KOYEN WINS TITLE AFTER LONG FIGHT

Fremont Man Wins the Omaha Championship After Shooting Off Five Ties.

RAY KINGSLEY IS HIGH GUN

A trap shoot that would make an Egyptian mummy go into convulsions was staged during the second annual registered trap shooting tournament of the Omaha Gun club by Al Koyen of Fremont, Neb., and C. L. Waggoner of Diller, Neb., when this pair of crack Nebraska marksmen tangled up in a battle royal for the Omaha Gun club amateur championship.

This championship was to have been a 100-target event. When Koyen and Waggoner got through shooting 600 targets had been sprung from the traps. Koyen and Waggoner shot the first 100 targets, tied and then shot five shoot-offs before Koyen captured the title.

On the first 100 targets shoot during Monday's program, Koyen, Waggoner and Ray Kingsley of Omaha tied with 96 breaks out of a possible 100. On the first shoot-off of fifty targets Koyen and Waggoner again tied with 49, while Kingsley dropped out, cracking only 46 of the blue-locks.

Go at it Again. Yesterday morning Koyen and Waggoner went at it again. They shot another fifty targets. Both broke 47. Then they shot another fifty targets and again both broke 47. These shoot-offs were a part of the regular Tuesday program of 150 targets.

It was decided to shoot only twenty-five targets the next trip, the fourth shoot-off. It looked like Koyen's trophy when Waggoner dropped two early in the event and another one a little later. But in the last five Koyen dropped two, but still had the edge on the Diller man until the very last target, which he missed, and it was again a win, with both marking up a score of 22x25.

Koyen Improve. They say practice make perfect. Evidently Koyen had enough practice, for on the fifth shoot-off of twenty-five birds, the Fremont man broke the entire string, while Waggoner dropped his third bird and lost one of the greatest two-man shooting events ever held. So far as Omaha Gun club officials know five shoot-offs is a record. Here are the scores of the race in tabular form.

Table with 2 columns: Event, Koyen, Waggoner. Rows include First event, Second event, Third event, Fourth event, Fifth event, Sixth event, and Totals.

Kingsley is High Gun. Ray Kingsley of Omaha was the high gun in 150-target event of Tuesday's program. Kingsley broke 145 of the blue-locks. Al Middaugh of Fremont was second with 143, while C. L. Waggoner of Diller was third with 142 and Al Koyen of Fremont fourth with 140.

HUSKERS ON WAY TO MEET OREGON

Nebraska Students Hold Demonstration on Campus Before Team Departs.

ONLY ONE PLAYER SICK

Lincoln, Oct. 17.—(Special Telegram.)—A thousand yelling rooters, aided by 500 co-eds, voiced their well wishes to the twenty-three members of the Cornhusker football team who left here tonight at 10:30 over the Union Pacific for Portland, Ore., where the Oregon Aggies are played next Saturday.

The cadet band, which accompanied the team and a crowd of fifty rooters, to the coast, began whooping things up on the city campus early. A big rally was held at Memorial hall, addressed by Dr. Stewart, Dr. Condra and Captain Tim Corey. The individual members of the team were also hailed forth on the platform for a few words.

Immediately following the meeting, 1,000 students grabbed torches and candles and marched through the business section of the town. The squad left with all of the members with the exception of Caley in good physical trim. The last practice on the field was spirited and Stewart exposed a number of trick formations which he plans to spring on the Aggies.

Ellis Opera Company Opens Its Season at Toledo in "Carmen". Toledo, O., Oct. 17.—(Special Telegram.)—The Ellis Opera company opened its season at the Terminal Auditorium last night, giving a fine performance of Bizet's "Carmen" before an audience of upwards of 5,000 people. The cast was a distinguished one, including Geraldine Farrar and Lucien Muratore, artists of international reputation. Both these artists were in good voice. Miss Farrar's fine singing and superb interpretation of the name part was matched by Muratore's wonderful work as Don Jose and made a profound impression. Helen Stanley also sang Micaela and Clarence Whitehill as the Toreador maintained the high standard of a performance which could rarely be equaled and where the scenery and appointments were adequate.

