

What Women Are Doing in the World

Tennyson chapter of the Chautauqua circle will meet at the public library Monday afternoon at 2:30. The lesson for the day will be "France Under the Republic," the first two chapters, and the subject of discussion will be "Foundations of Modern Europe," led by Mrs. W. A. George. Items of interest on Serbia will be the response roll call.

Rev. A. A. De Larme of the First Baptist church will speak at the Business Women's council Tuesday in the court house. The Kings' Daughters of Central United Presbyterian church will serve luncheon between 11 and 2 o'clock.

Mrs. G. A. Roberts will be hostess for the West Omaha Mothers' Culture club Friday afternoon at her home, 204 North Fifty-second street. Roll call response will be quotations from James Fenimore Cooper and the meeting will be given over to the last fifteen chapters of "The Last of the Mohicans," which the club has been studying.

Mrs. W. W. Carmichael, Mrs. T. W. Cox and Mrs. J. E. Dugan will entertain club members and their husbands at an open meeting to be held at Mrs. Dugan's home the evening of December 15.

In the absence of Mrs. Edgar Allen, who was called to California, Mrs. F. B. Bryant will assume chairmanship of the Omaha Woman's club committee working with the Franco-Belgian Relief society Wednesday afternoons. The women roll bandages and make surgical dressings for European field hospitals.

Do laws on our statute books conflict with divine law? To set at rest some questions on this score, Mrs. C. W. Hayes, leader of the political and social science department, Omaha Woman's club, has arranged a three-cornered discussion for Monday afternoon's meeting. Rev. A. B. Marshall of the theological seminary will talk on "Religion and the Law," Gus Miller of the juvenile court, "Humanity and the Law," and J. Dean Ringer on "Law and Justice."

A few moments will be devoted to an informal Thanksgiving service. "We shall take an inventory of our blessings and count what we in this country have to be thankful for. There is too much grumbling about the high cost of living and no acknowledgment of our many blessings," said Mrs. Hayes. An invitation has been extended all club members to attend the department meeting.

The first lesson in correct diction will be given by oratory department members of the Woman's club Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock in the Metropolitan club house. Mispronounced words will be the object lesson.

At 4 o'clock that afternoon Mrs. T. H. Tibbles will review "Influence and How to Exert It," by the Japanese author, Yoritomo-Tashi. This will be for the philosophy and ethics department.

"David's Sons" will be the Bible subject considered by the current topics department Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock. Current events and some new books will be reviewed following the Bible lesson.

Mrs. J. J. Melick will lead the program on Italian art for the art department, Omaha Woman's club, Thursday morning at 10 o'clock. Mantegna, master of the Paduan school; Bellini, founder of the Venetian school, and Carpaccio are the artists whose works will be discussed.

Madame Laure de Vilmar, soprano, who has come from abroad to take up her residence in Omaha, together with Jean Lamont Schaeffer, violinist, will give the program for the music department, Omaha Woman's club, on Thursday at 2:30 o'clock. Madame de Vilmar will preface their musical numbers with a talk on "Music in Paris."

Nebraska's early history, the territorial governors and the Omaha Indians will furnish the program for

NEW PRESIDENT SACRED HEART ALUMNAE.

Mrs. Charles C. Allison

Major Isaac Sadler chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Saturday at 2:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Edward B. Gibbs. Mrs. Walter Halsey will tell about the Indians and Miss Marjorie Diddock, a descendant of Joseph La Flesche, last chief of the Omaha Indians, and a student at Bellevue college, will sing Indian folk songs. Miss Diddock's home is at Walthill, Neb.

New religious movements, Christian Science, ethical culture, spiritualism and theosophy will be presented to the Clio club this afternoon by the Misses Helen Sommer, Edna Levine, Malvina Newman and Ella Fleishman. The meeting will be held at the home of Miss Blanche Frank.

Important business is scheduled for the meeting of Omaha Suffrage association Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock at Lyric hall. This will be the first meeting presided over by the new president, Mrs. R. E. McKelvy.

