

What is Going On in Society Circles

Miss Cudahy's Wedding.

Miss Florence Cudahy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cudahy of Chicago, formerly of Omaha, will be married to Mr. Vaughn Spalding Saturday, January 22 at 4 o'clock in Chicago at the cathedral of the Holy Name.

The bride will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Austin Kibick, charming young woman; Miss Alice Cudahy will be maid of honor and the bridesmaids will be Miss Helen Hinde, Miss Isabelle Robbins and Miss Elizabeth Fuller.

The best man will be Mr. Jesse Spalding, and the ushers are to be Messrs. John Coleman, Hempstead Washburn, Jr.; Edward Cudahy, Jr.; Philip Swett, Henry Keen, Nathaniel Wheeler, McGhee Baxter of Knoxville and J. T. Blossom of Fairfield, Conn.

On the Monday evening preceding the wedding, Miss Elizabeth Fuller, one of the bridesmaids, will give a dinner at the Casino club for the bridal party.

Twachtman-Callahan Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Charlotte Callahan and Mr. Quentin Twachtman of New York City will be celebrated January 29 in Grace church chantry in New York, with only the family and a few intimate friends present. Mr. and Mrs. J. de Forest Richards and Miss Callahan will leave January 15 for the east.

Where the young people will spend their honeymoon is not yet decided, but on their return they will occupy the residence of Mrs. Twachtman, the groom's mother, in Greenwich, Conn., while she is spending the winter in the south.

Omaha society folk regret that her marriage will take this charming young woman away from the city, but there is the promise of frequent visits to Omaha after her marriage.

Keller-Wilbur Wedding.

Cards were received last week from Mrs. John Wilbur announcing the marriage of her daughter, Edith Bernice, to Harold Russell Keller, U. S. N., on Saturday, January 1, at Wellesley, Mass.

Lieutenant Keller is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Keller of this city and was a graduate of the naval academy at Annapolis in 1912, since which time he has made several visits home. Miss Wilbur is a Wellesley graduate and has a brother in the army and another in the navy. Lieutenant and Mrs. Keller will be at home after January 15 at the Sherwood in Philadelphia, where Lieutenant Keller is on duty at present.

Shrader-Beach Wedding.

Word has been received by relatives of the marriage of Miss Ethel M. Beach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Beach, 19 South First street, Council Bluffs, Ia., and Lester M. Shrader of Waukegan, Ia., the ceremony having been performed at the Presbyterian parsonage in Waukegan at 8 o'clock, January 8.

This announcement comes as a surprise to the many friends of the couple, as an early summer wedding had been rumored. The couple will make their home for the present with Mr. Shrader's parents in Waukegan, where he and his father are in business.

Carey-Baldwin Wedding.

Miss Muriel Baldwin of Seattle, and Mr. Warren B. Carey of Topeka, Kan., were married on December 28, 1915. The news of the marriage was a surprise to their many friends. Both graduated from the Omaha high school in 1911, the bride being a very popular member of the social set and the groom being a member of the basketball team, of the Glee club and was a captain in the high school regiment. The young couple will reside at Capehart, a large ranch near Topeka, of which the groom is manager.

Lewis-Shipman Wedding.

Miss Hortense Shipman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Shipman of Kansas City was married January 1 in Kansas City to Mr. Walker Lewis of Omaha, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Lewis of Lincoln. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will be at home after February 1 at 330 Dodge street.
