Kellys to Give an Irish Program For Social Settlement Benefit Gathering to Be Held at the State

program of Irish folk songs at the Fontenelle on the evening of January 18 (Tuesday of next week) for the benefit of the Social Dettiement.

It has been a long time since Mr. and Mrs. Kelly were heard in Omaha in this delightful diversion. Those who were present at St. Mary's Avenue Congregational church one evening in March, 1908, when the program was first given, will recall it as one of the bright spots in Omaha's musical history. Mr. Kelly has painstakingly collected a number of genuine folk songs of Iroand-and of Scotland and England, too-and arranged them in attractive groupings. How he presents them may better be told in an excerpt from a note of appreciation written to him by the late Mr. B. H. Barrows, following that evening's program:

"I only want to express my delight at hearing the old songs sung by a genuine Irishman, and, you will let me say, by a genuine artist. And Mrs. Kelly shares. first honors with you. To many it was revelation, to all a sincere pleasure. but, better yet, it was an education to every hearer. In doing this service you not only delighted your friends with an artistic song recital, but you have achieved something far higher, which was to teach them the tenderness, the Smaller Cities pathos and the hidden tears of Irish