Shakespeare's "King Lear" will be taken up by Mu Sigma Wednesday morning at the home of Mrs. C. C. Belden, 4009 California street. Mrs. John Austin will discuss the origin and function of the fool in Shakespeare's drama; Mrs. G. W. Noble, Mrs. P. M. Conklin and Mrs. C. M. Axtell will contrast the characters of Kent and Gloucester, Edgar and Edmund, Cordelia with those of Goneril and Regan, and Miss May Riale will talk on "Lear, a Psychological Study." Mrs. I. W. Carpenter leads the program and Mrs. H. D. Neely the informal discussion.

Suggested changes in the constitution will be taken up by Drama League members Tuesday at 3 o'clock at the public library. Following the business meeting at 4 o'clock, Miss Kate McHugh, the president, will read and interpret Percy Mackaye's "Caliban by the Yellow Sands."

Mrs. R. L. Frantz, president of the Woman's club of the Railway Mail service, will entertain club members and former members Wednesday afternoon at a kensington.

The leaders and chairmen of the Neighborhood Bible classes met at the Young Men's Christian association Monday afternoon. The lessons given for the next two weeks were the Deluge and Nations, Gen. 5 to 11, and Abraham's Call, Gen. 12. Mrs. Charles Wright sang "The Lord is My Shepherd."

A memorial program for absent members has been arranged for chapter M of P. E. O. sisterhood, Saturday, under the direction of Mrs. M. O. Mabery. Mrs. Mabery and Lulu B. Mathews are to be hostesses.

Miss Ruth Fisher will be hostess for the story tellers' section, Association of Collegiate Alumnae, Wednesday at 4 o'clock, instead of Mrs. Robert Gantt. Miss Ruth Thompson will tell an American story and Miss Mary Bourke a French story.

Juliet Wilbor Tompkins' "The Seed of the Righteous" will be studied by the Dundee Woman's club Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. A. C. Crossman. Mrs. W. H. Hancock, who leads the round table discussion, will be assisted by Mrs. Clyde Drew and Mrs. T. L. Combs. Mrs. A. D. Bradley will give items of current interest.

Thomas J. Kelly's "Little Story of the Epiphany" will be told by Mrs. C. W. Pollard, leader of the program, at the Omaha Story Tellers' league meeting Thursday at the public library. Mr. Kelly is the Omaha musician who divides his time between here and Chicago. Miss Agnes Somers will give Wagner's biography and Mrs. Raymond Hayward will tell the story of "The Flying Dutchman."

The governments of Norway and Sweden will be discussed by the literature department, South Omaha Woman's club, Tuesday when it meets at Library hall. Mrs. J. B. Watkins is leader of the program. Mrs. E. M. Sloane and Mrs. A. W. Miller will tell about the royal families of the two countries; Mrs. J. B. Watkins, law-making; Dr. A. W. Ralston, rights of suffrage and local government, and Mrs. C. L. Talbot, armies and navies.

A social meeting of the Miller Park Mothers' circle will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. Benson, 2820 Ellison avenue. The hostess will be assisted by Mesdames E. Melvin, B. C. Littlefield, C. A. Tennant, T. P. Davis, E. W. Peets and Charles Thiem.

Plans for the organization's Christmas charity will be taken up by the city federation of Child Conservation leagues, Wednesday at 2 o'clock at the Young Women's Christian association.

Mrs. J. E. Goodrich will be hostess for the Sermo club Tuesday. Mrs. Bergen will read the biography of John Greenleaf Whittier.

Benson Woman's club will hold its last meeting till after the new year Thursday at the city hall. Mrs. Armstrong will lead the program of "Drama." Mrs. W. A. Wilcox will read a paper, "The Philosophy of Ibsen." Mrs. E. C. Hodder will give a review on "A Doll's House," and Mrs. H. Rivett gives an interpretative reading of Rostand's "Chanticleer."

