

Council Bluffs Social Notes

The Atlas club enjoyed a most delightful luncheon Tuesday at 1 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Elmer Shugart. Before Christmas it had been planned to exchange gifts, but because of sickness and other reasons the social meeting had been postponed until this time. So with the service of desert each member was given her share of the gifts. Mrs. Shugart was assisted in entertaining by Dr. Harriet Hamilton and Mrs. C. D. Parshee. The club will hold the regular meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. J. M. Barstow, when study will be resumed.

The Women's Christian association held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. O. W. Butts Monday afternoon. Plans for the annual memorial service which will be held today were discussed, and arrangements made for it. The report that the insurance companies had paid the full amount of the claim for the recent fire in the nurses' home was received with much gratification. After the business of the afternoon had been transacted, the members spent an hour folding spoons for the hospital, after which refreshments were served.

A very interesting program was given by the members of the musical department of the Council Bluffs Woman's club Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Elmer Swanson. Mrs. Robert Moch was leader for the afternoon. A letter from Benjamin Whittely was read, after which Miss Higginson and Miss Kenady played his duet for two pianos, "Minuet." Mrs. W. J. Leverett read a paper on L. M. Gottschalk and Miss Marguerite Brown played his "Last Hope." A paper on Benjamin Lang and Margaret Ruthven Lang, by Mrs. J. E. Wallace, was followed by two songs sung by Miss Margaret Power, "Good-bye, Sweet Day," by Vannah, and "Nellie's Love My Vain." Miss Leahy gave a paper on George Whitfield Chadwick, and Miss Shirley Harrison gave a reading, "Little Brown Baby." Mrs. F. J. Duerr spoke on "W. H. Nedlinger and C. Whitney Coombs." Miss Helen Bentley sang, "Lindy," and "Singin' and a-singin'" (Nedlinger). Mrs. H. W. Anthony gave a paper on George P. Upton, critic, and Edward Baxter, lecturer, and Miss Ruth Turner sang "When Calls Spring" by Mark Johnson read, "Nebuchadnezzar," and Miss Gladys Holmes closed the program with the piano solo, "La Scintilla," by Gottschalk.

The Woman's Missionary society of the Broadway Methodist church held a meeting at the home of Mrs. J. E. Wilcox, Thursday afternoon. The mite boxes for the foreign relief work were opened at this time. Mrs. Nethercut gave a very nice talk on the utility of the mite box system and the needs of the foreign missionaries; Mrs. J. E. Wilcox, by very delightfully, Miss Marguerite Eissenberger played two piano solos, and Miss Marshall gave a reading. The meeting was very well attended and much enjoyed.

The Ideal club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. B. E. Terwilliger to continue the study of Japan. Instead of the usual current topics, a short business session preceded the study hour. A paper on "Early Religious Art, and the Influence of Buddhism" was read by Mrs. J. P. Organ. Mrs. C. Bonham spoke of the feudal period, dealing with the Yamato-Tosa school. Mrs. J. W. Smith gave a paper on "The Renaissance in closing." The same study will be continued next Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Terwilliger.

The members of the Leschetizky Music club entertained their parents at their meeting Saturday afternoon, at the home of Misses Laura and Mary Grimes. Papers were given on "The Origin of Opera," by Phoebe Fisher, and "The Life of Giuseppe Verdi," by Mildred Hibbs. A short synopsis of five Verdi's operas was given by Helen Mann, and Mrs. J. E. Lund sang "Mother," in honor of the club guests. Piano solos were played by Phoebe Fisher and Mildred Hibbs, and selections from Verdi's operas were given on the victrola. Miss Freda Kennedy is directing the studies of the club.

The Oakland Avenue club met at the home of Mrs. F. H. Orcutt, Friday afternoon. Mrs. Butler gave a paper on Maniloba, and Mrs. Blanchard on "Winnipeg, the Chicago of Canada." "The Coming of the Mounted Police" was given by Miss Blanchard, and Mrs. Arthur closed the program with a reading.

