

Boys' Suits and Overcoats $4

Just let us say this—if we tried to duplicate many of these in the wholesale market today at much more than $4, we could not do it. That is our idea of value—decide for yourself after you come here. Go through the stock and examine carefully the manner in which they are made and the excellence of the materials. There will be many who will want to take advantage of this offering—so come early.

Boys' Knicker Suits, ages 6 to 17 years. A big table of real pleasing numbers. Half of them are two-pair-pant suits, the balance are single pant suits. Two and 3 of a kind.
Little Fellow's Suits, ages 2 to 7 years. Junior Norfolk styles, Tommy Tucker styles and Billy Boy Suits, in all-wool Serges. Blues and browns. Natty mixtures in real juvenile colors, a few velvets, also in blue and maroon. Every suit with an extra white collar, some also have cuffs.

Boys' Overcoats, ages 2 to 12 years. All the smart new pinch back styles. Chinchilla Coats galore, in gray, blue and brown. A large assortment of new mixture effects. Long or short lengths.

Boys' Mackinaws. Skate Pocket Coats or full belted styles, in those real mackinaw color combinations—greens, browns, reds and blues. Ages 8 to 17 years.

Indian Stories For Everyone

OF COURSE Miss Cora Morris came here primarily to tell stories to children, but so many mothers and teachers have expressed their desire to hear what the children are being told that we have extended a special invitation to grown-ups as well.

Indian Stories Told in Costume will be a fascinating program for everyone on Saturday. First session at 10:30 and another at 3:30—making the day a most complete one for everyone who attends.

Miss Morris has gathered to her an ever increasing number of children each day and her stories are so well told that the children simply beg her to go on.