The P. E. O. sisterhood of Benson held a parliamentary drill Monday at the home of Mrs. Tracy, with Mrs. A. C. Nerness as leader. On December 11 a social meeting will be held. It will be a children's party, an annual affair.

Mrs. Harry Knudsen will be hostess for the Benson B. L. S. club at her home Tuesday afternoon for a card party.

A business meeting of Chapter B. K. of the P. E. O. sisterhood will be held Monday at the home of Miss Agnes Livesey, in advance of the tea and Christmas sale which the chapter will hold Wednesday at the home of Mrs. John Turner Buchanan.

Mrs. J. J. Stubbs was re-elected president of Nebraska chapter, United States Daughters of 1812, at the annual meeting held Friday at the home of Mrs. Byron Peterson. Mrs. George B. Darr is the honorary president. Mrs. C. E. Adams is first vice president, Mrs. G. A. Moses of Crawford, second vice president; Mrs. Byron Peterson, recording secretary; Mrs. S. A. Collins, corresponding secretary; Mrs. E. F. Brailey, treasurer; Mrs. Silas Wright, registrar, and Mrs. Warren Perry of Fairbury, historian.

Mrs. John A. Ryan, Mrs. Max Hostetter of Shelton and Mrs. Thomas Wood of David City are board members.

George Crook Woman's Relief corps will meet Friday to elect officers for next year. The meeting will be in Memorial hall, court house.

General Henry W. Lawton auxiliary to Camp Lee Forby of the Spanish War Veterans, will meet at Memorial hall Wednesday at 2 o'clock to elect officers.

Mrs. Conant will be hostess for the Sojourners' club of Malva White Shrine Tuesday afternoon at her home, Hotel Harley. Assisting her will be Mrs. W. W. Kerr, Mrs. H. C. Barton and Mrs. A. G. Rocheford.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Prettiest Mile Golf club Tuesday evening, at the home of Mrs. C. S. Rainbolt, will occur the annual election of officers. The present officers are: Mrs. W. H. Flynn, president; Mrs. A. M. Smith, vice president; Mrs. A. D. Northrup, secretary; Mrs. F. M. High, treasurer, and Mrs. R. W. Emerson, press correspondent.

Miss Kate A. McHugh will speak on "The Novel and What We May Gain From It" before Temple Israel Sisterhood Monday at 2:30 o'clock at Temple Israel, Park avenue and Jackson street. Effie Siren Kittelson will talk on "Personalities," illustrated by poems from the classics. A piano solo, "Le Dernier Sourire," will be given by Mrs. A. Pollack. The program is in charge of Mrs. C. S. Elgutter.

The Society of American Widows will hold a bazar Saturday at 206 Crouse building, opposite the postoffice. The proceeds of the bazar will be used to carry on the work of the society and start a building fund. Bricks will be sold, in the form of red boxes filled with candy, to help swell the building fund.

Election of officers will take place at the meeting of U. S. Grant Woman's Relief corps Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock at Memorial hall.

Chapter E of P. E. O. sisterhood meets Thursday at the home of Mrs. F. M. Penney, 405 North Thirty-ninth street. The meeting is an all-day one, the time to be spent crocheting and braiding rugs, the proceeds from which will help defray expenses for entertaining the supreme convention in Omaha next year. Orchard-Wilhelm company has promised to purchase all rugs made by the sisterhood.

A special meeting of the ladies' auxiliary will be held in the Young Men's Hebrew association club rooms, Paxton block, Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

McKinley ladies' auxiliary to B'nai B'rith is giving a dancing party for members and their guests Tuesday evening at Miss Cooper's studio in the Lyric building.

Y. W. C. A. Notes.
The Sunday supper service is to be an informal meeting in the parlor. Miss Olga Ritzer will furnish violin music. Miss Esther Stamaal will be the hostess.
Monday evening at 7 o'clock the sewing classes of the domestic arts department will have a bazar in the parlor on the first floor. Novelties for Christmas gifts will be there for sale.
Wednesday evening, December 2, the C. A. C. club will have a Christmas banquet at the association building.

