CITY IN MOURNING FOR BISHOP TAKEN BY SUDDEN DEATH

Many Sorrow for Right Reverend Richard Scannell, Whose Active and Useful Life Ended by Attack of Pneumonia.

BODY TO BE TAKEN TO CHURCH

Noted Prelates and Priests from Omaha and Many Other Cities Will Be Here.

TWO ARCHBISHOPS WILL COME

Distinguished archbishops, bishps and priests of the Catholic churches in various cities of the middle west will come to Omaha to participate in the funeral ceremonies for Right Reverend Richard Scannell, bishop of the diocese of Omaha, whose death from pneumonia at the age of almost 71 years, occurred early Saturday morning.

The funeral services will be held Wednesday morning at St. John's church, Twenty-fifth and California streets, and will begin at 9:30 o'clock. Burial will be in Holy Sepulcher cometery. For a considerable time before the funeral and burial, the body of the distinguished prelate will lie in state.

Two Archbishops Coming. Archbishop Keane of Dubuque, Ia metropolitan of the province of which the Omaha dlocese is a part, will be the celebrant of the pontificar requiem mas and will also administer the final absolution at the close of the services at the church. Archbishop Ireland of St. Paul, Minn. will deliver the funeral sermon. Last absolutions will be said following the sermon by Bishop McGovern of Cheyenne, Bishop Tihen of Lincoln, Bishop Davis of Davenport and Bishop Garrigan of Sloux City. Clergy Who Will Assist, The pontifical requiem mass at the church will be preceded by the chanting of the divine office, beginning at 9:30 Wednesday morning. In the mass Archbishop Keane will be assisted by Very Rev. F. X. McMenamy, president and rector of Creighton university; Rev. James Aherne of St. Agnes' parish and

Rev. J. F. McCarthy of St. Peter's fice. church will be deacon of the mass and Rev. Ferdinand Schnuettgen of Hartington, Neb., will act as sub-deacon, Rev. James W. Stenson of St. Philomena's parish and Rev. Hugh Gately, who was secretary to Bishop Scannell, will also

Body to Lie in State.

North Thirty-sixth street, from 9:30 a. m. to 3 p. m. Tuesday. This was decided upon in order to give more opportunity for the public to gain a last view of the bishop's features.

The original plan was to have the body lle in state at the church from 3 p. m. Tuesday until the time of the service Wednesday morning. This will also be carried out, so that the body will lie in state at both the house and the church at different times, to afford ampie opportunity for the deceased bishop's many admirers to pay their respects to his

Special Guard of Honor. A special guard of honor will watch the body while it lies in state and wher it is taken from the house to the church. Visiting prelates and priests of the church and priests of the Omaha parishes will accompany the body from the house to the church Tuesday afternoon. The escort will also include large representations from the Catholic societies of the city, among them the Knights of Columbus and members of the Polish, Bohemian, Italian and other church lodges, many of them in uniforms and regalia. Impressive Ceremony.

The cortege will undoubtedly be one of the largest and most impressive ever held in Omaha, and will mark the great love and respect in which the deceased prelate was held by members of the church during his long period of ministry Body at Bishop's House.

The body is now at the bishop's house 508 North Thirty-sixth street, where death occurred. Rt. Rev. Patrick Mc-Govern, bishop of Cheyenne, who was a close personal friend of Bishop Scannell, has arrived in Omaha and, with Omaha priests, is at the residence. In conformity with the binding custom for funerals of Catholic clergy, the body will be buried rather than cremated, and there will be no flowers. Priests in (Continued on Page Two, Column One.)

Frisco Board Was Sold Out Without Any Knowledge of It

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 8 .- Grand jury investigation of the alleged "collecting of tion for or against granting of permits for garages" was asked today in a resolution adopted by the San Francisco Board of Supervisors at the present board's final meeting. Affidavita, receipts for money and statements supporting the alleged charges were said to be in the possession of Ralph McLeran, chairman of the fire committee.

Supervisor McLeran in a formal gtatement to the board offering the resolution said "the committee has not obtained any statement from any person to the effect that money was paid to any member of the Board of Supervisors."

The evidence collected, he said, was gathered at the request of his two colleagues on the fire committee, the body which acted on the garage permits. The San Francisco Board of Supervisors was "sold out without knowing it" by persons collecting money to aid in get-
