tion the Nebraska delegates-elect to the Republican national convention at Chicago have been invited to meet in Omaha Friday as dinner guests of Howard H. Baird, one of the delegates-at-large.

"I am merely taking it upon myself to ask the members of the delegation to talk over the situation and possible arrangements for headquarters at Chicago, and have done so at this time because I expect to be called away next week," said Mr. Baird. "I am also inviting ex-Senator Burkett, who has the preferential vote for vice president, and National Committeeman Howell, and perhaps one or two others."

lowing, at large: Howard H. Baird, Frank Damage Case Taken from Federal Jury for the Second Time

For the second time the suit of Elizabeth McCoy for $5,000 damages for the death of her son was taken from the jury in the federal court and a verdict in favor of the defendants ordered.

The suit was filed first against the Missouri Pacific railroad, and Judge T.
C. Mueger took the case from the jury on the ground that the Missouri Pacific had been killed by a Union Pacific engine's operations on a Missouri Pacific track.

The suit was then filed again against the Union Pacific railroad and Judge Woodrough took the case from the jury and directed the verdict in favor of the defendant after the plaintiff's evidence was all in, on the grounds of contributory negligence.

Real Estate Men Favor Exams for Playground Jobs

The Omaha Real Estate exchange joins with the Playground association in asking the Recreation board to give competitive examinations to all applicants for positions as playground superintendents.
The board recently declined to eliminate something over 100 applicants and give the examination to a select fifteen.

The Playground association has gone on record in favor of asking the board to change this ruling and give the examination to all, in order that those best fitted might be chosen for the places.

J. W. Hildebrand, a member of the association, and also a member of the Real Estate exchange, brought the matter to the meeting and asked the exchange to lead it in writing to the board to be made of the board, whereas the exchange had previously declined to do so.

SECOR RETURNS TO HOME AND SAFETY

Omaha Man Upon Whose Head the Mexicans Set a Price Resigns Job on El Paso Railroad.

MEX ARE BITTER AGAINST U. S.

"The army of the United States will not be withdrawn from Mexico until there is a provisional government established there, a government along the line of the one established in Cuba after the island passed from under Spanish control."

The foregoing is the opinion expressed by Frank Secord, who for four years has been superintendent of telegraph for the El Paso & Southwestern Railroad company, with headquarters at El Paso, Tex., and who has resigned and returned to Omaha to reside.

For many years Mr. Secord was night telegraph chief for the Union Pacific here. Four years ago he went with the El Paso & Southwestern relative to leaving the El Paso & Southwestern Mr.
Secord asserts that the Mexican situation did not force his quitting the country, yet he is willing to admit that he preferred to get out while the getting out was good.

The El Paso & Southwestern extends west from El Paso, running close to the Mexican border all the way up to Columbus, and during the last two years the Mexicans have gotten considerable enjoyment and amusement in tearing down the telegraph lines and then engaging workmen who went out to make repairs. This constant annoyance and the additional fact that there was a price on Mr. Secord's head in the event he was found on the Mexican side of the Rio Grande induced the superintendent of the road's telegraph department to reach the conclusion that places along the Mexican border were not particularly desirable as a residence.

Mexicans in El Paso.
Speaking of El Paso, with the large number of United States soldiers there and in the vicinity, Mr. Secord does not look for an uprising of the Mexicans.
However, he is of the opinion that in the event they should break loose they could do a great amount of damage. He asserts that at this time El Paso has a population of about 30,000 Americans and about 40,000 Mexicans, of which the latter are mostly men.

All through Mexico the pens, Mr. Secord asserts, are very bitter against the United States, regardless of whether Villa, Obregon or Carranza dictate the policy to be pursued.

"Sending the army into Mexico to capture Villa was an excuse for the United States taking a hand in the situation," added Mr. Secord. "and now that it is there, in my judgment it is not going to be withdrawn for a long time.
The better element in Mexico would probably favor intervention, but the masses are against it and would be ready to fight the plan."

"All told, I don't think there are to exceed 300 to 400 Americans in Mexico now. They have been rapidly coming out during the last few weeks. They have anticipated war and have taken the precaution to get out of the country."

Taking the Alternative

Judge Woodrough is Regular Speed Boy on the Bench

Joseph W. Woodrough, new federal judge here, is the sworn enemy of the law's delay, as Will Shakespeare (or Francis Bacon) called it.

Judge Woodrough has set a new pace at doing things in the federal court. He has now been on the bench nearly two weeks and the amount of justice granted and the amount of justice dispensed has been very large.

With some judges it has been an easy thing for one side or the other to have cases continued or tried out of their regular order on the assumption calendar.
Judge Woodrough is showing himself adamant against the plea of the attorneys. He declares himself in favor of efficiency, order and dispatch in the transaction of the court's business. Even a certain attorney who has already tried two cases in the last ten days and is the attorney in another case set for next on the assignment list found his plea for delay vetoed by the judge.

Judge Woodrough has fixed his hours of holding court at 10 to 12 and 2 to 5, and he opens court on time and pushes the business with all the speed consistent with justice and fair hearing.

JOKER FOUND IN NEW TOURIST RATE

Railroad Men Cannot Figure Just How Some of the New Rates Are Reached.

LESS PAY OVER LONGER ROAD

Local railroad passenger agents are considerably stirred up over a joker that they have discovered in the tariff issued by the Western Passenger association and approved by the Interstate Commerce commission, and which will become effective June 1. The tariff applies to summer excursion and tourist rates, and the joker applies to the round trip rate between Omaha and Minneapolis.

The Great Western and the Northwestern have direct lines between Omaha and Minneapolis. Over the short line the distance is 39 miles. For the round trip the Western Passenger association has made $16.96 the rate, and, by the way, this round trip summer excursion rate is just 1 cent more than the present regular every-day fare that is charged.

Here, however, is where the joker comes in. Neither the Milwaukee nor the Illinois Central has a direct line into Minneapolis, but the new tariff permits each of these roads, any time after June, to sell round trip tickets between Omaha and Minneapolis at $15. The Milwaukee will deliver its passengers to a connecting line at Des Moines and the Illinois Central to a similar line at Fort Dodge, Ia. The Rock Island, however, that has a line from Omaha to Minneap-

New Factory Will Locate at Ralston

A factory employing 300 men and occupying a four-story building covering half a square block is to be established within sixty days at Ralston, according to an announcement made by C. C. Shimer of the American Security company.

Mr. Shimer would not say what the factory would manufacture, but said that the owners now have a big plant in the east which employs several thousand persons and produces a well known article.
Mr. Shimer declared that the deal was arranged through his office, and that it had been closed Tuesday afternoon with S. E. Schaeffer, president of the Rialto Omaha and Minneapolis at $15. The Milwaukee will deliver its passengers to a
connecting line at Des Moines and the
Dodge, Ia. The Rock Island, however,