Warner at Nickerson Points to Credit Flaws. Fremont, Neb., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—A republican rally at Nickerson Saturday night at which the W. P. Warner, republican candidate for congress in the Third district, was the principal speaker, drew a large crowd. Mr. Warner asserted his belief in an Americanism that will uphold the flag and protect the rights of citizenship wherever it floats, on land or sea. He pointed out flaws in the rural credits system just provided and said he doubted if under it the Nebraska farmer who most needs relief will find it a help to him.

John Matzen, candidate for county superintendent; J. W. Nation, candidate for county clerk, and Ross L. Hammond made short talks. The meeting was under the auspices of the Farmers' union and Warren Mulliken, candidate for the legislature, presided.

LIGHT CONTRACT IS UP TO THE VOTERS

Preliminary Steps Have Been Taken by the Signing of Referendum Petition.

CLERK TO CERTIFY NAMES

The city council was presented a petition said to contain more than 5,000 signatures, calling upon the council to submit to a referendum vote at a special election the five-year electric street lighting contract approved by the council October 3. General Manager Howell of the municipal water plant presented the petition, with the following explanation of his recent activities in this connection: Two years ago the legislature passed, and Governor Newhead vetoed, the Omaha electric light bill, which merely gave the people of the city of Omaha the right to vote upon establishing an electric light plant in connection with their water plant. The Omaha Electric Light company, that was almost wholly responsible for the campaign against this bill, is now fearful of the governor to be elected next November will not vote another Omaha lighting bill, should it pass the legislature and therefore the company is deeply interested in tying the hands of the city by a five-year lighting contract at this time.

I have been unable to believe that the city council has appreciated the vital importance of leaving the city's hands free to act at this time, when it passed the ordinance granting the light company a five-year contract, and therefore, together with a number of friends of public ownership, there has been secured a petition of more than 5,000 names asking that before this ordinance goes into effect it shall be referred to a vote of the people, and I now formally file this petition with the city clerk.

Should the coming legislature, which will meet within about sixty days, refuse to pass another Omaha lighting bill, that will be presented, there will be ample time, then for the city to make arrangements for additional lights, which it must be apparent cannot be installed before next spring, even though the contract in question should be ratified.

The city clerk will certify to the council as to the sufficiency of the petition and then it will be up to the council to give thirty days notice of the calling of the special election.

Mr. Hennessy said the men back only at the wages which prevailed before the strike.

SUTTON REPORTS G. O. P. GAINS FAST

Speaking Trip in Northwest Nebraska Discloses Sentiment Firm.

WARNER WILL WIN FIGHT

"Hughes, Kennedy, Warner." Mere mention of their names through Wayne, Dixon, Madison and Antelope counties is received with "enthusiastic applause," according to A. L. Sutton, republican nominee for governor, who writes Chairman Beach of the republican state committee to tell him of the popularity of the party's triumvirate. The letter of Judge Sutton follows: I just returned from a campaign tour through Wayne, Dixon, Madison and Antelope counties and beg to give you a detailed report regarding my trip. I spoke in Wakefield, Wayne, Norfolk, Neligh, Madison, Tilden, Meadow Grove and Battle Creek, and shook hands with several thousand republicans and democrats in the above towns and other places.

I found on my trip that every time I mentioned the names of Justice Hughes, John L. Kennedy or W. P. Warner, enthusiastic applause followed, and as the weeks go by there is a noticeable change to Hughes and the state ticket. W. P. Warner is making a whirlwind campaign for congress and the counties above referred to will give him a substantial majority over his competitor.

Wayne and the surrounding towns turned out a gathering of more than 2,000 people and W. P. Warner a d Congressman LeRoy of Wisconsin made a splendid impression on the audience, which will count as election day. The school children at Meadow Grove, together with a large number of citizens, turned out in automobiles and met me on my way from Tilden and escorted me to Meadow Grove. The children carried banners in their automobiles announcing I stood for the children of Nebraska and that they stood for me. I have an abiding conviction from now on there will be a steady gain for the national and state ticket and congratulate you on the splendid work you are doing for the entire republican ticket.

I leave tomorrow morning for another trip out in the state, speaking Wednesday afternoon at Harvard, Thursday at Beaver City, Friday and Saturday at Hastings, and will be in Lincoln to meet the voters next Monday and Tuesday.