The meeting of the art department of the Woman's club Monday evening was devoted to the study of English cathedrals. The leader for the evening was Miss Jennie Rice. A description of the Round Temple church, erected by the Knights Templar in the Twelfth century, was given by Mrs. Page Morrison. Miss Pile told of the Middle Temple of the Inns of Court of London, describing its architecture and traditions. The literary associations of the Middle Temple were told of by Miss Dollie Buresse. She enumerated the many illustrious men whose names were connected in some way with this temple. Descriptions of Lincoln's and Gray's Inns, speaking specially of the fine law library and the garden of Gray's Inn. Miss Rice closed the program with the discussion of the latter temple. Rochester cathedral will be the subject of the next meeting of the department, which will be held at the library, February 21.

At the annual meeting of the board of directors of the Young Women's Christian association at the rooms Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. J. H. Beveridge was re-elected president. Mrs. J. B. Long was made first vice president; Mrs. R. E. Nichols, second vice president; Miss Mittie Pile, recording secretary; Miss Mittie Pile, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Ira Hendricks, treasurer. The president will announce her committees at the next meeting. Plans for the entertainment and jubilee of Friday, Saturday and today were perfected.

Oakland Avenue chapter of St. Paul's guild held a combined business meeting and tea Monday afternoon at the residence of Miss Elizabeth Quinn. Tomorrow's meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Huntington, with Mrs. Huntington and Dr. Harriet Hamilton as hostesses.

South First Street chapter of St. Paul's guild met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Forest Smith. Mrs. Smith was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. A. C. Graham.

At the meeting of the Tuesday History club, held at the home of Mrs. J. K. Cooper, the study of Ecuador was taken up. Mrs. Kilpack told of the Caras and Mrs. A. W. Tyler read a paper on the Spanish conquest. The War of Independence was given by Mrs. C. E. Saunders, while the formation of Ecuador was described by Mrs. Pfahler Knox. The geographical characteristics were described by Mrs. J. K. Cooper and the

Popular Guest During Last Week

Mrs. Isaac Raymond of Lincoln

MRS. ISAAC MILLER RAYMOND, JR. OF LINCOLN, GUEST OF HER MOTHER, MRS. W. J. CONNELL, A VISITOR WHO WAS EXTENSIVELY ENTERTAINED LAST WEEK.

mate by Mrs. Purdum. The next meeting will be held February 22 at the home of Mrs. L. A. Gray, with Mrs. Hollingsworth as hostess.

Miss Irene O'Brien entertained the L. H. D. club Tuesday evening at her home on Tenth avenue. Music and knitting furnished the amusement for the evening, which closed with a three-course luncheon. Next week the club will meet with Mrs. Embury on East Broadway.

Wednesday afternoon the home economics department of the Council Bluffs Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. J. H. Haslam, on Lincoln avenue. A description of her week spent at Ames was given by Mrs. E. J. Towlsiee, who went as a delegate from the club to the short course in home economics. A demonstration of baking powder biscuits was given by Mrs. Towlsiee and Mrs. Mack. Those who assisted Mrs. Haslam in entertaining were Mrs. Chase, Mrs. Mary Smith and Mrs. Huntington.

The Klatter Klub met Friday afternoon of last week with Mrs. Frank Binder, the afternoon being devoted to auction bridge. The prize for high score was won by Mrs. Frank Pinney, the runner-up by Mrs. W. S. Rigdon, and the guest prize by Mrs. Roland Otis. Mrs. Paul DeVol and Mrs. Edson Damon were also the guests of the club. At the close of the game luncheon was served.

