No "Time to Burn" Now!

The order form below is not valid after Saturday

In another 48 hours—after to-night—

our great sale at the present low prices comes to an end.

Only 48 hours longer— to obtain the new "Handy Volume" Issue at one-third the price of the Cambridge University issue of the same new Eleventh Edition—absolutely unabridged by a line or a word.

As this advertisement is being written, the orders are pouring in at a tremendous rate. A quarter of a million people have written for the booklet describing this new issue of the Britannica. Thousands of belated orders are now on their way. And thousands more will be delayed until it is too late.

We shall endeavor to fill every order postmarked at your home postoffice before 7.33 p. m., Saturday, June 17, the hour of sunset in Chicago. The prices given below are not valid after that date and hour.

$1 paid now brings you the entire 29 volumes in this handsome bookcase

Line for Line the Same

We guarantee that the "Handy Volume" Issue is authorized by the publishers of the new Encyclopaedia Britannica; that its contents are identical, page for page (including every map and illustration), with the Cambridge University issue now selling at three times the price; that it is manufactured by the same printers and binders as the more expensive book; that it is printed on the same quality of India paper, from newly made plates; and that, because it is smaller, it is easier to handle than the Cambridge issue.

We guarantee complete and entire satisfaction with the contents of the Encyclopaedia Britannica and with the form of our "Handy Volume" Issue. To anyone, who for any reason is not satisfied and returns the set within three weeks, we guarantee to return all he has paid (including shipping charges).

After this Saturday it will cost you $11 to $19 more per set, according to the binding, to secure this splendid reference library. That is the price of delay now.

We had contracted with the publishers of the Britannica for an enormous printing. This is now nearly exhausted, and we can obtain no more sets at anything like present prices.

Take warning! We cannot guarantee to supply any particular style of binding on the last day. If you want to be sure of the particular style of binding you desire, send us a wire and we will reserve a set for you. There is just

Time to Telegraph

If you forward your order to-day, the set will be reserved for you until the order comes. But send your wire right now.

Remember, your purchase is not concluded until you have had the books in your home for three weeks and are absolutely satisfied with your bargain. See our unconditional guarantee below.

3 weeks are allowed you to examine the books and decide to keep them

Your order must be postmarked before 7.33 p. m.

YOUR MONEY BACK

if you are not completely satisfied

Remember that when you sign the order form below and send us your dollar the sale is not closed. All this does is to secure the shipment to you of 29 volumes of the new "Handy Volume" Issue in whatever style of binding you desire. Then you have three weeks in which to examine the volumes in your own home, use them every day, discuss them with your family, learn how wonderfully valuable this great work may be to you and every member of your household, especially to your growing children. Then if for any reason whatsoever you decide you do not wish to keep the books, you may return them and we will refund your dollar and all shipping charges as well.

You take no risk. We take it all.

"PREPAREDNESS"
(What Every Woman Ought to Know)

Nothing like knowing you know!
—not that any woman in these days of intensive culture would ever want to "down" another woman—but clubs are clubs and, even in men's clubs, discussions are apt to arise, with an inevitable appeal to a final authority.

Of course, you know what, in nine cases out of ten, is this final authority—the new Eleventh Edition of the ENCYCLOPAEDIA BRITANNICA.

What most women don't know, and what every intelligent woman ought to know, is that the ENCYCLOPAEDIA BRITANNICA is a wonderful storehouse of preparedness for women as well.

In hundreds of women's clubs it is already a faithful ally and mentor, and its vast usefulness fully recognized;—in thousands of homes, too—where ambitious mothers are endeavoring to give their children the best possible start in life.

—Nothing like the possession of the Britannica for that! But hitherto (at $168 to $250 per set) it has been beyond the reach of most people.—

Not any longer!

Every thrifty home, and every club-woman in the land, can now own the newest edition of the ENCYCLOPAEDIA BRITANNICA, complete and unabridged, in the daintiest and most attractive form in which this or any other Encyclopaedia was ever issued.

Hardly one woman in two hundred in the United States has had a college education. And probably not one club-woman in twenty or thirty. But for the active-minded woman of today, college graduate or not, the ENCYCLOPAEDIA BRITANNICA has become almost a necessity.

The entire set of 29 volumes takes up only 32 inches of shelf room. And you have the complete work shipped to you for a first payment of only a single dollar. There is an order form opposite.
