

Nebraska SOLONS OF OTHER DAYS TO ASSEMBLE

Members of Former Legislatures of Nebraska Will Meet in Force in Lincoln.

SECRETARY RICHMOND BUSY

LINCOLN, Feb. 13.—(Special.)—Preparations for the fifth annual banquet of the Nebraska Legislative league on February 21 have progressed far enough to enable Secretary Henry C. Richmond to say that it will be a tremendous success, as indeed each of the four preceding affairs have been.

This is the one occasion to which those old time lawmakers who have once headed to the call, are looking forward. It is the chance to mingle again with cronies and to talk over the days when clever maneuvering meant the difference between success and failure in getting pet measures enacted into law.

Always Responds. Once having listened to and answered the call the "old timer" has no trouble in again responding. If he is on the farm he pulls off the overalls, puts on the fur overcoat, has one of the boys drive him to town in an up-to-the-minute automobile, and starts for Lincoln, absolutely forgetting for a day and a night the duties, and even the pleasure, of the farm.

Who Can Attend. The constitution of the league admits a limited number of ex officio members who have never served in the legislature. Among these are present state officers, members of the supreme court, and clerks and assistant clerks of the last preceding legislature.

The Best Recommendation. The strongest recommendation any article may receive is a favorable word from the user. It is the recommendation of those who have used it that makes Chamberlain's Cough Remedy so popular.

Nebraska Little Change Seen in Political Situation

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Feb. 13.—(Special.)—Another week has gone by and there has been little change in the political situation. On the republican side the announcement that the dry forces had united on Pollard and would ask McKelvie and Magert to withdraw, caused a little ripple and brought out an emphatic announcement from McKelvie that he was in it to stay.

On the democratic side the situation remains the same. The advent of Bryan, Berge and Shields gives the dry men a chance to split the dry vote and this has encouraged the wet ones to again take courage in the hope that they can defeat Mr. Bryan for the nomination. They do not seem to be imbued with any idea that it would be better to take Berge as the lesser of the two evils, but would prefer to have a moist candidate who could be depended upon.

A POSTMASTER IS NAMED WHO WASN'T VOTED ON

TABLE ROCK, Neb., Feb. 13.—(Special.)—The appointment of A. R. Kovanda as postmaster of Table Rock, as noted in the morning papers, came as a distinct surprise to a great many here, but grape-vine rumors for a few days had all seemed to point in that direction. An election, which was supposed to decide the matter, was held here in the city hall on November 8, 1915, and the three candidates for the position, who paid the expenses of the election, received votes as follows: C. H. Carmichael, 79; Ralph C. Cotton, 70; William Ellis, 43. It was rumored at the time that Mr. Kovanda was a candidate, but would not submit the matter to the democratic electors of the patrons of the office. The term of Frank H. Taylor, the present incumbent, had expired January 13, 1916, almost a month since.

CONGRESSMAN KINKAID FILES FOR RE-ELECTION

(From a Staff Correspondent.) LINCOLN, Feb. 13.—(Special.)—The first republican congressman to signify his intention of becoming a candidate this fall for re-election by filing an application to go on the primary ballot is Moses P. Kinkaid of the sixth district, whose filing reached the office of the secretary of state late yesterday. It is understood that the filing of Congressman Reavis is on the way, coming from Falls City, and will be in evidence some time this week. Congressman Sloan has not yet filed, but there is no fear but that he will do so in good time.

Nebraska STOCKMEN GUESTS AT CAMBRIDGE BANQUET

CAMBRIDGE, Neb., Feb. 13.—(Special Telegram.)—The Commercial club gave a banquet to 115 visiting stockmen, the occasion being the farewell sale of Hereford cattle of Mount Bros. and Ed Redwell. The feast included many prominent stockmen. Judge E. B. Perry of this city advocated a better grade of cattle in Nebraska as well as elsewhere in order to make farming successful. E. N. Pollard, the republican candidate for governor, told how his father had planted three unsuccessful orchards in eastern Nebraska in the fifties. Now he has an orchard of 100 acres. He told how Nebraska apples were most in demand by commission men, how he hoped and believed that eastern Nebraska would sooner or later be the greatest fruit growing section in the United States, and in that case would be on a par with the pure bred cattle of western Nebraska. In conclusion he said that there were only a few great men in each profession, but no matter what our line success awaits our efforts. Rev. Mr. Toms of the Congregational church spoke on Abraham Lincoln and begged all to be Americans and stand behind the government regardless of beliefs in the present war.

NEW BRITISH CANAL MAY BE MILITARY NECESSITY

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) LONDON, Feb. 4.—A "Kiel canal" for Great Britain, connecting the River Clyde, which flows into the Irish Sea with the Firth of Forth on the North Sea side, was recently discussed before the Royal Colonial institute as a necessary naval measure. Such a canal would open up naval communications between the east and west coasts of Scotland, save warships from the danger of hostile submarines lurking among the numerous small uninhabited islands of the Scottish coast; and put the great shipbuilding yards along the Clyde at the disposal of the North Sea fleet.

Students of Nebraska Agricultural College Will Visit Yards Monday.

