Mrs. Katherine Drummy, Police- woman, Addresses Newly Or- ganized Society. TEMPERANCE WORKER SPEAKS Omaha's only policewoman, Mrs. Katherine Drummy, gave the newly organized Society of American Widows a big boost last evening when she declared that many fallen women could have been saved had they been helped by some sisterly organization. "I meet all kinds of women, and i can say that lots of them wouldn't be what they are today if they had a helping hand to aid them at the critical moment. There is a crying need for some organization to help the widows in their efforts to help themselves," said Mrs. Drummy. Another speaker in favor of the widow's organization was Mrs. Altee Minick, welk known temperante worker. We widows who have gone through many trying ex- periences should be willing to lend a helping hand to younger widows." she de- clared. "This new organization will not end all our troubles, but it can be made a school of methods for young widows. Here they can learn what difficulties we ave overcome and how they should meets initiar difficulties." Mrs. Minick read some original verses dedicated to the widows' organization. The Widows' club will obange popular mentiments regarding widows, will set a eve standard for her rights and will be a school to the widows' organization. Mrs. Katherine Drummy, Police- woman, Addresses Newly Or- ganized Society. TEMPERANCE WORKER SPEAKS Omaha's only policewoman, Mrs. Katherine Drummy, gave the newly organized Society of American Widows a big boost last evening when she declared that many fallen women could have been saved had they been helped by some sisterly organization. "I meet all kinds of women, and I can say that lots of them wouldn't be what they are today if they had a helping hand to aid them at the critical moment. There is a crying need for some organization to help the widows in their efforts to help themselves," said Mrs. Drummy. Another speaker in favor of the widow's worganization was Mrs. Alice Minick, well known temperance worker. "We widows who have gone through many trying ex- periences should be willing to lend a helping hand to youngsr widows." she de- clared. "This new organization will not end all our troubles, but it can be made a school of methods for young widows. Here they can learn what difficulties we ball our troubles, but it can be made a school of methods for young widows. Here they can learn what difficulties we is school of methods for young widows.