The art department was hostess to the Council Bluffs woman's club at the February reception held Friday of last week at the home of Mrs. C. G. Saunders on Oakland avenue. The department took this opportunity to show the work being done, so the program was arranged with this in view. Miss Anna Z. Ross showed a series of stereopticon views, which were described or explained by different members of the department. A sketch of Canterbury cathedral was given by Miss Pile and Mrs. Page Morrison described the shrine of Thomas a Becket and gave a little history of his life. Mrs. G. T. Walker played some music written by him, and views of the cathedral followed. A history and account of the legends attached to Durham cathedral were given by Mrs. Emma Ingham, and Mrs. J. E. Wallace played some of the hymns composed by John B. Dykes in the cathedral. Views of the cathedral were given during these talks. Views of Lincoln cathedral were shown Miss Mary Denny giving the description and history. Pictures were also shown of Westminster cathedral and of St. Paul's. Westminster was described by Miss Rice, and Mrs. Burgess read selections from Irving. Mrs. Burgen's song, "Drink to Me Only with Thine Eyes," was sung by Mrs. Clarence Hafer. After the program a dainty luncheon of tea, cakes, marmalade sandwiches and candies was served. Miss Rice and Mrs. J. E. Wallace presiding at the table, which had as centerpiece a pot of English primroses.

At the meeting of the East End Card club Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arlington Wright, the first prizes were taken by Mrs. William Marquardt and Mr. M. B. Follett. Mrs. L. Trotter and Mr. Grover DeBar were awarded the consolation prizes and Mrs. A. P. Hobbs. Besides the members, eight guests were present. The afternoon was spent in visiting and sewing, and luncheon was served at the close. The club will meet next week at the home of Mrs. Mark, 1015 East Washington avenue.

The mothers of the prize winning babies in the Bloomer district are requested to meet with the members of the Council Bluffs Woman's club Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when Mrs. Sydney Smith, the club president, will present the ribbons and pins. The public is invited to attend this meeting. Mothers in all parts of the city are much interested in the contest, and even those who are not presenting babies in the contest are showing a desire to assist in the campaign for better health for the little folks.

At the Wednesday meeting of the Book Lovers at the home of Miss Rice the club continued the study of Thackeray's great novel "Pendennis." Mrs. Eldin Lougee told very interestingly of Laura Bell and her associations with the Pendennis family, and of the resulting love affair with Arthur Pendennis. Mrs. Charles T. Officer gave a condensed account of the characters in the book which had not yet been discussed, and closed the story. Miss Rice will again be hostess Wednesday afternoon, when the club will begin the study of "The Newcomes."

The meeting of the R. and S. club announced for last Thursday was club postponed till Thursday of this week, when it will meet with Mrs. Gardner.

The Flower mission held its annual election Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Pinney. Mrs. H. A. Quinn was elected president. Mrs. Pinney, vice president; Miss Nell Benton, secretary, and Mrs. Clarence Keelins, treasurer. Tea was served after the business was completed. Mrs. Pinney was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Frank Binder, Mrs. Roland Otis and Mrs. Reed Flickinger.

HER ENGAGEMENT TO WED IS JUST ANNOUNCED.

Helen Lindsey

of college students is with nose buried in a book, and gave themselves up to one of the merriest revels which the students have enjoyed for a long time. Delightful informality marked the whole affair. Those present were:

Messrs.— Ruth Johnson, Frances Keller, Ruth Stokes, Edna Gibbs, Eva Ward, Susan Johnson, Charlene Rumsey, Emma Ward, Bernice Schotterfeldt, Hazel Zoll, Irene Leslie, Bertrice Mitchell, Elsie Eshlar, Helen Andrews, Anne Johnston.

Messrs.— James C. Ward, Paul Cummings, Lester Stewart, Garwood Richardson, Perry Johns, George Evans, Dean Walker, W. H. Betts, Walker Rule, President W. E. Nicholl of Bellevue college and Mrs. Nicholl entertained the members of the faculty who live in Bellevue at dinner Saturday evening. This dinner was the second of two informal affairs which the Nicholls have given recently in honor of the college faculty.

Spring flowers, with pink and white sweet peas predominating were used in the decorations and favors. Covers were laid for: Dr. and Mrs. Stephen Phelps, Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Mitchell, Dean Walker, W. H. Betts, Rev. and Mrs. Charles E. Beakerville, Prof. and Mrs. P. W. Evans, President and Mrs. W. E. Nicholl, Mrs. Henry McRobert, Mrs. Marguerite Diddock made a hurried trip to her home in Walthill for the week-end.

