BURGESS-NASH STORE NEWS FOR MONDAY

Phone Douglas 137.

We Will Be Three Years Old This Week and Invite You to Participate in a Bargain Festival Beginning Monday--Burgess-Nash

The Third Mile-Stone

Burgess-Nash was established on January 18th, 1914—next Thursday we will pass the Third Mile-stone.

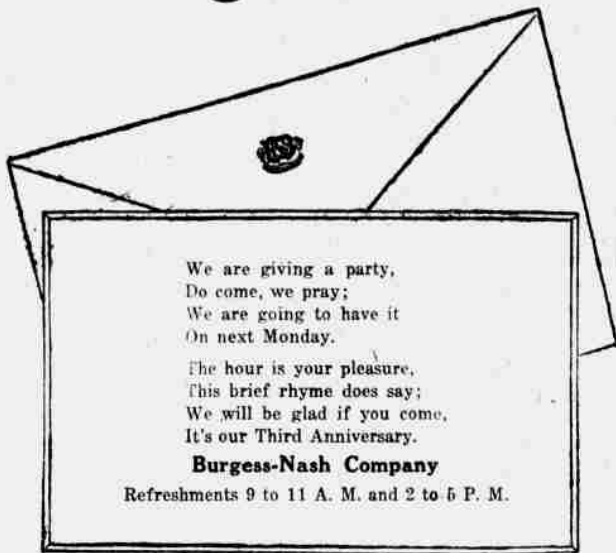

Three years of serving successfully the great commonwealth of this community—an achievement which becomes more gratifying to us as each year rolls by, and one which fully no other store in the country can boast of.

We always commemorate our anniversary—and our way is simply offering a great quantity of seasonable merchandise at less than usual prices.

Although our anniversary day is next Thursday, January 18, we have decided to begin our annual anniversary sale this year Tomorrow, Monday

—our preparations being so extensive that one single day would be insufficient to give all an opportunity of securing their share of the Third Anniversary Specials.

It has taken a long time to assemble the assortment. Each section was instructed to secure an assortment of seasonable merchandise at an under-the-market price. The result of our efforts will be in evidence Monday—beginning with the opening of the store—at 8:30 a. m. sharp—for your approval. As you will note, all anniversary sale prices end with 3, emblematic of our 3d anniversary.

We are giving a party. Do come, we pray; We are going to have it On next Monday.

The hour is your pleasure. This brief rhyme does say; We will be glad if you come. It's our Third Anniversary.
