

Child Gets Sick, Cross, Feverish If Constipated

Look at tongue! Then give fruit laxative for stomach, liver, bowels.

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm children and they love it.

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. If his tongue is coated, this is a sure sign the little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once. When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

C. W. BRYAN SAYS HE IS FOR WILSON

Brother of Commoner Says He Favors Renomination and Election of the President.

ALSO LIGHT PLANT FOR OMAHA

LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 9.—Charles W. Bryan, brother of William J. Bryan, former secretary of state, today issued a statement relative to his candidacy for the democratic gubernatorial nomination in which he says:

"I yield first place to no man in approval of the words accomplished by President Wilson and the democratic congress, nor in advocacy of the re-nomination and re-election of President Wilson. The pending legislation marks the most faithful redemption of all the legislative pledges made . . . by the Baltimore convention."

Mr. Bryan declares in favor of honorable peace and "unmitigated opposition to any and all military programs calculated to promote the profits of makers of war munitions at the expense of peace."

He declares himself in favor of state regulation of telephone rates, aid in irrigation projects, aid in preparing a municipal lighting plant for Omaha, good highways, state owned water power plants, the maintenance of fire insurance competition and the abolition of the liquor traffic in the state.

Opposes Military Programs. While claiming to be for President Wilson, Mr. Bryan emphasizes the fact by saying that "I yield first place to no man in approval of the great work accomplished by President Wilson and the democratic congress, nor in advocacy of the re-nomination and re-election of the president. In the hour when our country is threatened with a foe more dangerous than it has ever encountered—the militaristic foe—I take my place with the friends of honorable peace and against the friends of war, and declare unmitigated opposition to any and all military programs calculated to promote the profits of the makers of war munitions at the expense and prosperity of the vast majority of the people."

Rape Corporations First.

Speaking of other problems, he says: "As touching matters of particular moment to the people of our own state, I desire to be fairly understood as favoring legislation to the following specific ends: 1. To curtail the arbitrary powers of the State Railway commission, so that the people who contribute to the profits of the great telephone corporations may not be compelled to pay exorbitant rentals and tolls for telephone service. I favor legislation which will limit the revenue of the great telephone corporation to a reasonable profit on the capital stock of such corporation after all mortgage interests shall have been satisfied therefrom."

2. To assist in every way possible the people of Gosper, Phelps and Kearney counties to secure government aid in their effort to utilize the flood waters of the Platte river for the purpose of irrigating, thereby making certain profitable return to the agriculturists of that section of the state.

City Light in Omaha. 3. To give the people of the metropolitan city of Omaha the right to establish a municipal lighting plant, by the aid of which they might be annually saving more than a quarter-million dollars now annually collected from them above a reasonable rate by the corporation which owns the private electric plant in that city.

Against Insurance Combine. 4. To prevent the fire insurance combine from destroying competition in the writing of fire insurance policies which would lay an additional burden upon the policyholders in Nebraska of upwards of $25,000,000 annually.

5. To encourage the building of good public highways throughout Nebraska.

6. To encourage the building of electric interurban railroads.

7. To provide a plan under which the people of Nebraska, towns, counties, districts or the state may build and operate waterpower plants on the rivers of the state for the purpose of generating electric energy at low cost and carrying it to the homes of the people on the farms as well as in the towns.

Eliminate Saloons.

A study of the efforts of the people to secure legislation for the common welfare, and contrary to the desires of the public service corporations, convinces me that such efforts will be futile, in whole or in part, as long as the organized liquor interests shall be permitted to have as large a hand as they have heretofore had in controlling the actions of our legislatures. Experience in our own and other states has convinced me that there is one way, and only one way, to put the organized liquor interest out of the legislative business in this state, and that way lies in the direction of putting the saloon out of business altogether.

In my campaign for the democratic nomination for governor I desire it to be understood that if nominated and elected I shall feel it my duty to lend all possible influence to the making and execution of laws for the enforcement of all provisions of the pending constitutional amendment, provided the people shall vote to make it a part of the state constitution.

RETAILER SHOULD CULTIVATE MORE POLITICAL FRIENDS

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Neb., Feb. 9.—(Special Telegram.)—"Retail Dealers in Politics" was the theme of an address given by J. J. Ryan of St. Paul, Minn., secretary of the National Retail Grocers' association, at the session of the Retail Merchants' association held at the Lincoln hotel today.

He qualified his remarks, however, by asserting that he did not mean partisan politics, but in support of their friends who favor fair business legislation and a square deal all around. He said that the retail dealer paid 25 per cent of the taxes but his influence with the men who made the laws was very small. The remedy for the ill lay in education and legislation.