Mrs. Laura Doeltle of Kirkman, Neb., was the week-end guest of Miss Helen Andrews. Judson C. Ward of Arcadia spent Friday and Saturday with his daughter, Miss Eva, a member of the freshman class.

The visit of Miss Alga Mills of Walthill, who during the last week has been the guest of Misses Marguerite Diddock and Cecile Peterson, was the occasion for a number of informal affairs in Pontenelle hall this week.

Miss Irene Leslie entertained in her rooms at the Pontenelle Wednesday evening in honor of her guest, Miss Ruth Derbyshire, Thursday evening Miss Derbyshire was honor guest at a "bridge" given by the Misses Ruth and Susan Johnson.

A daughter was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wolfe. Peter Hennickson is seriously ill at his home on Forty-seventh and Leavenworth streets with pneumonia. Mr. Thomas Blackett of Arlington, Neb., was in Omaha last Wednesday to visit his son, Walter, who is seriously ill of pneumonia in the Immanuel hospital. While here he was the guest of his son, Wilmer R. Blackett.

The Ladies Aid society of the Jennings Methodist church will meet Thursday, February 17, 1916, with Mrs. D. Given, 833 South Fifty-first street.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Nielsen entertained at dinner Saturday evening in honor of Mr. Nielsen's birthday. Covers were laid for: Messrs and Mesdames— H. H. Nielsen, James Nielsen, Harry Johnson, M. Christensen, C. Nielsen, Misses— Mildred Johnson, Clara Nielsen, Betsy Nielsen, Lena Nielsen, Johanna Nielsen.

Messrs. Albert Christensen, Bobby Nielsen. A surprise party was given Mr. John Wisler Tuesday evening, the occasion being his birthday. Cards and games furnished amusement for the evening. Prizes were won by A. J. Wisler, Mrs. Fred Tex and Mrs. George Hoffmann. Those present were: Messrs and Mesdames— E. A. Winn, W. T. Hamand, E. A. Marshall, George Hoffman, Frank Cockayne, Emil Groman, Joseph Seger, A. J. Wisler, Mildred Wisler, Lydia Wisler, Ina Wilcox, Helen Wisler, Rose Carr, Messrs— Glenn Wisler, Jim Gilmore, Walter Wisler.

day, February 15, with Mrs. E. Doll on Fifty-sixth and Leavenworth streets. Mrs. H. A. Allison was given a surprise party Friday afternoon in honor of her birthday, when the following guests were present: Mesdames E. W. Gehrke, Ingersoll, William Elliott, N. P. Nelson, B. Polley, E. Doll, R. J. Sutton, N. P. Thompson, F. E. Kern and Miss Minnie Gehrke.

Miss Lena Nielsen celebrated her birthday on Wednesday evening when covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Nielsen, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nielsen, Mr. and Mrs. Hans Nielsen.

Benson Social Circles

Mr. E. A. McLaughlin spent a couple of days in Missouri Valley on business. Mrs. J. Woods of Portland, Ore., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Frank Luder. The Katherine chapter of the guild will meet and have supper Monday evening at the Presbyterian church.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Akerman entertained the Sunday school board of the Presbyterian church Monday evening. Mrs. L. E. Luther entertained on last Sunday in honor of her sister, Miss Jennie Johnson of Nebraska City.

The B. L. S. club will hold a meeting on next Thursday afternoon at St. Bernard's hall. Mrs. Walter Snell has returned home from a six weeks' visit with relatives in Nixen, Pa.

Mr. E. A. McLaughlin entertained his Sunday school class at his home, Tuesday evening. Mrs. A. F. Snyder was hostess for the Good Times' club last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. C. E. Titset was hostess for the Cosma Kensington club of Omaha last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. E. J. McArdle entertained at a dinner Sunday evening, when covers were laid for twelve guests.

The women of the English Lutheran church will give a Washington's birthday dinner next Friday evening. The Christian Endeavor society held a special service last Sunday evening, when Mr. Baker of Omaha gave an interesting talk to the young people.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Beyers of Pierce, Neb., spent last Wednesday visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Amish. Miss Kate Van Horn was hostess last week for the Christian Endeavor society at a social gathering. Walter Snell, who has been with the Kuhla Drug company, is now with the Union Pacific, as chemist.