PREPARATIONS TO ENTERTAIN

Preparations have been made for the entertainment of 300 of the students of the Nebraska University College of Agriculture when they arrive Monday for their annual visit to the stock yards and packing houses. After they have spent the day in looking over the modern methods being employed in the marketing of stock and the preparing of the same for the consumer, they will be entertained by the stock yards interests at 6 o'clock in the Exchange dining room at a complimentary dinner.

The menu which has been prepared is indeed a novelty, the various dishes to be served actually representing at least a dozen states. The tomatoes for the soups have been shipped from Florida, the celery from Utah, scallops from Maryland, olives from California, radishes from Texas, Nebraska furnishes the turkey, Massachusetts the cranberries for the sauce, Virginia the sweet potatoes, Louisiana the head lettuce, Java the coffee, the cigars from Havana and Omaha the candied mints, ice cream and cakes.

A special train will leave Lincoln at 7 a. m., arriving at the stock yards at 9 a. m., Monday, where a large corps of guides from the stock yards will meet the visitors, escorting them to the various packing houses.

Alleged Confidence Man Held. Representing himself to be an agent for a western stock raiser, H. Johnson, who gave his address as the Hudson, S. D., yesterday walked into the office of the Cog-Jones-Van Alstons commission firm and giving a description of a half car of hogs which he claimed to be half owner, received $125 in cash money, it is declared.

Before members of the firm suspected anything he had caught a cross-town car and was on the way to Omaha. Immediate use of the telegraph and the telephone resulted in the man's arrest as he was getting off the cross-town car at Twenty-fourth and Leavenworth streets a few minutes later by Officers Neil and Nelson of the Omaha station. Johnson is being held at the local station.

Leo Kernan, former South Side man and recently an inmate at the Norfolk hospital for the insane, was arrested last evening at 6:10 o'clock by Officer Byrnes. He is charged with having passed a forged check for $15 at the Musician grocery store, Twenty-fourth and K streets, where he appeared Friday afternoon and bought a small amount of groceries. He was accompanied by a young woman. Kernan formerly lived at 418 South Twentieth street, which he gave as his present address.

In point of total carloads, as well as total head of hogs, received during the week, the last week's receipts were the second largest in the history of the yards, having only been surpassed once before, and that recently, for the week ending January 22, 1916, when a total of 1,938 carloads were received and the hog receipts footed up 109,234 head.

HE FEELS LIKE A REAL "COME BACK"

Jacob Ennis Tells How He Struck Keynote of Content.

AN OMAHA MAN'S STORY.

When a man loves life, throws out his chest, pulls his cigar from between smiling lips and says: "I feel great—I can eat anything," he has struck the keynote of content and is envied by his fellows. But when that same man, only a short time before, is all run down, nervous and can't trust his stomach to accept the plainest fare, and then comes back into his own, he is so happy that he wants to make life better for the "other fellows" who suffer as he once did.

That is the story of Jacob Ennis, day clerk at the Union Hotel, Omaha. Yesterday he added his praise in behalf of Tanlac, in order, as he said, that he might help others to be benefited.

"Tanlac has changed me from a 'trough' to a normal, happy man," said Mr. Ennis, "and I want to recommend it to the men and women who are 'all run down' as I was."

"My stomach became so disordered that the bare sight of food nauseated me. There was no dainty that could tempt me. I was nervous and could not get any restful sleep. I woke each morning more tired, if possible, than I had been the night before."

"Then I read about Tanlac, and tried it. From the very first I felt the improvement in my condition. Almost overnight it relieved my nervousness and brought real sleep."

"Daily I felt better, and now, after having taken two bottles of Tanlac I can eat anything and, say, but I feel good. Tanlac is wonderful!" Tanlac is being specially introduced in Omaha at the Sherman-McConnell Drug Company. There the Tanlac man explains to scores daily how it should be taken and what results may be expected from its use.—Advertisement

EXPERT SKATERS CARRY DISPATCHES FOR GERMANS

(Correspondence of the Associated Press.) KIEV, Feb. 4.—Among German prisoners recently brought here were a number of men who called themselves "dispatch skaters." From them it was learned that a whole company of expert skaters had been equipped early in the winter to carry dispatches by short cuts across the lakes among which the Germans have taken up winter quarters in various sections of the front. The organizer was said to be a man of the name of Wagner from Vienna, a prize skater and racer of local renown. The prisoners, including Wagner, were captured at Volini, near Vladimir Votynsk.

Always Moving Ahead

Thousands of the brightest minds in this country are devoted to the development and improvement of Bell Telephone service.

Steadily and constantly some fault is eliminated, some method improved, or some obstacle overcome.

To realize the steady progress that has been made one only has to compare the quality and quantity of the service today with what it was ten years ago.

Even in the last five years the number of telephones in use has been practically doubled and the distance of telephone transmission multiplied many times.

Our rates are the lowest possible and yet afford sufficient revenue to pay a reasonable return on the money invested, after paying fair wages and after providing sufficiently to rebuild or restore parts of the plant when destroyed by fires or storms, or when it becomes worn out or obsolete.

It is our constant endeavor to give the best service at the lowest rates at which it can be furnished, so we shall be able to connect everyone who will add to the value of the service to others.
