The Company agrees also to pledge under the collateral indenture all additional securities received from the French Government under its agreement to maintain the 20% margin above referred to.

For the sake of convenience in collection, the coupons and rights for interest and dividends maturiny on or before August 1, 1919, are to be detached and held for the account of the Company by depositories in France. As provided in the collateral indenture, substitutions may be made in the above list of collateral by the deposit of securities determined to be of equal value, but (except with the joint consent of J. P. Morgan & Co. and Brown Brothers & Co.) in no case may the value of the obligations of any one of the above Covernments be reduced more than 50 per cent, nor is the aggregate value of the obligations of any one Government or any other issue of securities to be increased through such substitution to more than 20 per cent of the aggregate value of the collateral. Pending the deposits of the collateral, the Trustee will hold cash equal to the face amount of the notes, releasing the cash from time to time to an amount equal to 5-6ths of the value of the collateral deposited with the Trustee.

This offering is made subject to the verification of the list of collateral, which may result in slight variations in the relative amounts of the several issues but not in the aggregate value, and also subject to the approval of the necessary details by counsel. WE OFFER THE ABOVE NOTES FOR SUBSCRIPTION AT 98 AND INTEREST, YIELDING ABOUT 5.785 PER CENT

Subscription books will be opened at the office of J. P. Morgan & Co., at 10 o'clock A. M., July 19th, 1916, and will be closed at 10 o'clock A. M., July 24th, 1916, or earlier, in the discretion of the Syndicate Managers.
