New Orleans, La.—"I cannot praise Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound enough, for I know my daughter never would have been so well if she had not taken it. For more than a year she had suffered agonies from irregularity, backache, dizziness, and no appetite, but is now well. I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to all mothers and daughters and you can publish this letter."—Mrs. A. ESTRADA, 129 N. Galvez Street, New Orleans, La.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"My daughter was feeling tired and all run down with no apparent cause. She had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before and knew its value so she again purchased it and she was able to keep to work, her eyes became bright and natural, and her system was built up completely. We generally keep the Vegetable Compound in the house for it is so relied on."—Mrs. E. J. PURDY, 6181 Race Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

GLEE CLUB CONCERT A SOCIAL AFFAIR

Creighton Singers to Have Select Audience, Which Will Fill the Theater.

STUDENTS TO SIT IN GROUPS

By MELLIFICIA—February 17. The Glee club of the Creighton university will give its sixth annual concert this evening at the Brandeis theater to an audience typically representative of Omaha's social, intellectual and commercial life. The concert of this evening will be the most successful event in the history of the Glee club. All boxes and seats will be occupied, many of the latter sold in blocks, both to classes in the university and various clubs. The Elks will be among the organizations having a big representation.

Of the departments of the university, the Dental school will occupy the biggest block of seats, numbering seventy-five. The senior class of the College of Arts and Sciences have a block of twenty-two. Other classes have taken blocks of seats, numbering from eight to twelve. The box first taken by Mr. and Mrs. Daniel C. Stapleton will be occupied by Dr. Robert Retzer, dean of the Medical college, Mrs. Retzer and a party of friends.

In the faculty box will sit the president of the university, Rev. F. X. McMenamy, S. J.; Rev. F. J. Kinsler, S. J.; Mr. Colaneri and Rev. Fathers McCarthy, Sinne, Harrington, Stenson, Ahern and Gannon.

Dr. Louis Bushman and Dr. Charles F. Crowley will have a box with Mrs. Bushman, Mrs. Crowley and Masters Edward and Creighton Crowley.

With Mr. John D. Creighton in his box will sit Mrs. Edward Creighton and Miss Ellen Creighton.

Mr. Lester Caldwell has a box and will have Mr. Frank A. Welsh, Mr. A. M. Steets, Miss Claire Helene Woodard, Miss Winifred Treynor and Miss Mary Duffy as his guests.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Will Hamilton will occupy a box with a party of guests.

Tea for Mrs. Guislain.
Miss Margaret Bruce and Miss Elizabeth Bruce were hostesses this afternoon at a tea that fitted into the bright promise of the sunshine and balminess of the day, and the feeling of spring's nearness was heightened by the profusion of violets and jonquils decorating the tea table and the living rooms. The affair was given in honor of Mrs. Jean Marie

Embarrassing Hairs Can Be Quickly Removed

(Beauty Culture.)

Hairs can be easily banished from the skin by this quick, painless method: Mix into a stiff paste some powdered delatone and water, spread on hairy surface and in 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and it will be free from hair or blemish. Excepting in very stubborn growths, one application is sufficient. To avoid disappointment, buy the delatone in an original package.—Advertisement.

AUTO SHOW MARKS GROWTH OF OMAHA

First Motor Exhibition in Omaha Was Held Ten Years Ago by but Five Dealers.

NOW HALF HUNDRED EXHIBIT

The evolution of the Omaha Automobile show from the first display in 1906 by five enthusiastic hustling dealers to great exhibition which will be made this year by half a hundred dealers is one of the many things which emphatically proves the wonderful growth of Omaha during the last decade.

The first auto show in Omaha was held April 4 to 7, 1906. Of the five dealers who took part in that show but one, Clarke Powell, remains in business.

It wasn't much of a show as shows go now, that first display. The stage, the basement, the corridors were unoccupied, nothing but the main floor was used.

And there was plenty of room on the main floor, too, despite the fact that the five dealers scattered out their cars and tire and accessory displays and anything else which would fill space.

The cars were practically all borrowed from private owners. There weren't any special show cars in those days. The machines were largely one and two cylinder affairs with one or two cylinders included. There wasn't such a thing as a six or an eight or a twelve cylinder motor.

What a difference ten years has made. When the eleventh annual show opens at the Auditorium Monday every available bit of space in the big building will be occupied and still the exhibitors will be crowded. The show will be of a week duration instead of three days. Ten times as many dealers will exhibit. Ten times as many cars will be displayed. There will be special decorations, special lighting effects, music and all at the show this year. Nothing like this was provided at the first exhibit.

But the first show made the great show of this year possible. It served as a starter. Omaha was one of the first cities in the country outside of New York and Chicago to hold a show. Auto men of Omaha are unanimous in the assertion that Omaha's shows have been the big factor in making this city one of the largest distributing points for automobiles in the country. The shows have attracted the attention of the factories to Omaha and every year finds new factory branches established here.

Choose With Care

ONLY ONCE IN A LIFE-TIME does the average person purchase a cemetery lot and then, unfortunately, we do not always exercise the care we should.