Florence Social Items

Mrs. L. B. Griffith was the guest of Mrs. Clara B. McMillan in Benson Monday.

Mrs. Frank A. Sears of Rochester, Minn., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. L. Plats, this week. George McPherson of Chicago, a former resident of Florence, was here Monday and Tuesday renewing old acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ross and family have moved from Omaha to Florence, taking the Harold Reynolds place.

Mrs. W. B. Vreeland will entertain the Hillside circle of the Ladies aid society of the Presbyterian church at her home Monday afternoon. Miss Lucille Harris was taken ill the first of the week with scarlet fever.

Miss Julia Kriel and Miss Viola Meyer have issued an invitation to the school patrons to be present at a patriotic cantata by the school children at the Eagle hall on Wednesday, February 23.

Mrs. Frank Brown will entertain the T. E. class of the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening at which time plans for the play, "The Splinter's Return," to be given at the Eagle hall, March 2, will be made.

Misses Olga and Olive Peterson entertained at their home Sunday evening for a large party of young people.

The Ponca Kensington was entertained by Mrs. Andrew Albach at her home Monday evening. Those present were: Mesdames Nielsen, Broderick, Moran, Krenger, Jasperon, Brown, Reed, Hanson and Raymond and Misses Martha Jasperon and Christine Albach. Mrs. S. B. Letovsky will entertain the Kensington club next week.

A surprise party was given Miss Maude Shipley at her home Monday evening. Twenty of her young friends assembled and made merry.

J. H. Price spent Wednesday and Thursday in Lincoln on business. Leonard Crum returned from South Dakota the first of the week to again make his home in Florence.

West Ambler Social Activities

A daughter was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wolfe. Peter Hennickson is seriously ill at his home on Forty-seventh and Leavenworth streets with pneumonia.

Mr. Thomas Blackett of Arlington, Neb., was in Omaha last Wednesday to visit his son, Walter, who is seriously ill of pneumonia in the Immanuel hospital. While here he was the guest of his son, Wilmer R. Blackett.

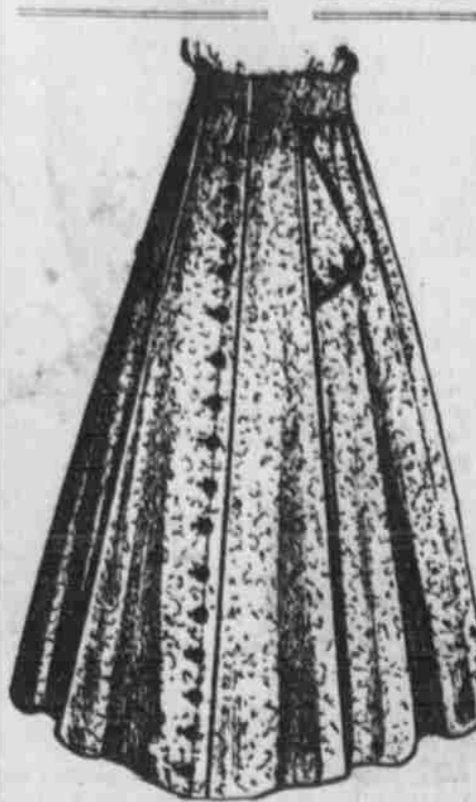

The Ladies Aid society of the Jennings Methodist church will meet Thursday, February 17, 1916, with Mrs. D. Given, 833 South Fifty-first street.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans Nielsen entertained at dinner Saturday evening in honor of Mr. Nielsen's birthday. Covers were laid for: Messrs and Mesdames— H. H. Nielsen, James Nielsen, Harry Johnson, M. Christensen, C. Nielsen, Misses— Mildred Johnson, Clara Nielsen, Betsy Nielsen, Lena Nielsen, Johanna Nielsen.