Other speakers were Fred Stone of Lincoln, accounting expert, and L. P. Utterback of Omaha. The latter spoke of the difference in doing business in 1882 when he began in Kansas, and the present day. He came to Nebraska City in 1878 and went on the road in 1885. He is the oldest traveling man in the dry goods line in the South Platte country. He gave a history of the changes which have taken place during the times he has been on the road.

Notes from Beatrice. BEATRICE, Neb., Feb. 9.—(Special.)—Lymon Jenkins and Maggie Baker, both of Lincoln, were married yesterday at the court house by County Judge Walden. The annual banquet of the Commercial club will be held at the Paddock hotel on March 7 and will be open to the public in general. The number of guests has been limited to 50.

SUTTON WOULD HOLD TALKFEST

Dry Candidate for Governor Suggests Discussions with George and Miles.

MILES GIVES REPLY AT ONCE

Faster to precipitate a talkfest as soon as possible, Judge A. L. Sutton was addressed by Walter A. George and Clarence J. Miles, as his two principal competitors for the republican nomination for governor, challenging them, individually and collectively, to debate with him "the wet and dry question."

"In the coming campaign," he says, "the people want to know what a man's position on the liquor question is, and the reasons he has for taking the position he does. It is known, and the people of Nebraska believe, that you stand for the brewery and saloons of Nebraska, while I am known as a dry candidate, and I am in favor of the abolishment of the breweries and saloons in this state. In my judgment, the people of Nebraska would like to know what reasons you have to offer for the continued existence of the breweries and saloons in this state and why I am opposed to them."

Incidentally, the judge suggests that the performance be billed for thirty or more cities and towns in the state, with a 50-50 division of the hall rent and other expenses.

Miles' Time is Filled. HASTINGS, Neb., Feb. 9.—(Special Telegram.)—C. J. Miles this afternoon made the following reply to A. L. Sutton's challenge:

"My Dear Sir: Your letter of the 8th inst. received, and in reply would say that if I felt that it was essential to be either an orator or politician to render proper service as governor I would not have allowed myself to be a candidate. 'I do not believe that the voters of this state will decide on the fitness of candidates for the office of governor solely on their attitude upon the issue between high license and prohibition. I have my own independent business, and I endeavor to give it good attention. Between my business and my candidacy for governor my time will be well apportioned up until after the primaries. Yours truly, 'C. J. MILES'

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE CENSURES MADGETT HASTINGS, Neb., Feb. 9.—(Special Telegram.)—The Chamber of Commerce held its annual banquet last night, the speakers being President J. N. Clarke, W. A. Taylor, E. Stockham and W. A. Taylor. New directors were elected.

The year just closed was one of the most successful in the history of the organization. Mr. Clarke in his speech censured Mayor Madgett for acts in connection with the South Platte exposition. He said the committee had asked Mr. Madgett to communicate with it if any of the shows in the exposition were objectionable to him. He said Mr. Madgett ignored the request "and took things into his own hands."

Body of Harry Schaupt Buried at Grand Island

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Feb. 9.—(Special.)—The body of Harry Schaupt arrived here from New York City and the funeral took place this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Harry Schaupt was the son of one of Hall county's pioneer families. His father erected the first mill in the county at a point on Wood River now known as Schauptville. Later the father erected a mill in Grand Island, but the same was destroyed in the eighties, with a heavy financial loss. The senior Schaupt then went to Arcadia, also engaging in the mill business, and from this point Harry Schaupt wandered to the Black Hills and engaged in the mining business in South Dakota and Idaho, finally venturing to Alaska many years ago. In the northern country he became interested in mining engineering and followed the profession for some time. Later he went to South America and from there to South Africa in May last, and has been engaged in work in New York City. He was taken ill with pneumonia and died suddenly. He leaves seven brothers and three sisters.

Recapture the Old Joy Of Living

HAS life lost its zest? Do you suffer pretty constantly from nervous depression—"the blues?"

Very often this state of things is brought on by poor elimination. Constipation is the underlying cause of many a case of "nerves" as any doctor will tell you.

Once get rid of constipation permanently and you will be amazed at the transformation in your health and spirits.

Laxatives and cathartics won't cure you of constipation. They give only temporary relief and tend to form a habit which is exceedingly dangerous.

But you will find in Nujol a rational means of restoring normal, healthful bowel activity. Nujol is a pure white mineral oil conforming to all the requirements of the Lane treatment for constipation, which physicians everywhere are now prescribing as the safest and most effective means of restoring normal bowel activity.

It is not a laxative but a lubricant. Being entirely mechanical in its action it may be taken in any quantity without harm.

Nujol is colorless, odorless, and tasteless.

Write for booklet, "The Rational Treatment of Constipation." If your druggist hasn't it, we will send a pint bottle of Nujol prepaid to any point in the United States on receipt of 75c—money order or stamps.