COUNTING PROFITS AND NOT WORRYING

Stockbridge Tells the Farmers that Products of Soil Are Making Money for All.

PERIOD OF PROSPERITY

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 17.—Governor Ralston and Mayor Bell delivered addresses of welcome to the 1,500 farmers and delegates interested in the advancement of agriculture when the Farmers' National congress convened today for its thirty-sixth annual meeting. Every section of the United States was represented. Prosperity, preparedness and conditions, including the Adamson eight-hour law, were among the subjects discussed by H. E. Stockbridge of Atlanta, Ga., president. In part he said: "The American farmer has never seen so general or widespread a period of agricultural prosperity as that of the present year. Though the farmer may fail to receive his fair share of the consumers' dollar, the milk producers of New York, the wheat growers of Minnesota, the hog raisers of the corn belt and the cotton growers of the south are too busy counting profits to worry much over the other fact."

He praised the administration for its manner in handling the situation, but took occasion to condemn the facilities for mobilizing and equipping an army which, he asserted, had shown themselves to be weak. He declared that the European war, offensive or defensive, depends greatly on gree of industrial preparedness. Referring to the recent railroad strike situation, Mr. Stockbridge said the farmers must be considered as employers of labor and economically the farmer is not a laboring man.

Tagespost is Suppressed Because of Printing News. London, Oct. 17.—According to the Vossische Zeitung, says a Reuter dispatch from Amsterdam today, the commander of the Second German army corps has forbidden the publication of the Pommersche Tagespost for printing an article entitled "Destruction of the Bremen," the German commercial submarine. New York, Oct. 17.—Four Belgians and one man, claiming to be American, were removed from the Holland-American liner, Ryndam, by British authorities at Kirkwall and Falmouth, according to officers of the ship on its arrival here today from Rotterdam. The American passenger was Ernest Young. Passport irregularities were alleged by the British.

Wireless advices that submarines had been active near the American coast were received by Captain Krol of the Ryndam soon after leaving Falmouth and at night all lights were kept burning, including name and nationality in electric letters three feet high along the rail on each side of the vessel. Nothing was sighted, the officers reported.

Black Eye for Opera If the War Continues

New York, Oct. 17.—It will be difficult to maintain the opera here for another season after the one soon to open, if the European war continues through the winter of 1917-18, says Giulio Gatti-Casazza, impresario of the Metropolitan opera house. The reason for this, he said, is that it is now virtually impossible to engage singers abroad because the men cannot obtain release from military duty and the women singers fear to cross the ocean because of the danger of submarines.

War Summary

The Greek situation apparently again has entered a critical phase. Following yesterday's advices that the extreme powers had formally recognized the provisional government set up by former Premier Venizelos and his followers in the island of Crete, news groups from Athens today report a new note of "an extremely grave character" handed the Greek government by Vice Admiral Forster, commanding the eastern fleet, causing King Constantine to return hurriedly to the capital. Coincident with this landing from enemy warships of more than 1,000 blue-jackets, who have occupied the railroad stations at Athens and Piraeus and burned public buildings, is reported, together with the summoning of an urgent cabinet council. Concerning the fighting in Greek Macedonia, Paris reports the repulse by the Serbians of a Bulgarian counter attack in the Corcha river region, southwest of Monastir, and considerable artillery activity. Only patrol activity has developed in the Helms sector. Heavy fighting continues on the Somme front in northern France. French troops last night again took the offensive north of the river and pushed their way further into the village of Sully-Salvillet, on the Peronne-Bapaume road, capturing another group of houses and repulsing a German counter attack, according to Paris. In Gallia, southeast of Halles, the Austro-German forces have begun heavy attacks on the Russian lines. Petragrad makes this announcement, indicating the launching of a new offensive in the district north of Korytniza and in the vicinity of Bolshovoy, five miles north of Halles, after a pause of several days. The fighting apparently still in progress here. The strong offensive opened by Teutonic troops near the junction of the borders of Roumania, Transylvania and Bukovina has so far been fruitless, according to the Petragrad official bulletin, which records the repulse by the Russians of all attacks.
