

HUGHES TIRED OUT, SUBSTITUTE TALKS

Nominee Says Few Words After Man Chosen to Speak in His Place Is Done.

FAVORS EIGHT-HOUR DAY

Hornell, N. Y., Sept. 29.—Charles E. Hughes went through the southern tier of counties in New York state today over his political battle ground of ten years ago. He spoke in four cities and greeted with handshakes or a few words ten other audiences in smaller towns.

Mr. Hughes repeated his views on the protective tariff, the maintenance of American rights and other issues of the campaign. In his speech at Binghamton and again at Elmira and Corning, the nominee went further than he had gone before in making known his views on the eight-hour day.

Favors Eight-Hour Day.

"I am not opposed to the principle of the eight-hour day," Mr. Hughes said. "I favor the general principle of the eight-hour day. I should like to see an eight-hour work day."

The nominee was accompanied by William M. Calder and Robert Bacon, successful and defeated candidates for the republican senatorial nomination.

Mr. Hughes was fatigued by the trip. He reached Hornell so tired of body and voice that he had a local speaker address the audience in the opera house here tonight in his place. The nominee spoke a few words only after his substitute had closed. The second campaign trip will end at Buffalo tomorrow.

Friend of Labor.

"Continuously during my terms of executive responsibility in this state," Mr. Hughes said in his address here tonight, "I sought to promote the just interests of labor, and recommended every practicable measure to that end."

"It is true I did not always agree with the measures that were proposed. I will admit that cheerfully, and I may state further that what I did in connection with my duty as governor involved a principle which I should continue to apply if I were invested with executive responsibility. As governor, I examined the proposals that were made as clearly as I knew how, and what I thought was right I favored it and when I believed a measure was wrong, I did not attempt to gain votes by endorsing it."

Insane Woman

Begs to Be Shot

"Shoot me, please shoot me and end my misery."

When Deputy Sheriff W. T. Hogan placed Fannie Cohen, a middle aged woman in custody she wept on his shoulder, threw her arms about his neck and plead with him to end her life. The woman was finally placed in an automobile and lodged in the county hospital.

While jostling about in her cot at the hospital Thursday night she ripped her night dress into rags, tied a stout strip about her neck and attempted to commit suicide. To save her from herself the insanity commission was hastily summoned and an order prepared, placing the demented woman in the hospital for the insane at Norfolk. She will be taken to the institution Saturday morning.

"Hughes Wide Awakes"

Will Enliven Campaign

New York, Sept. 29.—The organization of the "Hughes Wide-Awakes," patterned after clubs formed in the campaign of 1860 to aid Lincoln's candidacy, was announced here today. The organization plans call for bands of forty men in each county of every state where there is a Hughes alliance. Their particular function, as announced here, will be to "inject tabasco" into the campaign. The membership is expected to be composed largely of young men, but a special effort will be made to enroll surviving members of the Lincoln Wide-Awakes.

Escaped Prisoner Taken.

New York, Sept. 29.—William Knoblock, the prisoner who escaped from the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., in company with Robert Fay, convicted of conspiring to destroy ships carrying munitions to the entente allies, was arrested here tonight.

WILSON WILL TELL WHY HE RUNS AGAIN

President Intends in Coming Speeches to Give Reasons Seeking Another Term.

WON'T ANSWER CHALLENGE

Long Branch, N. J., Sept. 29.—President Wilson's attitude toward the political campaign and toward some of the issues before the country were made known here today. It was learned that in his speech at Shadow Lawn tomorrow, and in subsequent addresses, he intends to state definitely why he seeks another term.

Following is an authoritative summary of his campaign attitude: The president will adhere strictly to his determination not to enter into personalities or into political controversy with Charles E. Hughes. All the speeches he will make away from Shadow Lawn will be delivered to nonpartisan organizations and will be devoted entirely to a discussion of public questions. By inference they will have a political effect.

He Will Tell Why.

His speeches here, however, will be more political in tone. Tomorrow he will tell why he thinks young men should vote the democratic ticket.

Americans voters are entitled to know, he believes, what republicans would do in Mexico, what attitude they would take toward belligerent nations in Europe, whether they would repeal the federal reserve act, the tariff law, the rural credits act, the tariff commission bill, the eight-hour law for railroad employees, the child labor law and other legislative acts of the democrats.

Although several days ago officials here said the president would take occasion to refer frequently to the settlement of the recently threatened railroad strike, it became known today that he has since decided not to dwell on this question. The president believes that satisfactory settlements of pending international questions can only be embarrassed by partisan discussions of them.

Won't Reply to Challenge.

For this reason, he is not expected to reply directly to the challenge issued by Mr. Hughes that he deny or confirm the charge that John Lind went to Mexico with orders to oust General Huerta. On this subject, Mr. Wilson takes the position that Huerta was ousted, that the democratic administration opposed him consistently and that, therefore, no reply is necessary.

In connection with international questions, an authoritative denial was made here today to statements that

Parker to Oppose Hughes.

The president received word today that John M. Parker, progressive candidate for vice president, plans to make speeches in opposition to Mr. Hughes. At first administration officials said the president himself had heard from Mr. Parker, but later it was stated that this was a mistake and that a letter announcing his intention had been sent by Mr. Parker to Bainbridge Colby of New York.

Increased Cost of Paper Hits the Dems

New York, Sept. 29.—A fund of $1,500,000 will be required to conduct the democratic national campaign, according to a statement made here tonight by Henry Morgenthau, treasurer of the national campaign committee. He declared New York was expected to contribute about one-third of this amount, which exceeds by about $400,000 the sum spent in the 1912 campaign.

As an example of the increased cost of the present campaign, Mr. Morgenthau said that the printing bill alone would be three times as much as it was in 1912, because of the increased price of paper.

Germans Are Angry Because American Flyers With Allies

Berlin, Sept. 29.—(Via London.)—Sept. 30.—Immediately upon the utterances of the imperial chancellor in the Reichstag concerning the submarine campaign, the afternoon newspapers generally print strong criticisms of the neutrality of the United States, based on the news of the death of the American aviator Kiffin Rockwell, and the presence of other American aviators on the western front. They connect this evidence of American sympathy for the entente allies, and the supplying of war materials by firms in the United States as an indication of the futility of concessions to the American standpoint with regard to submarines. They declare that these facts show how American respect for neutrality is vanishing and how America is misusing the present form of submarine warfare to cover the active participation of American concerns in the war on the side of the entente allies.
