WILLARD DEFENDS HIS TITLE TONIGHT

Champion nominee Frank Moran at Madison Square Garden in Endless Thousand-Dollar Box.

FAMILIAR ALL SEATS SOLD

NEW YORK, March 14.—Frank Moran, the unpopular American heavyweight, has been made favorite to win the world championship over the English boxer James J. Corbett, who will meet him in a match for the world heavyweight title at the Madison Square Garden, New York, March 16.

The Englishman was not allowed to take part in the contest and was not even expected to win.

Corbett, who has not fought in several years, is the former champion of the world and is expected to give Moran a fight.

The contest is expected to draw a large crowd and has been widely advertised.
