Oklahoma Grain Harvest Promises Excess This Year
Assistant General Freight Agent DeGroodt of the Great Western passed the Fourth of July in Kansas City. There, he says, the day was unusually quiet. No attempt was made to hold a celebration.

In Kansas City Mr. DeGroodt learned that the small grain harvest all through Oklahoma and southern Kansas is well along and that the yield promises to be in excess of last year. The wheat is of a superior quality and will be on the market inside of ten days. Corn in both states is making rapid progress and indications point to a bumper crop.

LAST CHANCE TO BECOME OFFICER

Nebraskans Urged to Send in Applications to Second Officers' Reserve Camp Before July 15.

That there will be room at the second officers' reserve training camp for all persons with proper qualifications who apply, is the belief of Captain George L. Byroade, chief examining officer for Nebraska and now at Fort Crook.

The captain said a large number of men have not applied because they are of the belief that more already have done so than possibly can be accepted.

"This is far from true," the officer stated. "I would like to have at least 1,000 more men from this state apply."

Captain Byroade added that the requirements for entrance to the camp were not greater than that expected from new employes in many large firms.

"Men between the ages of 21 and 44 years who are citizens of this country are eligible to apply. Of course, preference will be given to older men, but there is plenty of room for men between the ages of 25 and 35 years."

This Last Chance.
Captain Byroade wishes to impress that the second camp will be the last one at which men will have a chance to become officers from civilian life. He said the third camp will be primarily for men already in the service.

Men selected for the second camp will have a chance to secure commissions above the rank of second lieutenant.

More than enough men are now at officers' reserve training camps to fill

Two Can't Agree With Taxi Driver; End of Perfect Day Occurs in Jail

Well, they had a good time anyhow, even if it did terminate in jail. A. D. Agosto and Secondo Marcella, 1924 North Fifty-first street, went out for a regular Fourth of July outing yesterday. They hired a taxi from the Omaha Taxi company to take them way out in the country near Calhoun. They spent the day eating sandwiches, drinking pop, shooting fireworks and everything. At the end of the perfect day the taxi called for them as per the agreement and whisked them to their home. But as they were about to go in the house the taxi driver reminded them that it was the custom to charge passengers for their haul and that in this case the bill happened to be $10. Neither Agosto nor Marcella agreed with the driver, especially as to the amount. They were then given a ride free of charge and tomorrow they must tell it to the judge.

all the lower commissions the army will need for some time, Captain Byroade said. "For this reason men who have executive ability and who have had experience in handling men are needed for the higher commissions."

All applications must be in by July 15.

MANY OFFER TO AID PENNILESS MOTHER

Responses Pour In Following Public Welfare Board's Appeal for Assistance Through The Bee.

A wide road of opportunities has been opened up to the poor, friendless, little mother who is without funds, through the article in The Bee. If responses continue to pour in to both the Board of Public Welfare and The Bee offices, she will be assured of a large choice of positions before night.

One offer is from the manager of the leading hotel at Peru, Neb., who wishes a good housekeeper.

Another applicant lives in Atlantic, Ia., while several Omaha housewives are desirous of obtaining her services. One man appeared at The Bee office early this morning with the article saying his wife was ill in the hospital, he was away most of the time, and they wanted just such a woman to look after the home.

Obituary Notes

MRS. MURRAY BAILEY, mother of Fred A. Bailey, former mayor of Benson, died at the home of her grandson, Charles Bailey, 5728 Arthur street, at the age of 70 years. She is survived by one son, Fred A. Bailey, and one daughter, Mrs. Leona Smith of Crawford, Neb. Funeral services were held from the home of the grandson, with Rev. C. C. Wilson of the South Side Grace Methodist church officiating. Burial was in Mount Hope cemetery.

MRS. M. J. FOLEY, 42 years old, a resident of Omaha for more than thirty years, died Wednesday after a month's illness. Mrs. Foley is survived by her husband, Michael J. Foley; two daughters, Mayne and Frances, and three sons, Thomas, Ignatius and Paul. The funeral will be held from the residence, 2402 Burt street, at 8:30 Friday morning to St. John's church. Burial will be in Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

LITTLE DAMAGE FROM FIREWORKS

Independence Day So Quiet That Almost No Property Loss of Consequence Results.

Several fires caused by fireworks occurred about the city Wednesday, but none caused serious damage. The first fire started at the home of Everett C. Blundell, 3021 Cass street. The little son could not wait for his parents to assist in the celebration and started a pinwheel burning in the house. Mrs. Blundell put out the fire with a slight loss to the rugs.

A vacant house at 3603 South Twenty-fourth street early in the afternoon sustained slight damage to the roof as the result of fireworks and later the roof of the home of John J. Fleming, 2318 Deer Park boulevard, was slightly damaged by a fire caused by fireworks.

A few firecrackers thrown in the doorway of the Star department store, Twenty-fourth and Park streets, started a blaze last night. The fire department put it out before it made headway.

A stick from a skyrocket fell on the barn in the rear of A. Peterson's residence, 4224 Patrick street, and burned the roof off. The fire department arrived in time to save lumber which the barn contained.

Small fires occurred at 1141 North Seventeenth street and at Twelfth street and Poppleton avenue. No damage was done.

Important Announcement!

We Are Going to Close Out or Discontinue Our FURNITURE Department

AND we want to give you some advance information regarding the record-breaking sale which we shall inaugurate on Monday, July the 9th.

January 1st we announced our plans for the year 1917, and among them was the razing of the Boyd Theater Building and the erection of an eight-story addition to our store in its place. The unsettled conditions of the country which developed soon afterward—the uncertainty of labor and the securing of materials, caused us to postpone our building plans until a more favorable time.

Room is seriously needed, however, to properly display our rapidly growing departments and we have decided that the Furniture department is the one we can best afford to sacrifice to accomplish this result.

Entire Stock Greatly Reduced in Price for Quick Disposal

Our Furniture stock is well selected and splendidly varied to meet the demands of a discriminating public, but to secure a quick disposal, we have gone through the entire stock and reduced the prices to a point that will close the stock out in a hurry.

If you've the slightest need of furniture of any kind, we advise you to attend this great closing-out sale.

Indeed, it will pay you to come and see what we have to offer—whether you desire to purchase or not, for the bargains that will be presented cannot be adequately described.

Courtesy or Inspection Days Friday and Saturday preliminary to the opening of this

Great Closing Out SALE OF FURNITURE

Which Starts Next Monday

Friday and Saturday have been set aside as courtesy or inspection days, when you can come and inspect the offerings and if so desire, make selections, but no deliveries will be made until Monday, July 9th. All purchases will be delivered in their turn as fast as possible.