West Ambler Social Activities

Mr. and Mrs. John Robshaw of West Side have taken a new bungalow home at Fifty-fourth and Pacific for the winter.

Mrs. A. M. Kelley returned Wednesday from Medalia, Minn., where she has been the guest of her son since October 1.

Mr. and Mrs. David Johnson had as their guests Thursday her sister, Mrs. George Peck, husband and son, Kenneth Dale, and Miss Agnes Kache of South Omaha.

Rev. W. H. Downing and wife spent Thanksgiving with relatives at Nickerson, Neb.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nielson and two children spent the week-end with her sister in Council Bluffs.

Mr. and Mrs. William Moore of Benson spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. M. Roderick.
The teachers and pupils of West Lawn school gave their annual box supper at the building on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. C. Underwood, who has been the guest the last month of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Plummer, left for home in Topeka Monday.

Andrew Jacobsen, who is attending school near Lincoln, came home to spend Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Jacobsen.

Mrs. M. McCain attended the wedding of her grandson, George Scott, to Miss Grace Dudley on Thanksgiving day.

Messrs. Claude Plummer and Joe Braye of Rosebud agency, South Dakota, were week-end guests of the former's brother, C. M. Plummer, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Fulmer had as their Thanksgiving guests her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Van Meter, and aunt, Mrs. Sam Willard, of Hamburg, Ia.

Mrs. Charles Baarman has been caring for her nephew, William Aughe, jr., in Council Bluffs the last week while he has been ill with lung fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Berger, who have been living on west Poppleton street for the summer, have gone back to O'Neill to live.

Mrs. M. Moore returned Sunday from Waneta, Ia., where she had been called to see her mother, Mrs.

COMBS JEWELRY
Santa Combs has taken all the worry out of Xmas shopping. Everything is Ready

Ida C. Stockwell CORSET SHOP
No. 7 Baldrige Block
Corner 20th and Farnam
All Popular Makes, Including the Well-Known GOODWIN CORSET. Prices $4.00 and Up.
Phone Douglas 9253 for Appointment.

Christmas Greeting Cards
Many Choice and Exclusive Novelties
Place your orders for engraving. New Christmas seals. Tags and Labels. Crane's Highland Linen Box Papers. Desk Sets. Card Cases. Brass Novelties. Portfolios. Writing Lap Tablets. Lawyers' Brief Cases. Book Racks.
ART CALENDARS
Make up your gift list—Come in and look around.
The Moyer Stationery Co.
1611 Farnam Street.

Thompsons, who was stricken with paralysis.
Mrs. and Mrs. J. Rapp entertained Mrs. J. Shine and daughter, Miss Viola, of Kearney the last week.
Mr. and Mrs. C. Vaughn, parents of Mr. Hoover and former residents of West Side, from Weston, Ia., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Long.

Frank Cockayne and wife had as their house guests Thanksgiving their aunt's family, Mr. and Mrs. William Vickers, and their nephew, J. Bostock, wife and daughter, Vera, of Glenwood, Ia.

Mrs. R. Brady and daughter, Mildred Alice, of Keota, Colo., arrived Sunday evening for a few days' visit with her aunt, Mrs. A. Jackson, and family, leaving Wednesday evening for Bloomington, Ill., to visit her mother.

Mrs. H. S. Miller was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cress in South Omaha Thursday, who gave a feast for their house guests, Mrs. J. Case and daughter, Mrs. Carrie Glick, and son, Earl.

Arthur Rodgers returned home Saturday morning from Palisade, Neb., where he has been holding evangelistic services the last month, and will spend Thanksgiving and week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Rodgers, on west Arbor street.

Charles Watkins, wife and children autoed in from Creston, Ia., Thursday morning and surprised their sister, Miss Josephine Fisher, bringing well-filled baskets of a prepared Thanksgiving dinner.

