The book will inspire the reader to a discussion of a number of important questions of modern life. A novel of New York, the modern Bagdad of wealth, luxury, ambition and reckless, restless passion. The story is built about this startling question: Has society the right to take the final step in alleviating hopeless human suffering?

A novel of the New Tork Latin Quarter, the bachelor girls and bache-lor men who seek only the "truffles," the delicacies and pleasures, in the sober game of life, and yet must find that life is a discipline after all. A drama of the conflict of new ideas against old freedom against restraint, and beauty against duty.

This is the story of a girl who goes far-Montreal. Boston. New York, "Bohemia," Idinging to her ideals as artist, model, friend of men, wife of one. The story is amusing, tragic, thrilling, yet realistic, and holds the reader's interesto the end. Every woman will wond what she would do in Marion's place.

Consumed with jealousy because Lady Connie, the girl he loves, has danced all evening with Otto, a young Polish musician, Douglas Falloden subjects his rival to a hazing, with disastrous results to the musician's career. Around these three the author has weven a novel dealing with the passions, longings and bigness of the human heart.