Messrs. Albert Christensen, Bobby Nielsen. A surprise party was given Mr. John Wisler Tuesday evening, the occasion being his birthday. Cards and games furnished amusement for the evening. Prizes were won by A. J. Wisler, Mrs. Fred Tex and Mrs. George Hoffmann.

Those present were: Messrs and Mesdames— E. A. Winn, W. T. Hamand, E. A. Marshall, George Hoffman, Frank Cockayne, Emil Groman, Joseph Seger, A. J. Wisler, Mildred Wisler, Lydia Wisler, Ina Wilcox, Helen Wisler, Rose Carr, Messrs— Glenn Wisler, Jim Gilmore, Walter Wisler.

One of the Newer Lohrman Skirts

COMPLETE $8 to $10 Special Until February 20th

If you will use forethought and arrange to have your spring suit tailored Now--before the annual spring rush--I will make every inducement in the way of price. As low as $35 if order is placed before Feb. 20th.

Lohrman POPULAR PRICES 433-35 Paxton Block, Omaha

Crochet with Klostersilk

Use Klostersilk for all kinds of crocheting and embroidering—the perfect twist of the thread makes it impossible for Klostersilk pieces to shrink or pull out of shape—after many launderings they retain their brilliant lustre and remain as beautiful as new.

The Thread Mills Co. Thread Sales Dept. 219 W. Adams St., Chicago, Ill.

KLOSTERSILK Crochet and Embroidery Cotton

White that stays white—color that fast.

PRICES FOR DRY CLEANING

MEN'S
SUITS, 3 pieces	$1.50
SUITS, 2 pieces	$1.25
Trousers	$.50
Overcoats	$1.50
Ulsters	$2.00
Sweaters	$.50
LADIES'
Tailor Suits	$1.75 to $2.00
Skirts, plain	$.75 to $1.00
Skirts, pleated	$1.00 to $1.50
Waists, plain	$.50 to $.75
Waists, fancy	$.75 to $1.00
Dresses, plain	$1.25 to $1.50
Dresses, fancy	$1.75 to $3.00
Jackets, short	$1.00 to $1.25
Jackets, long	$1.50 to $2.00
Gloves	$.10 to $.25

We guarantee satisfaction or no pay. Why not have the BEST?

THE PANTORIUM

"Good Cleaners and Dyers." Phone Doug. 983. 1515-15-17 Jones St. Branch Office, 2016 Farnam St. South Side, 4708 S. 24th St. N. B.—We sponge and press suits for 50 cents.

ST. VALENTINE'S DAY BRINGS BACK SWEET MEMORIES

DO YOU REMEMBER the little valentines you sent her—the ones with the little red heart and the pretty verses—when you both were kids?

WHY NOT RECALL THOSE MEMORIES by sending her now a box of St. Valentine's Candy—the kind you can get at Green's Pharmacy Cor. 16th and Howard. Omaha Distributors for the Celebrated "Dyer-Kiss" Perfumes and Toilet Articles.

DIAMONDS WATCHES ON CREDIT

Open a Charge Account With Loftis Bros. & Co. You can't go wrong if you buy a Diamond NOW at our present low prices, and you'll be "laying up money" every time you make a payment. Buy a Diamond NOW on credit, and get the benefit of future advances.

$24.75 a Month $2.50 a Month

1063—Wrist Watch, Case and Bracket are both fine 14k solid gold. Lever set, full nickel jeweled, choice of either white or gold dial. Quarant' mounting. $50

65—A Ladies' Diamond Ring, 14k solid gold. Loftis' "Perfect" 10.5 2 1/2" mounting. $50

1063—Wrist Watch, Case and Bracket are both fine 14k solid gold. Lever set, full nickel jeweled, choice of either white or gold dial. Quarant' mounting. $45

20—Diamond Stud, solid gold. $45

LOFTIS BROS & CO.

The Old Reliable, Original Diamond & Watch Credit House Main Street City National Bank Block 408 E. 16 St. Omaha, Opp. Burgess-Fish Co. Dept. Store

Albert Lincoln Cleveland