Miss Gurtha Long, assisted by the pupils at Oakdale school on west Center street, gave a fine Thanksgiving program to the patrons of the school on Wednesday afternoon, followed by a substantial treat by the teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jensen gave a Thanksgiving feast and reunion at their home in Eckerman Thursday. Plates were laid for nineteen. Three were present, Mrs. Jensen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson; her brothers, Fred John and Will Johnson, wife and daughter, and sister, Mrs. Grant Hayes, husband and five children and Mrs. Joseph Boyer, husband and two children.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Gantz and daughter, Miss Adda, were guests on Thursday of their son and brother, G. Gantz, and family in Monmouth Park.

The Gift She'll Most Appreciate

Will Be the One

That's Different

New novelties now in for you to make your Xmas Selections from.

ALLA SHOP
207 SOUTH 18TH ST.

Why Have Chapped Hands?

Marinello Rose-leaf Jelly will keep them soft, smooth and presentable all through the cold weather.

Free from any oil, it is absorbed quickly, leaving the flesh without any feeling of stickiness.

It can be used a dozen times a day and always with good results.

One demonstration will convince you.

Free Demonstration at

N. L. Rice Marinello Shop,

Suite 568 Brandeis Theater Bldg.

Phone Douglas 3460

B.P. RED PRE-INVENTORY SALE
$30,000 PRICE SMASHING SALE OF WOMEN'S "READY-TO-WEAR" GARMENTS
We Take Inventory December 15th, and We Are Offering Every Suit, Coat, Dress, Skirt or Waist in the Stock at Wholesale Cost and Less Before Inventory Sale Now On

SUITS
I have nearly 200 beautiful Suits. Every garment is of the highest quality materials, workmanship and style. And the prices I am marking them down at this sale are just the price of what the skirt is worth.
Suits, were formerly $15.00, at $5.95
Suits, were formerly $20.00 and $22.50, at $8.95
Suits, were formerly $27.50 and $29.50, at $12.85
Suits, were formerly to $55.00, including velvets and broadcloths, at $19.85

DRESSES
Pre-inventory sale of dresses. Silks, Serges and Evening Gowns at less than wholesale prices. My entire stock all divided into four lots.
LOT 1—Serge Dresses, Silks also Evening Dresses and Net Dresses, slightly soiled, but worth to $18.00, at $4.95
LOT 2—Serge, Silks and Evening Dresses—regular new stock—values to $17.50, at $9.85
LOT 3—Dresses in Serge, Taffetas, Mezzanines. Several evening dresses which were formerly up to $22.50, at $11.85
LOT 4—Velvet Dresses, high grade silks and best serges. Dresses that formerly sold as high as $29.50, at $19.00

Hundreds upon Hundreds of pretty new Coats. Every desirable style and material, in all shades and all sizes. Broadcloths, Bolivias, Wool Velours, Cheviots, etc. All sizes for misses, small women, regular and stouts.

COATS
Values to $19.50	Values to $24.50	Values to $27.50	Values to $34.50	Values to $39.50
$9.85	$13.85	$18.75	$21.75	$26.50

SKIRTS
These will absolutely be the biggest bargains ever offered on skirts of the better grade. The entire stock is at your disposal at less than wholesale prices.
Skirts, formerly $3.95—$1.98
at $5.95 and $4.95
Skirts, formerly $4.95—$2.95
at $5.95 and $4.95
Skirts, formerly $8.95—$4.95
at $5.95 and $4.95
Skirts, formerly $14.85—$8.95
at $5.95 and $4.95

BLOUSES
My entire stock of Blouses, at a reduction of $1 to $5 on each Blouse.
All Blouses formerly $3.50 to $6.00, at $2.95
All Blouses formerly $7.50 to $8.50, at $4.95
All Blouses formerly $9.00 to $12.50, at $5.95
A lot of Crepe de Chine and Georgette Crepe Waists; some of them slightly soiled and a few of them damaged. They sold regularly from $3.95 to $6.95, on sale as long as they last, at $1.98

B.P. RED
1611 Farnam Street. The Popular Price Store.