Too often the cemetery you select must stand the vicissitudes of a changing fate. Frequently it is the subject of unintentional neglect and, in rare instances, of actual violation.

In striking contrast to this, consider West Lawn where the rights of lotholders are safeguarded in every way and a fund is set aside for "perpetual care." West Lawn is conveniently located. Its very atmosphere is one of permanence.

WOMEN DECIDE MEN DO NOT NEED HATS

Say They Can Easily Overcome the Added Price of Their Suits by Going Without Headgear.

ONLY OF USE AS AN ORNAMENT

The $2 raise in the price of men's suits, as predicted by the retail clothiers in convention assembled this week, can be offset by the most if they will follow the counsel of the Woman's club and doff their hats.

"Men don't need to wear hats, anyway. They only do it for ornament," asserted Mrs. T. H. Tracy at the home economics department meeting. "On account of modern means of transit by which men are carried from their homes to offices in covered and heated cars and automobiles, they have no need for a head covering, which was the original function of the hat. They only wear hats to conform to social usage or at the dictate of fashion, not because they need them," said she.

Exposes Bald Heads.

Bald men, too—those of them who are prone to excuse their baldness on the grounds of having inherited it from their forebears, were exposed by Mrs. Tracy. "It's because men are slaves to fashion just as much as women and will persist in wearing hats with tight bandeaus, which press upon certain nerves in the head and destroy the circulation—that's why men are bald," further asserted Mrs. Tracy. "Men don't inherit baldness, but they do inherit a shape of head which does not conform to the modern hat manufacturer's idea of the shape of the head."

For women, the Grecian bandeau and rubber bathing caps and motoring bonnets were tabooed because of the danger of baldness.

"Dress Reform" and its advocates, Annie Jensen Miller, Beatrice Forbes Robertson and others were the topic for discussion.

"All-Star" Stock Company to Play Season at the Boyd

Beginning next month, Omaha becomes one of the cities in a circuit of stock companies, with which notable stars will play limited engagements of two weeks or more. Other cities of the circuit are Denver, Kansas City, St. Louis and San Francisco.

Organizers of the enterprise are G. D. Woodward of Denver and Manager Davis of the Alcazar theater, San Francisco. Their Omaha season starts early in March at the Boyd theater, and the stock organization from the Denham theater, Denver—the company headed by Miss Eva Lane, will be brought to this city, Mr. Edward Lynch joining it here.

During the season of stock productions at the Boyd theater, a number of Shubert attractions will also be played, the stock performances being suspended for the time.

Among the road attractions booked by the Shuberts are: William Faversham in "The Hawk"; Taylor Holmes in "Bunker Bean"; "A Pair of Silk Stockings" and "The Passing Show of 1916," and the Philharmonic orchestra of New York, with Frances Nash as pianist.

While the stock stars have not yet been announced it is understood that they will be such notables as last summer played a stock company engagement in Denver. First was Mary Boland, and after her, Otis Skinner and Florence Roberts. Each of those stars played a three weeks' engagement.

Manager Burgess of the Boyd theater says that the stock organization is being brought to Omaha exactly as any road attraction is booked.

Diamond Ring is Lost in a Produce Car; Hunt Now On

Somewhere in a car of produce on a siding at the plant of the Fairmont Creamery company is a diamond ring. When the car is unloaded a search will be made for the ring, though there is little hope of finding it. Railroad men assert that hunting for the ring is a proposition similar to the old idea of hunting for a needle in a haystack.

James Ryan works for a commission company in St. Louis. Monday he was assisting in loading a car with produce consigned to the Fairmont Creamery company of this city. In his pocket he had a diamond ring, purchased for his sweetheart at a cost of $50 and the following day he expected to present it to her as a remembrance of their engagement. While working in the car the ring is supposed to have dropped out and disappeared among the potatoes, turnips and other vegetables and the fruits with which the car was being loaded.

The car was one sent out by the Missouri Pacific and officials here have been asked to continue the search. This was started in St. Louis and abandoned because the car had to start out on its journey to Omaha.

FEDERATED IMPROVERS TO MEET TONIGHT

The Northwest Federation of Improvement Clubs will meet this evening with Druid Hill improvement club in Druid Hill school house, Thirty-first and Spalding streets. After the meeting the school house will be fumigated.

R. E. Howell, general manager of the Water board, and Frank Best, county commissioner, will address the meeting. The federation is opposed, it is asserted, to the proposed lighting contract, and to any contract that would in any way delay the construction or arrangement for a municipal owned electric light plant.

WILSON MAKING MEXICO FRIEND, SAYS METCALFE

"President Wilson was right in recognizing Carranza and not intervening in Mexico," declared Richard L. Metcalfe before the Noonday club at the Commercial rooms Thursday noon.

"Wilson had to either intervene or recognize Carranza, and intervention would have been a disastrous failure. The president is making a friend and customer out of Mexico, instead of an enemy. People who urge intervention have not the good of the United States at heart."
