

HUNDRED THOUSAND IN BROWNELL FUND

Joseph Barker's Squad Captures Coveted Honor Two Days in Succession.

TEAMS PARADE IN HALL

The $100,000 mile post has been passed in the campaign for $250,000 to rebuild Brownell Hall.

Yes, it was passed with $2,590 to spare, for the total subscriptions to date are $102,590. It was the team captained by Joseph Barker which dragged the ball over the goal and made the touchdown. Barker stood up heroically and announced the result of the day's work of his team as $3,000. This gave him the championship for the day, an honor which he ran away with Thursday. Nor was he content with this, for he promised to bring in another $3,000 Saturday.

John T. Yates and M. A. Hall were appointed to carry the championship banner to the Barker table, and as it had already occupied that position, there was nothing to do but to march around the entire hall with the banner. In a spirit of fun others joined the procession, until half a hundred of the team workers were parading around the Fontenelle banquet room behind the championship banner.

Bouquet to Mrs. Potter.
To Mrs. Phil Potter's team went the bouquet, which is the symbol of the championship among the women's teams for the day. Joe Barker carried the bouquet to her.

In these latter days of the campaign suggestions are being thrown out for memorials in the new building. Any one who wishes to give enough money to fit out a chapel, a gymnasium, a library wing, school building, music wing, dining room, residence hall, infirmary suite or swimming pool, will be welcome, and will probably have a chance to get his or her name indelibly inscribed in bronze on the walls of such room.

Harry Tukey was asked to make the "pop" talk of the day, but he pleaded a sore throat and a hoarse voice, and escaped.

Loses Her Voice As Result of an Auto Accident

Two Omaha girls, Louise Bailey and Florence Jenks, attending the State university, had a narrow escape from serious injury in an automobile accident at Lincoln Sunday, according to word just received by their parents. Miss Jenks is the daughter of Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hart Jenks, and Miss Bailey's parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Bailey.

The Omaha girls, with Miss Dorothy Lynn and Miss Ruth Wilson of Hastings were riding in a car driven by Miss Margaret Hammond of Lincoln. Miss Hammond's fingers grew cold, so Miss Wilson, who drives a different style of car, offered to relieve her and took the steering wheel. Miss Wilson lost control of the car while going down a hill and put her foot on the throttle instead of the brake. The car crashed into several tombstones in the cemetery, where they were driving, spilling the girls out of the car.

Miss Bailey lost her voice for three days as a result of the shock and Miss Lynn and Miss Wilson suffered severe cuts. Otherwise the girls were unharmed.

All of the girls are Kappa Alpha Theta members.

If you want a clear complexion use Resinol Soap

Use it at least once a day. Work a warm, creamy lather well into the pores to give the gentle Resinol medication a chance to work. Then rinse the face with plenty of cold water. It usually does not take many days of such regular care with Resinol Soap to show a gratifying improvement.

When the skin is in a very neglected condition, with pimples, blackheads, redness or roughness, spread on just a little Resinol Ointment for ten or fifteen minutes before using Resinol Soap. All druggists sell Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment. For free samples, write to Dept. 2-N, Resinol, Baltimore, Md.

Williams Run Over By His Own Auto After Collision

One of the most peculiar automobile accidents ever brought to the attention of the Omaha police occurred this morning at Fourteenth and Harney streets, when, in a collision with a car driven by Herbert Flesher, 4012 Maple street, George Williams, 3424 Seventh avenue, Council Bluffs, was thrown to the pavement and run over by his own car. One of the car's wheels passed over Williams' head and, although his face and scalp were badly cut and bruised, he was able to go to his home after his injuries were dressed by Police Surgeon Charles F. Shook. Flesher was arrested.

Williams, who drives a truck for the Washington market, 1407 Douglas street, was going north on Fourteenth street, and Flesher, who drives a Ford truck for his father, H. A. Flesher, a contractor, was going east on Harney street, when the machines collided. The impact threw Williams out of his seat and before he could arise his truck made a complete circle and ran over his head. Flesher, who was uninjured, jumped into the driverless car and brought it to a standstill.

IMPROVERS WOULD ABOLISH BOARD

Want Council to Control Water Works Instead of a Separate Board as at Present.

TO GO TO THE LEGISLATURE

The Bohemian-American Improvement club of Omaha has gone on record in favor of the legislature passing a bill to place the municipal water plant in control of the city council, instead of a separate water board, acting under specially enacted laws.

The matter was discussed at a meeting Thursday evening and the following resolution, unanimously adopted:

Whereas, the reports of our committee on water supply for the last three months explained in detail the unsatisfactory management of the Omaha water works, and whereas, the expressed unanimous opinion of all the members is that better progress and more satisfactory service could be rendered if in charge of the city council, therefore,

Be it resolved by the Bohemian-American Improvement club of the city of Omaha, that this club express the confidence of its membership in the ability of the city council to manage the water plant purchased by the city of Omaha, and heartily endorse any and all actions that may be taken at the next session of the state legislature to abolish the office of the water board and place the management of the water works under the control of the city council.

BACKACHE

(By L. H. Smith, M. D.)

In spite of the best care one takes of oneself, any part of the human machine is liable to become out of order. The most important organs are the stomach, heart and kidneys.

The kidneys are the scavengers and they work day and night in separating the poisons from the blood. Their signals of distress are easily recognized and include such symptoms as backache, depressions, drowsiness, irritability, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic twinges, dropsy, gout.

The very best way to restore the kidneys to their normal state is to drink plenty of pure water and to obtain a small amount of Anuric, which is dispensed by most every druggist. Anuric is inexpensive and should be taken before meals. It is much more potent than lithia and many find that Anuric dissolves uric acid as water does sugar.

People are realizing more and more every day that the kidneys, just as do the bowels, need to be flushed occasionally. The kidneys are an eliminative organ and are constantly working, separating the poisons from the blood. Under this continual and perpetual action they are apt to congest, and then trouble starts. Uric acid backs up into the system, causing rheumatism, neuralgia, dropsy and many other serious disturbances. It means that you are a victim to uric acid poisoning. Then ask your druggist for Anuric, which was first discovered by Dr. Pierce of the Surgical Institute in Buffalo, and which is dispensed by nearly every druggist in the land.—Advertisement.
