentally struck the valve in withdrawing his hand. Mr. Crossley had been in poor health for several years, and it was owing to this fact that his talented son resigned his position in the faculty of the Ames Agricultural college and devoted his time to the management of the big farm. The father was terribly shocked when his son received his fatal injuries. He had been greatly depressed since. He had always been a great admirer of General Dodge and despite his feeble health insisted upon received his fatal injuries. He had been greatly depressed since.
